A Poetic Journey: From Fear - Through Love - to Faith and Felicity, Journey with No Maps Sandra Djwa, 2012-10-01

Journey with No Maps is the first biography of P. K. Page, a brilliant twentieth-century poet and a fine artist. The product of over a decade's research and writing, the book follows Page as she becomes one of Canada's best-loved and most influential writers. A borderline being as she called herself, she recognized the new choices offered to women by modern life but followed only those related to her quest for self-discovery. Tracing Page's life through two wars, world travels, the rise of modernist and Canadian cultures, and later Sufi study, biographer Sandra Djwa details the people and events that inspired her work. Page's independent spirit propelled her from Canada to England, from work as a radio actress to a scriptwriter for the National Film Board, from an affair with poet F. R. Scott to an enduring marriage with diplomat Arthur Irwin. Page wrote her story in poems, fiction, diaries, librettos, and her visual art. Journey with No Maps reads like a novel, drawing on the poet's voice from interviews, diaries, letters and writings as well as the voices of her contemporaries With the vividness of a work of fiction and the thoroughness of scholarly dedication Djwa illustrates the complexities of Page s private experience while also documenting her public emergence as an internationally known poet It is both the captivating story of a remarkable woman and a major contribution to the study of Canada s literary and artistic history For Love and Unrest: A Journey Through American Literature
