Frey,2020-11-17 Much good academic work has been done on the mainline churches in many African countries But less so on the smaller missions and the churches that they founded This book describes the history of one of the smaller churches the Zambia Baptist Association with its roots in Malawi 1905 and its missionary connections to England South Africa Sweden Australia and finally to the Liebenzell Mission in Germany It is thus one of the many contributions needed for the writing of a history of the Evangelical churches of Africa      The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography Thula Simpson,Immanuel R. Harisch,2025-05-09 The Routledge Companion to Postcolonial African Historiography explores history s fortunes in Modern Africa south of the Sahara from the discipline s Golden Age as a handmaiden in struggles against colonialism to difficult decades when its survival has been threatened by capricious political and economic conditions and the uncertain present where the continent s historians struggle to justify their value to frequently sceptical publics In exploring the discipline s practical role in past struggles for African emancipation the volume speaks directly to these challenging but changing circumstances The chapters feature contributions from leading experts on historiographical traditions of different regions of the continent They collectively demonstrate how the process of instrumentalizing the past to advance lay struggles has influenced the choices historians have made regarding sources methodology interpretation audiences and platforms This practical application has strongly shaped the diverse forms that African historiography has assumed as reflected in this book The themes discussed offer a platform for inserting Africa into comparative studies of global historiographical traditions whilst also contributing to contemporary debates on decolonization In offering accessible insights from leading historians this is an essential handbook for students and scholars of African history and historiography as well as all those interested in postcolonial studies      The Journal of Education ,1895      The World Almanac and Book of Facts ,1899      Education Outlook ,1902      Educational Times ,1890

Lastly the book considers what role emigrant and diasporic communities within and outside Europe play in the development of famine heritage and educational practices and whether famine heritage is accessible to them. Famines and the Making of Heritage provides a crucial resource for museum and heritage scholars, students and professionals working on or with difficult or dark heritages as well as those interested in the study of famines and legacies of troubled pasts.

Shona literature now comprises 85% of literature published for schools in Zimbabwe an indication of its significance for the understanding of the philosophical and historical base of the understanding of a language, people and nation. Chiwome's book argues that the productivity of Shona fiction is inseparable from the dialects of history: first colonialism then development and exposes colonialist notions about Shona cultural values and the implications for reading and writing the literature. He analyses Shona writers' predilections for certain genres of fiction, asking why colonialism did not produce historical committed literature and why moralistic and fantastical modes prevail. In the latter part of the book he adopts Manichean and Fanonian psychoanalytic approaches to African fictional characters suffering inferiority and collective paranoia and discusses how this relates to the aesthetic qualities of the literatures of decolonisation.
