

INTIMACY VS ISOLATION

Age Range: 18 to 40 years.

Theory: Erikson's Psychosocial Theory.

DEFINITION

As people mature, they start to contemplate romantic relationships and friendships. Individuals need to develop the capacity for positive intimacy. Achieving success during this stage leads to strong, meaningful connections. However, faltering at this time can cause lifelong loneliness.

EXAMPLE

Cultivating a lasting romantic relationship necessitates forming an intimate bond with your partner while also maintaining autonomy. Those who can effectively balance these two aspects of the relationship tend to create strong, mutually beneficial connections.

Beyond Feminist Aesthetics Rita Felski, 1989 Beyond Feminist Aesthetics has a dual focus First Rita Felski gives a critical account of current American and European feminist literary theory and second she offers an analysis of contemporary fiction by women drawing in particular on the genres of the autobiographical confession and the novel of self discovery in order to show that this literature raises questions for feminism that cannot be answered in terms of a purely gender based analysis Felski argues that the idea of a feminist aesthetic is a nonissue that feminists have needlessly pursued she suggests in contrast that it is impossible to speak of masculine and feminine subversive and reactionary literary forms in isolation from the social conditions of their production and reception The political value of such works of literature from the standpoint of feminism can be determined only by an investigation of their social functions and effects in relation to the interests of women in a particular historical context This leads her to argue for an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of literature which can integrate literary and social theory and to develop such an approach by drawing upon the model of a feminist counter public sphere Rita Felski has produced a closely reasoned stimulating book that creates a new framework for discussing the relationship between literature and feminist politics It will interest students and teachers of women's studies comparative literature cultural studies and fiction The Consolations of Theology Brian S.
