The Complete Poems Leslie Norris, 2008 This landmark publication of over 300 poems is a testament to a publishing life of more than sixty years The late Leslie Norris who died in 2007 at the age of 86 was best known as a nature poet and elegist of passion and rare expression Lyrical and individual to his closely observed poems each word weighed and in its correct place Norris introduces a strong metaphysical element which makes the poems as Edward Lucie Smith noted much larger than the sum of their parts Arranged chronologically and including poems never before published the reader follows the development of Norris s subjects and style from an early enthrallment with Dylan Thomas through the mediation of Edward Thomas and Robert Frost to the percolation of American styles which resulted from Norris spending the last twenty years of his life in Utah He paints a vivid poetic world full of striking descriptive detail and extraordinarily realised people Whether it is his native south Wales the southern England of his early working life or the majesty of the American west Norris is fully engaged with his surroundings and their import To this core The Complete Poems adds Norris s renderings of Welsh poet Dafydd ap Gwilym and poems for children to make available the full range of this marvellous writer and his enduring work

BOOK JACKET Leslie Norris James A. Davies, 1991 This is a pioneering study of the life and work of the Welsh born poet and short story writer Leslie Norris His life from his Merthyr upbringing to lecturing in England to a distinguished university career in the USA is examined in connection with his development as a writer In his early days much influenced by Dylan Thomas Wordsworth and others he later found his own literary voice in beautifully crafted stories and poems and in more recent years spare compressed poem sequences which speak of the modern world with piercing and at times pessimistic force This account corrects the mistaken perception of Norris as a misplaced Georgian and shows him to be a moving complex disconcerting and important modern writer

Birds in the Hand Dylan Nelson, Kent Nelson, 2004 From the myths of ancient Greece to the fables of Aesop from Chaucer to contemporary poetry and fiction birds are central to literature Birds in the Hand is a collection of contemporary fiction and poetry that explores the complex often startling ways in which birds shed light on readers lives

All That Is Wales M. Wynn Thomas, 2017-05-05 Wales may be small but culturally it is richly varied The aim in this collection of essays on a number of English language authors from Wales is to offer a sample of the country's internal diversity To that end the author's examined range from the exotic Lynette Roberts Argentinean by birth but of Welsh descent and the English born Peggy Ann Whistler who opted for new Welsh identity as Margiad Evans to Nigel Heseltine whose bizarre stories of the antics of the decaying squierarchy of the Welsh border country remain largely unknown and the Utah based poet Leslie Norris who brings out the bicultural character of Wales in his Welsh English translations The result is a portrait of Wales as a micro cosmopolitan country and the volume is prefaced with an autobiographical essay by one of the leading specialists in the field authoritatively tracing the steady growth over recent decades of serious informed and sustained study of what is a major achievement of Welsh culture anthologies hold that the Romantic Era in Great Britain ended promptly in 1832 and that the early Twentieth Century was the time of Modernism and the rejection of the Romantic in British letters However in Wales just the opposite was true This study traces the work of poets and novelists in Wales in the early to mid Twentieth Century who all found their poetic master to be William Wordsworth In the early part of the century W H Davies John Cowper Powys and Huw Menai a tramp a mystic novelist and a coal miner produce novels and poetry with Wordsworth as their acknowledged master By mid century Idris Davies a coal miner turned teacher R S Thomas an Anglican priest and Leslie Norris another teacher are writing in the mountainous shadow of William Wordsworth While the literary lights of London are leading the Modernist revolution in Wales the inspiration is still the English poet Wordsworth This study will illuminate this flare up of Romanticism and show the way in which Romanticism re emerges from unexpected quarters      Who's Yer Daddy? Jim Elledge, David Groff, 2012-12-05 Who's Yer Daddy offers readers of gay male literature a keen and engaging journey In this anthology thirty nine gay authors discuss individuals who have influenced them their inspirational daddies The essayists include fiction writers poets and performance artists both honored masters of contemporary literature and those just beginning to blaze their own trails They find their artistic ancestry among not only literary icons Walt Whitman Oscar Wilde Andr Gide Frank O Hara James Baldwin Edmund White but also a roster of figures whose creative territories are startlingly wide and vital from Botticelli to Bette Midler to Captain Kirk Some writers chronicle an entire tribal council of mentors others describe a transformative encounter with a particular individual including teachers and friends whose guidance or example cracked open their artistic selves Perhaps most moving are the handful of writers who answered the question literally writing intimately of their own fathers and their literary inheritance This rich volume presents intriguing insights into the
