

A futuristic spaceship with a sleek, angular design is shown in flight, angled towards the right. It has a bright blue and white light trail behind it. The ship is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the frame. Below it, a large, dark, and textured planet or moon is visible, partially obscured by a bright, glowing nebula or comet tail that stretches across the lower left. The background is a deep blue space filled with numerous stars and distant galaxies.

Journey Paperback By Randall Marta:

Journey Marta Randall, 2018-12-05 Fleeing the disapproval of Earth's patrician families Jason and Mish Kennerin have come to Aerie distant insular inhabited by the enigmatic kasirene Here they carve out a new life for themselves and their growing family until the death of a nearby planetary system forces them to open their world and their lives to the chaos of change and the genesis of an empire they both crave and resist

Frontiers Past and Future Carl Abbott, 2006 Abbott offers a fruitful new way to read science fiction one that also greatly enriches our understanding of western history and its impact on our collective imagination Detailing the overlap of science fiction and western fiction especially relating to their mutual interest in and concerns about frontier expansionism he reveals an unsuspected common ground that informs the writings of both camps Reviewing the work of many Hugo and Nebula Award winners as well as drawing upon popular film and television series like the Buck Rogers serials Abbott's study journeys across the far reaches of science fiction's universe

Imagined Frontiers Carl Abbott, 2015-09-10 We live near the edge whether in a settlement at the core of the Rockies a gated community tucked into the wilds of the Santa Monica Mountains a silicon culture emerging in the suburbs or in the future homesteading on a terraformed Mars In Imagined Frontiers urban historian and popular culture scholar Carl Abbott looks at the work of American artists who have used novels film television maps and occasionally even performance art to explore these frontiers the metropolitan frontier of suburban development the classic continental frontier of American settlement and the yet unrealized frontiers beyond Earth Focusing on writers and artists working during the past half century an era of global economic and social reach Abbott describes the dialogue between historians and social scientists seeking to understand these frontier places and the artists reimagining them in written and visual fictions This book offers perspectives on such well known authors as T C Boyle and John Updike and on such familiar movies and television shows as Falling Down and The Sopranos By putting The Rockford Files and the cult favorite Firefly in conversation with popular fiction writers Robert Heinlein and Stephen King and literary novelists Peter Matthiessen and Leslie Marmon Silko Abbott interweaves the disparate subjects of western history urban planning and science fiction in a single volume Abbott combines all new essays with others previously published but substantially revised to integrate western and urban history literary analysis and American studies scholarship in a uniquely compelling analysis of the frontier in popular culture
