Interrupted Lives Hoods Texas Brigade:

Interrupted Lives Bob Cheney, 2000-12 Hood's Texas Brigade was one of the most distinguished fighting units in Lee's Army of Northern Virginia participating in virtually all of the major battles and campaigns from Eltham's Landing through Appomattox. This book although a work of fiction is faithful to the movements of the brigade including its detachment to Bragg's command and the resultant battle at Chickamauga. Prominent in the book are Hood, Lee, Longstreet, and Stonewall Jackson as well as many lesser but real personalities. The book is basically about Caleb Walker, a Texas farm boy who enlists after First Manassas and remains with the Texas Brigade throughout the war. It includes Caleb's companions, most of whom will be killed or wounded, the ribald humor of enlisted men, Caleb's letter exchanges with his girlfriend, homosexual advances, non-combat related murder, the life, leisure, and horror of the common soldier, and the leadership, sometimes inept, often inspiring, of non-coms and officers. Each chapter opens with an account in the Dallas Spectator of the war's progress and problems in all theaters of the war and the home front and illustrates the typical Southern editor's willingness to criticize as well as praise without fear of retribution.

Tragedy in Black and White Bob Cheney, 2001-08 What if race relations in the United States got so bad that the nation decided to try a radical idea: separation. The events that propel the country to such an extreme are riots, disturbances in the armed forces, and on college campuses, and finally the assassination of a prominent black presidential candidate. In this book, a nation-wide referendum approves the idea. Three states are set aside for blacks only, seven just for whites, and the other 40 remain integrated. The story follows Mike, a white policeman, to all-white Miami; black college professor Ben and his family to all-black Chicago; and young militant Sherman also to Chicago. The brave new world that each was expecting proves elusive for both external and internal reasons. This is a story about ambition, love, hate, violence, and betrayal. Marriages will be sorely tried, children will rebel against their parents, careers will take abrupt and surprising turns. All the manifestations of upheaval will be explored against a background of racial misunderstanding. Woven into the story is a study of the background of racial conflict dating back to slavery and segregation. Would such a solution to our racial troubles work?

Who Killed New Orleans? Diane Holloway, 2005-10-21 Hurricanes Katrina and Rita created the most expensive disaster, the largest evacuation, and the third deadliest flood in American history. Nobody can control Mother Nature, but the world's most advanced nation could have protected its citizens better. This disaster revealed the faulty psychological reactions of officials who not only failed to protect the public from danger in New Orleans but lacked effective responses to the calamity. We elect and hire people who are supposed to protect us from attacks by nature and enemies. However, they fail us because of their human nature. They are as imperfect as we are, but we expect them to collect and heed facts that we cannot know to prepare for predictable disasters and to focus on long-term solutions rather than short-term fixes. Engaged in popularity contests, politicians and officials at all levels did too little about obvious problems. The ugly picture of poor and mainly black flood victims jolted us with poverty, racism, and segregation. Leaders must not wait to improve flood protection racial inequities a deteriorating healthcare system dwindling resources and climatic changes until crises occur This costly disaster should awaken us to re examine and change our methods of selecting politicians and leaders We must change our current leadership by the President captains of industry leaders of government law enforcement healthcare and the media We are inundated with self serving behaviors from those who loot and shoot to those in power who cast aspersions and dodge blame Ken Jacuzzi business coach consultant and author Dallas and the Jack Ruby Trial Diane Holloway,2001-01-20 The question of why Jack Ruby killed Lee Harvey Oswald was the central issue of his trial by Judge Joe B Brown Sr With compelling immediacy and exhaustive detail the judge s memoir is a vital contribution to the quintessential murder mystery of the 20th century Here for the first time we get to know what really went on in Ruby s trial and in his mind Judge Brown had access to previously unpublished facts involved in the trial of the century as it was called His memoir has been combined with the Warren Commission interrogation of Ruby and with Ruby polygraph conducted by the F B I accompanied by enlightening psychological commentary With a selection of previously unpublished photographs this is a brilliant illuminating new view of the event that has dominated the consciousness of the American public as no other ever has

Hood's Texas Brigade Susannah J. Ural, 2017-11-13 The Texas Brigade of the Army of Northern Virginia was one of the best units to fight on either side in the American Civil War Three factors made that success possible their strong self identity as Confederates the mutual respect shared between the brigade's junior officers and their men and a constant desire to maintain their reputation not just as Texans but also as the best soldiers in Robert E Lee's army and all the Confederacy Hood's Texas Brigade is a study of the soldiers and families of this elite unit that challenges key historical arguments about soldier motivation volunteerism and desertion home front morale and veterans postwar adjustment Stampin' Out

Ignorance Bob Cheney, 2002-11 No one knows more about classroom humor than a teacher unless it's a student If teachers hope to survive they better have a sense of humor Nobody knows more about the quirky behavior of some teachers than administrators and vice versa The origin is laid clear of the phrase Those who can do and those who can't do teach Marital partners also need a sense of humor With nearly four decades of teaching and marital experience Bob Cheney delights readers as he attempts to stamp out ignorance With his matrimonial partner a psychologist a contrast of personalities produces hilarious predicaments No marriage is perfect least of all this one Anecdotes illustrate how two people with different lifestyles can live together in relative harmony And then there are funny things that happen outside of teaching or marriage Students teachers administrators and couples can relate to these amusing tales Life and Campaigns of
