Into Indigo Claire Polakoff,1980      African Textiles and Dyeing Techniques ,1982      Ebony ,1980-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      African Textiles John Gillow,2003-09 Traces a boy s journey across India as he searches for a sacred buffalo bell stolen from his tribe      African Textiles Today Chris Spring,2012-10-09 African Textiles Today illustrates how African history is read told and recorded in cloth All artifacts or works of art hold within them stories that range far beyond the time of their creation or the lifetime of their creator and African textiles are patterned with these hidden histories In Africa cloth may be used to memorialize or commemorate something an event a person a political cause which in other parts of the world might be written down in detail or recorded by a plaque or monument History in Africa can be read told and recorded in cloth Making and trading numerous types of cloth have been vital elements in African life and culture for at least two millennia linking different parts of the continent with each other and the rest of the world Africa s long engagement with the peoples of the Mediterranean and the islands of the Atlantic and Indian Oceans provides a story of change and continuity African Textiles Today shows how ideas techniques materials and markets have adapted and flourished and how the dynamic traditions in African textiles have provided inspiration for the continent s foremost contemporary artists and photographers With a concluding chapter discussing the impact of African designs across the world the book offers a fascinating insight into the living history of Africa      African Textiles J. Picton,2021-11-18 An illustrated survey of African textiles their design manufacture and use as part of African life art and culture      The Essential Art of African Textiles Alisa LaGamma,Christine Giuntini,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2008      World of a Slave Kym S. Rice,Martha B. Katz-Hyman,2010-12-13 This two volume encyclopedia is the first to focus on the material life of slaves Although many encyclopedias discuss slavery enslaved blacks and African American life and culture none focus on the material world of slaves such as what they saw touched heard ate drank and smoked wore worked with and in used cultivated crafted played and played with and slept on The two volume World of a Slave Encyclopedia of the Material Life of Slaves in the United States is a landmark work in this important new field of study Recognizing that a full understanding of the complexity of American slavery and its legacy requires an understanding of the material culture of slavery the encyclopedia includes entries on almost every aspect of that material culture beginning in the 17th century and extending through the Civil War Readers will find information on animals documents economy education and literacy food and drink home music personal items places religion rites of passage slavery structures and work There are also introductory essays on literacy and oral culture and on music and dance      Africana Anthony Appiah,Henry Louis Gates (Jr.),2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in Africa itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth Fashioning

Africa Jean Allman, 2004-09-09 Everywhere in the world there is a close connection between the clothes we wear and our political expression To date few scholars have explored what clothing means in 20th century Africa and the diaspora In Fashioning Africa an international group of anthropologists historians and art historians bring rich and diverse perspectives to this fascinating topic From clothing as an expression of freedom in early colonial Zanzibar to Somali women's headcovering in inner city Minneapolis these essays explore the power of dress in African and pan African settings Nationalist and diasporic identities as well as their histories and politics are examined at the level of what is put on the body every day Readers interested in fashion history material and expressive cultures understandings of nation state styles and expressions of a distinctive African modernity will be engaged by this interdisciplinary and broadly appealing volume Contributors are Heather Marie Akou Jean Allman A Boatema Boateng Judith Byfield Laura Fair Karen Tranberg Hansen Margaret Jean Hay Andrew M Ivaska Phyllis M Martin Marissa Moorman Elisha P Renne and Victoria L Rovine Colours, Commodities and the Birth of Globalization Carlos Marichal, David Pretel, 2024-08-22 This volume explores the global history of natural dyes from the Americas and asks how their production and trade have shaped globalisation since early modern times From their extraction and processing to their overseas trade it shows how this commodity contributed to the rise of the textile industry and consumption in Europe the United States and Latin America In doing so it sheds new light on the emergence of a global economy Spanning several centuries Colours Commodities and the Birth of Globalization takes the reader from 1500 through the industrial revolutions of Europe and the United States and culminates in the synthetic age of the late 19th and early 20th centuries Ranging from the indigo trade in the Atlantic to the secrets of the Indian production of cochineal the chapters in this collection transcend nationally bounded historical narratives and explore transoceanic dynamics imperial ambitions and the cross cultural exchange of knowledge and techniques to better understand the birth of globalization

Diasporic Africa Michael A. Gomez, 2006 Diasporic Africa presents the most recent research on the history and experiences of people of African descent outside of the African continent By incorporating Europe and North Africa as well as North America Latin America and the Caribbean this reader shifts the discourse on the African diaspora away from its focus solely on the Americas underscoring the fact that much of the movement of people of African descent took place in Old World contexts This broader view allows for a more comprehensive approach to the study of the African diaspora The volume provides an overview of African diaspora studies and features as a major concern a rigorous interrogation of identity Other primary themes include contributions to western civilization from religion music and sports to agricultural production and medicine as well as the way in which our understanding of the African diaspora fits into larger studies of transnational phenomena
