Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life s losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer s and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts

Married to the Enemy Dawn K Kozarian, Mark James, 2011-06-08 Much of Married to the

Enemy is about the authors individual and couple journey By sharing their personal enlightenment on how our culture and family impacts our attitude with the opposite sex we learn how to go from devaluing each other to a more respectful and honoring relationship Throughout the book the authors ask questions for you to reflect on to see how you may have developed a gender filter that keeps you from creating the intimacy that you would like to have with your partner Good relationships are reciprocal so the authors also provide an inventory that looks at how healthy the reciprocity is in your relationship Ultimately by accepting yourself and your partner as you really are not as the gender culture says you should be you are guided towards loving authentically In loving genuinely you can now experience the rewards of a love based relationship not a power based one Meeting someone is a start continuing a relationship with that person is progress working together to create a positive and loving atmosphere is success We come into this world with as much as half of our personality and inclinations present at birth When we grow up with strong and excessive gender lines these natural inclinations and personality tendencies tend to get blurred with what our interests should be and the type of personality we should have whether it is true to our nature or not For example Im tough and can handle anything image for a boy and Im sexy sweet and submissive image for a girl These gender lines often leave us feeling like we are married to an opponent instead of a friend Many couples may inadvertently begin playing a game of chess looking to get the upper hand over the other Imagine loving authentically positively and with acceptance Imagine seeing the individual in front of you without the limitation of contrived gender expectations How might you connect What might you discover about your human commonality
