Apartheid's Festival Leslie Witz, 2003-10-06 Apartheid s Festival highlights the conflicts and debates that surrounded the 1952 celebration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of Jan Van Riebeeck and the founding of Cape Town South Africa Taking place at the height of the apartheid era the festival was viewed by many as an opportunity for the government to promote its nationalist separatist agenda in grand fashion Leslie Witz s fine grained examination of newspapers brochures pamphlets and advertising materials reveals the expectations of the festival planners as well as how the festival was engineered historical figures were reconstructed and the ANC and other anti apartheid organizations mounted opposition to it While laying open the darker motives of the apartheid regime Witz shows that the production of local history is part of a global process forged by the struggle between colonialism and resistance Readers interested in South Africa representations of nationalism and the making of public history will find Apartheid s Festival to be an important study of a society in transition Robben Island and Prisoner Resistance to Apartheid Fran Lisa Buntman, 2003-10-27 Table of contents My

Lifelong Journey from Livestock Caretaker to a Climate Change Advocate Mengistu Woube, 2024-10-01 The main purpose of writing this book is to share my lifelong experiences gained throughout the years covering major topics including the environment and climate change that I felt are important to share with my readers The topics depict my accumulated knowledge and skills and the challenges I faced indicating how each of us go through ups and downs in life Much of the discussion focuses on my exposure to tough and successful times in Ethiopia Sweden and in 30 other countries around the globe The second purpose of preparing this book is to inform my readers about the Ethio Swedish historical links and current relationships and to answer a primary question that comes to mind and that is what can we learn from Sweden how Sweden handle environment and adopt climate change as well as to thank the Swedish people and government for their kind provision of scholarships and funds for my higher education research community development and overall well being throughout the years I have lived there I am hoping that my life s autobiography covered in this book will inspire communities and especially young people to be able to walk on the right path and achieve their dreams in life Besides I hope it will enlighten my readers about the causes and effects of the on going human activities on the natural biophysical and human environments in Ethiopia Sweden and other countries around the globe Towards a Transcultural Future

Global Perspectives Binaya Subedi,2010-03-01 The primary purpose of this book is to invite educators to re think what it means to critically conceptualize knowledge about the world In other words imagining curriculum in a critical way means decolonizing mainstream knowledge about global societies Such an approach re evaluates how we have come to know the world and asks us to consider the socio political context in which we have come to understand what constitutes an ethical global imagination A critical reading of the world calls for the need to examine alternative ways of knowing and teaching about the world a pedagogy that recognizes how diverse subjects have come to view the world A critical question this book raises is What are the radical ways of re conceptualizing curriculum knowledge about global societies so that we can become accountable to the different ways people have come to experience the world Another question the book raises is how do we engage with complexities surrounding social differences such as gender race ethnicity religion etc in the global contexts Analyzing global issues and events through the prism of social difference opens up spaces to advocate a transformative framework for a global education curriculum Transformative in the sense that such a curriculum asks students to challenge stereotypes and engages students in advocating changes within local global contexts A critical global perspective advocates the value of going beyond the nation state centered approach to teaching about topics such as history politics culture etc It calls for the need to develop curriculum that accounts for transnational formations an intervention that asks us to go beyond issues that are confined within national borders Such a practice recognizes the complicated ways the local is connected to the global and vice versa and cautions against creating a hierarchy between national and global issues It also suggests the need to critically examine the pitfalls of forming dichotomies between the local or the national and the global or the center and the periphery Museum Making Suzanne Macleod,Laura Hourston Hanks,Jonathan Hale,2012-03-15 Over recent decades many museums galleries and historic sites around the world have enjoyed an unprecedented level of large scale investment in their capital infrastructure in building refurbishments and new gallery displays This period has also seen the creation of countless new purpose built museums and galleries suggesting a fundamental re evaluation of the processes of designing and shaping of museums Museum Making Narratives Architectures Exhibitions examines this re making by exploring the inherently spatial character of narrative in the museum and its potential to connect on the deepest levels with human perception and imagination Through this uniting theme the chapters explore the power of narratives as structured experiences unfolding in space and time as well as the use of theatre film and other technologies of storytelling by contemporary museum makers to generate meaningful and it is argued here highly effective and affective museum spaces Contributions by an internationally diverse group of museum and heritage professionals exhibition designers architects and artists with academics from a range of disciplines including museum studies theatre studies architecture design and history cut across traditional boundaries including the historical and the contemporary and together explore the various roles and functions of narrative as a mechanism for the creation of engaging and meaningful interpretive environments Sacred

Journeys Stanley Scott Jr ,2024-10-14 As I stood on the deck of my San Francisco home gazing out at the vast expanse of the Pacific Ocean I felt a stirring in my soul The rhythmic crashing of waves against the shore seemed to whisper ancient secrets calling me to lands unknown It was in this moment that I realized my journey a journey of spiritual discovery and personal growth was about to begin For years I had been deeply involved in my work with the ILWU Local 10 fighting for workers rights and striving to make a difference in my community But there was another battle I had been fighting one that had nearly cost me everything the battle against addiction In 2011 I found my way into the rooms of Alcoholics Anonymous marking the beginning of a transformative journey in recovery Now three years into my sobriety I felt a calling to expand my horizons to seek out new experiences that would deepen my spiritual understanding and strengthen my recovery The idea of traveling to distant lands not as an escape but as a pilgrimage of sorts began to take root in my mind It was then that I remembered the words of the great Maya Angelou Perhaps travel cannot prevent bigotry but by demonstrating that all peoples cry laugh eat worry and die it can introduce the idea that if we try and understand each other we may even become friends These words resonated deeply within me igniting a spark of curiosity and wonder that would lead me on an incredible journey across four continents My path would take me to four distinct destinations each with its own unique energy and spiritual significance 1 Cancun and Chich n Itz Mexico where ancient Mayan wisdom echoes through time 2 Punta Cana Dominican Republic where Caribbean rhythms pulse with resilience 3 Durban South Africa where unity flourishes in diversity 4 Honolulu Hawaii where the Aloha spirit embodies harmony with nature Little did I know that these four places seemingly unconnected would weave together a fabric of spiritual awakening and personal transformation Each destination would offer its own lessons its own challenges and its own moments of profound insight As I embarked on this journey I carried with me the strength and values instilled in me by my parents my experiences in the labor movement and the spiritual principles I had learned in recovery I was about to discover how these foundations would be tested reinforced and expanded through my encounters with ancient civilizations diverse cultures and the awe inspiring power of nature This book is not just a travelogue but a testament to the transformative power of travel when undertaken with an open heart and a seeking spirit It s an exploration of how God s handiwork is manifested in different corners of the world and how the resilience of people across cultures can inspire us to push forward in our own lives and recovery journeys Throughout these travels I would find myself drawn to moments of prayer and meditation often near bodies of water From the beaches of Cancun to the Indian Ocean in Durban from the Caribbean shores of Punta Cana to the Pacific waters of Hawaii these moments of spiritual connection would become cornerstones of my journey deepening my conscious contact with my Higher Power and reinforcing my commitment to recovery As we set off on this journey together I invite you to open your mind to the possibilities that lie ahead For in the story of my travels you may find echoes of your own spiritual journey your own quest for meaning and your own path to personal growth and recovery Let us begin our sacred journey stepping into the unknown with faith curiosity and a willingness to be transformed by the wonders that await us Whether you re in recovery yourself curious about different cultures or simply seeking inspiration I hope that my experiences will offer you insight hope and the courage to embark on your own journey of discovery Remember as we say in the rooms of recovery More will be revealed So let s turn the page and see where this adventure takes us one day at a time
