Authors of Their Own Lives Reinhard Bendix,1990 Contains autobiographies by Dennis Wrong David Riesman James S Coleman Joseph Gusfield Andrew M Greeley Bennett M Berger Dean MacCa The Elusiveness of Tolerance Peter R. Erspamer,2020-05-01 Peter Erspamer explores the Jewish question in German literature from Lessing s Nathan der Weise in 1779 to Sessa s Unser Verkehr in 1815 He analyzes the transition from an enlightened emancipatory literature advocating tolerance in the late eighteenth century to an anti Semitic literature with nationalistic overtones in the early nineteenth century Erspamer examines Nathan in light of Lessing s attempts to distance himself from the excesses of his own Christian in group through pariah identification using an idealized member of an out group religion as a vehicle to attack the dominant religion He also focuses on other leading advocates of tolerance and explores changes in Jewish identity particularly the division of German Jewry into orthodox Jews adherents of the Haskalah and converted Jews The Thinking Space Dr W Scott Haine,Professor Jeffrey H Jackson,Professor Leona Rittner,2013-07-28 The cafe is not only a place to enjoy a cup of coffee it is also a space distinct from its urban environment in which to reflect and take part in intellectual debate Since the eighteenth century in Europe intellectuals and artists have gathered in cafes to exchange ideas inspirations and information that has driven the cultural agenda for Europe and the world Without the caf would there have been a Karl Marx or a Jean Paul Sartre The caf as an institutional site has been the subject of renewed interest amongst scholars in the past decade and its role in the development of art ideas and culture has been explored in some detail However few have investigated the ways in which caf s create a cultural and intellectual space which brings together multiple influences and intellectual practices and shapes the urban settings of which they are a part This volume presents an international group of scholars who consider caf s as sites of intellectual discourse from across Europe during the long modern period Drawing on literary theory history cultural studies and urban studies the contributors explore the ways in which cafes have functioned and evolved at crucial moments in the histories of important cities and countries notably Paris Vienna and Italy Choosing these sites allows readers to understand both the local particularities of each caf while also seeing the larger cultural connections between these places By revealing how the caf operated as a unique cultural context within the urban setting this volume demonstrates how space and ideas are connected As our global society becomes more focused on creativity and mobility the intellectual caf s of past generations can also serve as inspiration for contemporary and future knowledge workers who will expand and develop this tradition of using and thinking in space The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease,2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God s promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of

the condemnation of the law Gen 3 15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection
