Intimacies Of Sound:

Collaborative Intimacies in Music and Dance Evangelos Chrysagis, Panas Karampampas, 2017-04-01 Across spatial bodily and ethical domains music and dance both emerge from and give rise to intimate collaboration This theoretically rich collection takes an ethnographic approach to understanding the collective dimension of sound and movement in everyday life drawing on genres and practices in contexts as diverse as Japanese shakuhachi playing Peruvian huayno and the Greek goth scene Highlighting the sheer physicality of the ethnographic encounter as well as the forms of sociality that gradually emerge between self and other each contribution demonstrates how dance and music open up pathways and give shape to life trajectories that are neither predetermined nor teleological but generative Intimacies of Sound David

Jaffin, 2005-01-01 Poetry David Jaffin is a poet with his own particular manner of sensibility and with a method of construction issuing from his idiosyncratic preferences for manner of expression This rightly implies that he is serious inventive and independent a poet given to quality and genuineness Most of his poems hang with charming mystery at that line between realization and the not yet arisen The realization itself is at the moment of clarity and the turning into the unexpected sense of it like a near silent and enlightening epiphany with poetic surprise in the realm of intuition Neil A Chassman in Pulse David Jaffin is also the author of THROUGH LOST SILENCES A VOICED AWAKENING and THESE TIME SHIFTING THOUGHTS

Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies Stephen Cottrell, Dafni Tragaki, Stephen Wilford, 2023-12-12 Ethnomusicology and its Intimacies situates intimacy a concept that encompasses a wide range of often informal social practices and processes for building closeness and relationality within the ethnomusicological study of music and sound These scholarly essays reflect on a range of interactions between individuals and communities that deepen connections and associations and which may be played out relatively briefly or nurtured over time Three major sections on Performance Auto biographical Strategies and Film are each prefaced by an interview with a scholar or practitioner with close knowledge of the subject that links the chapters in that section Often drawing directly on fieldwork experience in a variety of contexts authors consider how concepts of intimacy can illuminate the ethnographic study of music addressing questions such as how can we understand ethnomusicological and ethnographic research and performance as processes of musically mediated intimacy How are the longstanding relationships we develop with others particularly intimated by and through musicking How do we understand the musically intimate relationships of others and how do these inflect our own musical intimacies How does music represent inscribe constrain or provoke social or personal intimacies in particular contexts The volume will appeal to all scholars with interests in music and how it is used to construct relationships in different contexts around the world Cosmopolitan Intimacies Adil Johan, 2018-05-31 The golden age of Malay film in the 1950s and 1960s was the product of a musical and cultural cosmopolitanism in the service of a nation making process based on ideas of Malay ethnonationalism initially fluid increasingly homogenised over time The commercial films of the period and in particular their film music from national cultural icons P Ramlee and Zubir Said remain important reference points for Malaysia and Singapore to this day This is the first in depth study of the film music of the period It brings together ethnomusicological and cultural studies perspectives Written in an engaging manner thoroughly illustrated and incorporating musical scores the book will appeal to dedicated film fans musicians composers and film makers interested in Southeast Asia and the Malay world But equally the conceptual framework will be of interest to a broad range of scholars of Southeast Asia as it brings together ideas of cosmopolitanism and cultural intimacy to narrate a history of nation making in the region

Musical Intimacies and Indigenous

Imaginaries Byron Dueck,2013-10-25 Musical Intimacies and Indigenous Imaginaries explores several styles performed in the vital aboriginal musical scene in the western Canadian province of Manitoba focusing on fiddling country music Christian hymnody and step dancing In considering these genres and the contexts in which they are performed author Byron Dueck outlines a compelling theory of musical publics examines the complex overlapping social orientations of contemporary musicians and shows how music and dance play a central role in a distinctive indigenous public culture Dueck considers a wide range of contemporary aboriginal performances and venues urban and rural secular and sacred large and small Such gatherings create opportunities for the expression of distinctive modes of northern Algonquian sociability and for the creative extension of indigenous publicness In examining these interstitial sites at once places of intimate interaction and spaces oriented to imagined audiences this volume considers how Manitoban aboriginal musicians engage with audiences both immediate and unknown how they negotiate the possibilities mass mediation affords and how in doing so they extend and elaborate indigenous sociability Musical Intimacies brings theories of public culture from anthropology and literary criticism into musicological and ethnomusicological discussions while introducing productive new ways of understanding North American indigenous engagement with mass mediation It is a unique work that will appeal to students and scholars of popular music musicology music theory anthropology sociology and cultural studies It will be necessary reading for students of American ethnomusicology First Nations and Native American studies and Canadian music studies

Bloomsbury Handbook of the Anthropology of Sound Holger Schulze,2020-12-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of the

Anthropology of Sound presents the key subjects and approaches of anthropological research into sound cultures What are the common characteristics as well as the inconsistencies of living with and around sound in everyday life This question drives research in this interdisciplinary area of sound studies it propels each main chapter of this handbook into a thoroughly different world of listening experiencing receiving sensing dreaming naming desiring and crafting sound This handbook is composed of six sections sonic artifacts sounds and the body habitat and sound sonic desires sounds and machines and overarching sensologies The individual chapters explore exemplary research objects and put them in the context of methodological approaches historical predecessors research practices and contemporary research gaps This volume offers therefore one of the broadest most detailed and instructive overviews on current research in this area of sensory anthropology

Love Songs in Motion Christina J. Woolner, 2023-11-24 At first listen music is conspicuously absent from Somaliland's public soundscapes The lingering effects of a war that devastated the artistic community and the increasing presence of Salafist groups which see music as incompatible with Islamic principles have muted musical practice Nonetheless as Christina Woolner undertook research in postwar peacebuilding in Somaliland's capital Hargeisa she continually heard snippets of songs Many of these she learned were about love In a time and region riddled with precarity hees jacayl permits singers to sing from the heart a mode of voicing songs that Woolner calls envocalization which allows the possibility of dareen wadaang feeling sharing Despite their intense intimacy that is hees jacayl transcend the connection between the lover and the beloved becoming also perhaps paradoxically an outward facing unifying force that powerfully draws together those suffering from love poets composers singers and listeners in both private and public spaces Taking us from 1950s recordings preserved on dusty cassettes to contemporary often improvisatory performances in a scandalous venue where the author herself eventually performs Woolner offers an understanding of love songs across time and space that opens new realms of possibility for relating to others and for local reconciliation which are otherwise closed off by overwhelming conditions of precarity

Sound, Order and Survival in Prison Kate Herrity, 2025-07-15 Winner of the British Society of Criminology Annual Book Prize 2024 The soundscape of prison life is that of constant clangs bangs and jangles What is the significance of this cacophonous din to those who live and work with it This book tells the story of a year spent with a UK prison community bringing its social world vividly to life for the first time through aural ethnography Kate Herrity's sensory criminology challenges current thinking on how power is experienced by the imprisoned and the lasting effects of incarceration for all who spend time in these environments

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art Sanne Krogh Groth, Holger Schulze, 2020-02-20 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art explores and delineates what Sound Art is in the 21st century Sound artworks today embody the contemporary and transcultural trends towards the post apocalyptic a wide sensorial spectrum of sonic imaginaries as well as the decolonization and deinstitutionalization around the making of sound Within the areas of musicology art history and later sound studies Sound Art has evolved at least since the 1980s into a turbulent field of academic critique and aesthetic analysis Summoning artists researchers curators and critics this volume takes note of and reflects the most recent shifts and drifts in Sound Art rooted in sonic histories and implying future trajectories Sound, Space and Society Kimberley Peters,2017-11-30 In 1964 rebel radio stations took to the seas in converted ships to offer listening choice to a young resistant audience against a backdrop of restrictive broadcasting policies This book draws on this exceptional moment in social history and the decades that followed teasing out the relations between sound society and space that were central to pirate broadcasting activities With a turn towards mediated life in geography studies of radio have been largely absent However radio remains the most pervasive mass communications medium This book breaks new ground discussing in depth the relationship between radio space and society considering how space matters in the production consumption and regulation of audio transmission through the geophysical spaces of sea land and air It is relevant for readers interested in geographies of media sensory spatial experience everyday geopolitics and the turn towards elemental and more than human geographies Sonic Intimacy Malcolm James,2020-11-12 Sonic intimacy is a key concept through which sound human and technological relations can be assessed in relation to racial capitalism What is sonic intimacy how is it changing and what is at stake in its transformation are questions that should concern us all Through an analysis of alternative music cultures of the Black Atlantic reggae sound systems jungle pirate radio and grime YouTube music videos Malcolm James critically shows how sonic intimacy pertains to modernity s social psychic spatial and temporal movements This book explores what is urgently at stake in the development of sonic intimacy for human relations and alternative black and anti capitalist public politics Digital ecologies Jonathon Turnbull,Adam Searle,Henry Anderson-Elliott,Eva Haifa Giraud,2024-12-17 Digital ecologies draws together leading social science and humanities scholars to examine how digital media are reshaping the futures of conservation environmentalism and ecological politics The book offers an overview of the emerging field of interdisciplinary digital ecologies research by mapping key debates and issues in the field with original empirical chapters exploring how livestreams sensors mobile technologies social media platforms and software are reconfiguring life in profound ways The collection traverses contexts ranging from animal exercise apps to surveillance systems on the high seas and is organised around the themes of encounters governance and assemblages Digital ecologies also includes an agenda setting intervention by the book s editors and three closing chapter length provocations by leading scholars in digital geographies the environmental humanities and media theory that set out trajectories for future research Musical Intimacy Zack Stiegler,Todd Campbell,2023-08-10 Discourse on popular music frequently describes artists recordings and performances as intimate Yet that discourse often stops short of elucidating how a mass produced commodity such as popular music is able to elicit feelings of intimacy with and among its audience Through detailed analysis of popular music s composition performance production and promotion Musical Intimacy examines how intimacy is constructed and perceived in popular music via its affective and technological affordances From the recording studio to the concert stage from collective experience to individual listening and perception this book presents a working understanding of musical intimacy Music, Indigeneity, Digital Media Thomas R. Hilder, Henry Stobart, Shyr Ee Tan, 2017 Investigates the significance of a range of digital technologies in contemporary Indigenous musical performance exploring interdisciplinary issues of music production representation and transmission Urban Multiculture Malcolm James, 2015-10-29 This book explores the transformation of youth and urban culture in neoliberal Britain Focusing on the reconfiguration of urban culture in relation to race marginalization and youth politics James examines the shifting formations of memory territory cultural performance and politics A Senior Moment Line Grenier, Fannie Valois-Nadeau, 2020-06-03 Ageing and Memory are two cultural processes that establish their own relationships with time They affect our ways of living in the present and for a future as we move through life This book focuses on the cultural mediations of ageing and memory teasing out their complex and largely unpredictable relationships and interconnections Its overall purpose is to explore different practices commodities daily routines sounds images and technologies that configure memory and ageing and shape our experiences of living in time and with time By covering a variety of phenomena from biopics music by elderly and artefacts among other this edited collection considers the cultural stuff that ageing and memory are made of and interconnected in singular ways for and by particular people in specific socio historical locations Miles, Ornette, Cecil Howard Mandel, 2010-04-26 Miles Davis Ornette Coleman and Cecil Taylor revolutionized music from the end of the twentieth century into the twenty first expanding on jazz traditions with distinctly new concepts of composition improvisation instrumentation and performance Miles Ornette Cecil is the first book to connect these three icons of the avant garde examining why they are lionized by some critics and reviled by others while influencing musicians across such divides as genre geography and racial and ethnic backgrounds Tears for Tears Sandra Ruiz, 2025-06-17 How minoritarian artists grapple with both personal and collective grief Tears for Tears documents moments of tension negotiation transformation and incommensurability between singular loss and mass death through the work of contemporary minoritarian artists These artists interrogate the cultural social and political enmeshment of death by questioning the interior and exterior conditions of loss Charting communal singular ongoing and impending loss due to state sanctioned violence colonial racial capitalism natural disaster and social and personal circumstances Sandra Ruiz underscores the affective entanglements across death that reshape the topography of grief into portals of possibility Drawing from original interviews familial artifacts images and personal archival notes of artists much of which have never been written about before the project centers the minoritarian artist as living with and against death in everyday life and art practice In doing so the manuscript stages an archival and ideological intervention into the life of grief for minoritarian subjects and artists Moving across performance and video art sculpture dance music theatre and poetry Ruiz highlights the relationship between everyday life and staged events as a critical lens to rethink structures of colonial and imperial spatial temporalities of grief Offering invaluable insights into the production of these works and performances Ruiz reveals how these artists move across social corporeal and psychic constructions of sorrow in their art practices often working from parental loss into the domain of communal death and see grieving however painful as an act of empowerment transformation growth and communal building
