Leonard Wolf,1992-01-01      Modernist Short Fiction by Women Claire Drewery,2016-04-15 Taking on the neglected issue of the short story's relationship to literary Modernism Claire Drewery examines works by Katherine Mansfield Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf Drewery argues that the short story as a genre is preoccupied with transgressing boundaries and thus offers an ideal platform from which to examine the Modernist fascination with the liminal Embodying both liberation and restriction liminal spaces on the one hand enable challenges to traditional cultural and personal identities while on the other hand they entail the inevitable negative consequences of occupying the position of the outsider marginality psychosis and death Mansfield Richardson Sinclair and Woolf all exploit this paradox in their short fiction which typically explores literal and psychological borderline states that are resistant to rational analysis Thus their short stories offered these authors an opportunity to represent the borders of unconsciousness and to articulate meaning while also conveying a sense of that which is unsayable Through their concern with liminality Drewery shows these writers contribute significantly to the Modernist aesthetic that interrogates identity the construction of the self and the relationship between the individual and society      Change: Principles of Problem Formation and Problem Resolution Paul Watzlawick,John H. Weakland,Richard Fisch,2011-04-25 Why some problems persist while others are resolved This classic book available in paperback for the very first time explores why some people can successfully change their lives and others cannot Here famed psychologist Paul Watzlawick presents what is still often perceived as a radical idea that the solutions to our problems are inherently embedded in the problems themselves Tackling the age old questions surrounding persistence and change the book asks why problems arise and are perpetuated in some instances but easily resolved in others Incorporating ideas about human communication marital and family therapy the therapeutic effects of paradoxes and of action oriented techniques of problem resolution Change draws much from the field of psychotherapy      For Today Patrick Allen,2018-07-23 For Today A Prayer When Life Gets Messy will introduce you to a profound daily prayer and various strategies and outlooks for getting through tough days and on to higher ground This is not a book to make someone an instant saint it is for times when the ox is in the ditch or the seed corn is gone a prayer when you are just trying to make it through the day and get back home before dark With God's help you will learn to be faithful in these hard times and look forward to better days ahead This unique book combining rich personal stories and helpful spiritual reflections can be used for personal devotionals or in small group discipleship spiritual formation activities to unpack this powerful prayer line by line In doing so you will be challenged to deal with your difficulties gracefully and faithfully just as God deals with all of us in tough and difficult times bringing healing and hope to the mess we are in Ultimately the prayer brings us full circle to be a cup of strength to other suffering souls who are in the midst of tough times too      33 Motivational Messages to Awaken Your Best Version JESSICA DIOGO,2023-12-30 Embark on a journey of self transformation with our exclusive ebook Awakening the Best Version 33 Motivational Messages

Mountain Sisters Helen M. Lewis,Monica Apple,2021-12-14 Monica Appleby and Helen Lewis reveal the largely untold story of women who stood up to the Church and joined Appalachians in their struggle for social justice Their poignant story of how faith compassion and persistence overcame obstacles to progress in Appalachia is a fascinating example of how a collaborative and creative learning community fosters strong voices Mountain Sisters is a prophetic first person account of the history of American Catholicism the war on poverty and the influence of the turbulent 1960s on the cultural and religious communities of Appalachia Founded in 1941 The Glenmary Sisters embraced a calling to serve rural Appalachian communities where few Catholics resided The sisters many of them seeking alternatives to the choices available to most women during this time zealously pursued their duties but soon became frustrated with the rules and restrictions of the Church Outmoded doctrine even styles of dress made it difficult for them to interact with the very people they hoped to help In 1967 after many unsuccessful attempts to persuade the Church to ease its requirements some seventy Sisters left the security of convent life Over forty of these women formed a secular service group FOCIS Federation of Communities in Service Mountain Sisters is their story Disruptive Inclusion Jen Smith,2024-03-31 What is Christian adult learning What questions are raised when Christian faith and learning meet Many existing approaches primarily address issues such as curriculum content or teacher character Building on the work of John Hull Disruptive Inclusion approaches the intersection of theology and pedagogy suggesting that the christianness of Christian adult learning is best expressed by the posture adopted by learners not only via what is taught and by whom Specifically Jen Smith claims that a key to Christian adult learning posture is how learners include the unexpected and disruptive in their learning Drawing on key resources such as the biblical narrative Christian tradition liturgy community and her own experiences Jen takes us on a deeply personal and practical journey into disruptive inclusion and invites us to re imagine what effective Christian adult learning might look like in the classroom pulpit and online learning settings      Thirst James B.
