Interviews and Conversations with 20th-century Authors Writing in English Stan A. Vrana, 1982 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com Profiles in Canadian Literature 7 Jeffrey M. Heath, 1991-09-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer's work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author's life Finally there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere U of T Quarterly The Forsaken Son Joshua Pederson, 2016-04-20 The Forsaken Son engages the provocative coincidence of the vocabularies of infanticide and Christianity specifically atonement theology in six modern American novels Flannery O'Connor's The Violent Bear It Away the first two installments of John Updike's Rabbit tetralogy Toni Morrison's Beloved Joyce Carol Oates's My Sister My Love and Cormac McCarthy's Outer Dark Christian atonement theology explains why God lets His son be crucified Yet in recent years as an increasing number of scholars have come to reject that explanation the cross reverts from saving grace to trauma or even crime More bluntly without atonement the cross may be a filicide in which God forces his son to die for no apparent reason Pederson argues that the novels about child murder mentioned above likewise give voice to modern skepticism about traditional atonement theology Pilot and Experimental Program on Urban Employment Surveys Norman Root, 1969 Winning at Interviews Thorpe, 2012

Conversations with W. S. Merwin Michael Wutz, Hal Crimmel, 2015-05-21 Conversations with W S Merwin is the first collection of interviews with former United States Poet Laureate W S Merwin b 1927 Spanning almost six decades of conversations the collection touches on such topics as Merwin's early influences Robert Graves and Ezra Pound his location within the twin poles of Walt Whitman and Henry David Thoreau and his extraordinary work as a translator as well as his decades long interest in environmental conservation Anticipating the current sustainability movement and the debates surrounding major and minor literatures Merwin was and still is a visionary He is among the most distinguished poets translators and thinkers in the United States A major link between the period of literary modernism and its contemporary extensions Merwin has been a force in American letters for many decades and his translations from the Spanish French Italian Japanese and other languages have earned him unanimous praise and admiration Merwin also wrote at the forefront of literature's environmental advocacy and early on articulated concerns about ecology and sustainability Conversations with W S Merwin offers insight into the various dimensions of Merwin's thought by treating his interviews as a self standing category in his oeuvre More than casual narratives that interpret the occasional poem or relay an occasional experience they afford literary and cultural historians a view into the larger throughlines of Merwin's thinking National Library of

Pomeroy, 2017-08-07 A comprehensive treatment of the Classical World in film and television A Companion to Ancient Greece and Rome on Screen closely examines the films and TV shows centered on Greek and Roman cultures and explores the tension between pagan and Christian worlds Written by a team of experts in their fields this work considers productions that discuss social settings as reflections of their times and as indicative of the technical advances in production and the economics of film and television Productions included are a mix of Hollywood and European spanning from the silent film era through modern day television series and topics discussed include Hollywood politics in film soundtrack and sound design high art and low art European art cinemas and the ancient world as comedy Written for students of film and television as well as those interested in studies of ancient Rome and Greece A Companion to Ancient Greece and Rome on Screen provides comprehensive current thinking on how the depiction of Ancient Greece and Rome on screen has developed over the past century It reviews how films of the ancient world mirrored shifting attitudes towards Christianity the impact of changing techniques in film production and fascinating explorations of science fiction and technical fantasy in the ancient world on popular TV shows like Star Trek Babylon 5 Battlestar Galactica and Dr Who Holding Patterns Daniel McGuiness,2001-03-22 Holding Patterns provides a sympathetic criticism of poems one that avoids the appliance of criticism and that self consciously persists in close readings of texts as the directing force of its argument Presently contemporary literary criticism and contemporary poetry in America seem at cross purposes Indeed current literary critics seldom address the poems of their contemporaries While structuralists and other schools of critics seek terms generalizations and whole systems to account for and to understand poems poets themselves repeatedly assert that each poem has its own poetic and that no system applies to their writing This book reads poems by contemporary poets such as Jorie Graham Charles Wright Denis Johnson and Amy Clampitt not to illuminate a theory but to shed light on the poem
