stumbling blocks Stumbling Blocks for Ecumenism Stumbling Blocks for Interfaith Dialogue and Stumbling Blocks for Church world Relations Eight specialists of ecclesiology comparative theology intercultural theology and theological ethics have each written chapters on a selected line of Vatican II that constitutes a stumbling block or hard saying for believers and theologians today The views expressed in these chapters have been discussed in three response essays The stumbling blocks have been selected from Lumen Gentium Unitatis Redintegratio Nostra Aetate and Gaudium et Spes The selected lines discuss the difficulties the Catholic Church has with atheism and with the Eucharist as celebrated by Protestant ministers how appreciation of other churches and religions goes hand in hand with defending the need of mission and why the Council assigns different roles to priests and laity making a distinction between the holiness of the Church and the sinfulness of its believers

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engbretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity

Turning to the World Carl N. Still, Gertrude Rompré, 2018-12-30 The Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 was a watershed event in the history of the Catholic Church a critical self-examination that sought at once to rediscover the most ancient sources of Christian thought and practice and to bring these traditions into the modern world While few question the idealism and vision of Vatican II its legacy is contested Has the Catholic Church fulfilled the promise of the council Has it successfully reclaimed the scriptural call to justice Has it truly shifted its gaze to the joys and hopes grief and anguish of our troubled world Reflecting on both the vision of the council and its uneven reception Turning to the World ponders the impact of Vatican II on interreligious dialogue peace building and care for the environment Focusing specifically on the Canadian and Latin American experiences contributors work from diverse disciplinary perspectives to examine developments in the Catholic Church's understanding of freedom conscience and the common good The volume also appraises the effects of the Church's turn to the world in its hope to voice the pressing needs of the human family especially in contexts of great poverty and injustice and among peoples adversely affected by the modern and postmodern economies of greed Exploring the legacy of Vatican II Turning to the World offers a unique perspective on the influence reception developments and applications of the council from the 1960s to the teachings of Pope Francis Edward Schillebeeckx and Interreligious Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2012-01-23 If Schillebeeckx had been Asian how would he have responded to the phenomenon of religious pluralism This book attempts to answer that question beginning with a dialogue with the Vatican Declaration Dominus Iesus and discerning how Schillebeeckx's methodology has been applied in Asian theology Employing the hermeneutical critical method Schillebeeckx asserts that the Word of God did not come down to us as it were vertically in a purely divine statement it must be interpreted In today's context of so many religions so many cultures and so many poor God's Word invites the church to be a sacrament of dialogue Through dialogue the church will be challenged by other religions and challenge them in return Christianity will then be put in its place as well as given the place which is its due The Long Shadow of Vatican II Lucas Van Rompay, Sam Miglarese, David Morgan, 2015-07-01 With the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 the Roman Catholic Church for the first time took a positive stance on modernity Its impact on the thought worship and actions of Catholics worldwide was enormous Benefiting from a half century of insights gained since Vatican II ended this volume focuses squarely on the ongoing aftermath and reinterpretation of the Council in the twenty first century In five penetrating essays contributors examine crucial issues at the heart of Catholic life and identity primarily but not exclusively within North American contexts On a broader level the volume as a whole illuminates the effects of the radical changes made at Vatican II on the lived religion of everyday Catholics As framed by volume editors Lucas Van Rompay Sam Miglarese and David Morgan the book's long view of the church's gradual and often contentious transition into contemporary times profiles a church and laity who seem committed to many mutual values but feel that implementation of the changes agreed to in principle at the Council is far from accomplished The election in 2013 of the charismatic Pope Francis has added yet another dimension to the search for the meaning of Vatican II The contributors are Catherine E Clifford Hillary Kaell Leo D Lefebure Jill Peterfeso and Leslie Woodcock Tentler Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham, Douglas Pratt, David Richard Thomas, David Thomas, 2013-11 Understanding Interreligious Relations is a multi authored volume that explores the theme of the religious other from the perspective of five major religions Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Christianity and Islam and discusses a range of issues in which interreligious relations are central These include conversion the impact and nature of religious extremism the contemporary development of inter religious dialogue the dynamics operating between majority and minority religious groups belonging to more than one religion or faith tradition examples of cross religious co operation religion in the public domain and the task of peace building among others In a religiously plural world how different religious communities get along with one another is not just an academic question it is very much a focus of socio political and wider community attention The challenge to understand interreligious relations is of critical importance in today s world      Vatican II and the concept of an interreligious dialogue. Fact and fiction in the face of radical Islam Matthias Dickert,2023-08-31 Scientific Essay from the year 2023 in the subject Theology Islamic theology Leuven Catholic University course LEST XIV 60 Years Vatican II The End of the Western Church language English abstract Vatican II and its progressive declaration of the Roman Catholic Church in dealing with other religions Nostra Aetate meant a turning point for the traditional Christian non Christian relationship This traditionally mostly negative relationship between the Catholic Church and other religions was now radically discussed anew and put on another scale with the aim of an improvement between all religions A special focus hereby was put on a new approach with Judaism and above all Islam The history between Islam and Christianity for centuries was accompanied by political and religious conflicts and wars which were marked by the notions of jihad and crusade It was in this antagonistic atmosphere where the famous four Cs of the West Conquest Commerce Civilization and Christianity were followed by terrorism and fundamentalism on the Muslim side Fundamental thinking in fact has not left the relationship between Islam and Christianity and the attitude to the West and Christianity in the Muslim world have turned to a more radical attitude since the Shah was overthrown in 1979 in Iran One can take this date as the beginning of events such as 9 11 the Gulf Wars or the wars in Afghanistan and Syria where the Islamic State proclaimed a new and even more radical era between Islam and Christianity with the establishment of the caliphate the geographical political and religious expression of fundamental Islamic thinking Things have not yet improved to the better since developments like globalization processes are presently challenging traditional religions with a tendency to fundamental thinking as the seemingly best adapted form of the religious in times of globalization and massive migration waves due to war poverty hunger or environment pollution All these developments are constantly challenging the positive basis of an interreligious dialogue between Muslims and Christians which during the last sixty years was marked by progress and regression on both sides alike      Theology without Borders Leo D. Lefebure,2022-06-01 Peter C Phan s contributions to theology and pioneering work on religious pluralism migration and Christian identity have made a global impact on the field The essays in Theology without Borders offer a variety of perspectives across Phan s fundamental work providing an overview for anyone interested in his body of work and its influence      Forgiveness, Peacemaking, and Reconciliation David K. Ngaruiya,Rodney L. Reed,2020-12-31 In this fifth volume from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology contributors explore forgiveness peacemaking and reconciliation as necessary prerequisites for human flourishing Ranging from biblical studies and church history to medical ethics and public theology this collection offers a rich diversity of voices and perspectives as each author reflects on God s heart for conflict alleviation within the contexts of their own communities nations histories and academic disciplines Taken together these contributions offer profound insight into both the particularities and generalities of God s transformative healing work in the world and how we the church are called to partner with that work in Africa and beyond      Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevens, Richard H. A God of Many Understandings Todd Miles, 2010-10-01 Western Christianity's interaction with world religions used to be for the most part overseas Today religious others often live next door At a changing time when one public prayer spoken during the 2009 U S presidential inauguration festivities was addressed to O god of our many understandings the evangelical Christian church should do more than simply dismiss non Christian religions as pagan without argument or comment The Church needs a theology of religions that is Christ honoring biblically faithful intellectually satisfying compassionate and that will encourage Spirit powered mission Oregon based theology professor Todd L Miles writes to that end in A God of Many Understandings attempting as the scholar Veli Matti K rkk inen puts it to think theologically about what it means for Christians to live with people of other faiths and about the relationship of Christianity to other religions

Transcontinental Links in the History of Non-Western Christianity Klaus Koschorke, 2002 Sehr viel starker und fruher als bislang wahrgenommen ist die Geschichte des Christentums in Asien Afrika und Lateinamerika seit dem 16 Jahrhundert durch polyzentrische Strukturen gekennzeichnet Zugleich bestanden zahlreiche Querverbindungen zwischen den entstehenden UeberseeKirchen teils auch ganz unabhangig von missionarischen Netzwerken

Die Beiträge der Zweiten Internationalen München Freisinger Konferenz behandeln unterschiedliche Formen transkontinentaler Verbindungen und frühe Beispiele direkter Süd-Süd-Beziehungen. Dabei werden drei Paradigmen diskutiert:

1. Ethnische Diasporen als Netzwerke, die für eine überregionale Selbstausbreitung des Christentums relevant sind.
2. Transkontinentale Rezeptionsprozesse.
3. Parallelentwicklungen in Asien, Afrika und Lateinamerika.

Texte in deutscher und englischer Sprache. Since the 16th century the history of Christianity in Asia, Africa and Latin America has been much more polycentric in patterns of interaction than has been traditionally recognized. At the same time there have existed many links between the emergent overseas churches, often quite independent of missionary connections. The papers from the Second International Munich-Freising Conference deal with various forms of transcontinental links and early instances of South-to-South interactions. Texts in German and English.
