Monastery Davinia Lacht, 2020-05-12 In Lessons from the Monastery you will find 33 essential teachings for re-inhabiting your centre of stillness and living your day to day life in peace and harmony Through practical examples and experiences from the author you will discover that the spiritual realm encompasses all aspects of your life and that you are ready to open yourself up to the path of love here and now Make your relationships healthy ones enjoy everyday life and let yourself be guided by the voices of silence This book is an invitation to discover the vital role you play in the world and understand that the only thing that can make you feel fulfilled is to take it on Life is simple and it is your birthright to be happy by honouring your relationship with your neighbour and unconditionally inhabiting the present moment Discover the light within you Are you ready These teachings came into being during the time Davinia Lacht spent at the monastic community of Taiz in France For over a year she reconciled silences service and community life ridding herself of any inner voices that did not speak of love Davinia Lacht was born in Valencia Spain and is a trained translator and interpreter of Spanish English and German When she was twenty three she experienced a sudden spiritual awakening triggered by the death of her brother Over the years she has deepened in her observation and understanding of the changes that took place inside her She now dedicates her life to translating those voices that spoke to her in silence Her spiritual message does not pertain to any one religion or tradition calling for the union of everyone beyond names In her writings and talks she seeks to share an evermore emphatic and simple message We are destined to live from the love that inevitably emerges when the voices of the world have been quieted It is now time to return to a balance between being and doing to co-create a new earth where harmony reigns It is only in this way that we will experience serene joy in our hearts Lessons from the Monastery on Prayer: Selections from "Life Lessons from the Monastery" Jerome Kodell, 2011-10 When it comes to prayer we all need encouragement In this booklet Abbot Jerome Kodell OSB provides us with plenty of reassurance Fr Kodell points out that it isn't our responsibility to pray perfectly All we have to do is set aside time to pray and do the best we can the Holy Spirit will take care of the rest Fr Kodell compares prayer to taking a vacation with God We make ourselves free to give all our attention to God and relax in his presence And he urges us to pray every day even if we have only two minutes to devote to it God needs only this tiny opening to begin making a saint The four reflections in this booklet are short but powerful and perfect for every Christian at any stage of his or her prayer journey The Scent of Holiness Constantina R. Palmer,2012 Every monastery exudes the scent of holiness but women s monasteries have their own special flavor Join Constantina Palmer as she makes frequent pilgrimages to a women s monastery in Greece and absorbs the nuns particular approach to their spiritual life If you re a woman who s read of Mount Athos and longed to partake of its grace filled atmosphere this book is for you Men who wish to understand how women s spirituality differs from their own will find it a fascinating read as well Life Lessons from the Monastery Jerome Kodell Osb,2010 In thirty short reflections Abbot Jerome Kodell of Subiaco Abbey provides a lifetime of wisdom on living the Christian life Drawing on Scripture the Rule of St Benedict and other spiritual writings Kodell helps us to realize that our common human desires and struggles make life in the monastery not so very different from life in the world His encouragement and reassurance gives us hope that we can pray experience God s loving presence and stay faithful to the commitments we ve made Among the many themes he addresses are holiness freedom service money hospitality and silence Appropriate for anyone still searching for God as well as for those trying to live as Christians in the world today Insightful and beautifully written We respond where we are called Sometimes this is to a very busy and hands on service of others and sometimes it is to a very secret search for God in silence But always a true Christian vocation reaches out to others in love From Life Lessons from the Monastery Inside The School Of Charity Trisha Day,2010-01-01 In 2003 Trisha Day spent three months living inside the enclosure of Our Lady of the Mississippi Abbey a community of twenty Cistercian nuns Although she had long been monastic associate she was startled by the unexpected challenges and insights that emerged as the weeks went by and began a process of profound reflection on her experience Now drawing on her journals and reflections and on her own experience as a professional woman wife daughter and mother she delves into the questions of how the centuries old wisdom of monastic life can challenge inspire and guide those living outside the monastery Organized around topics such as prayer community and the vows each of Day s reflections begins with memories of her monastic experience and then presents a perceptive and often humorous critique of the contrasting values of our present culture For each topic she chronicles with honesty and humility her subsequent struggles to apply back home the alternative approaches learned from the sisters she lived with and offers a wealth of practical suggestions Filled with stories from her own life and fascinating details of daily life in the monastery her book is sure to strike a spark with all those seeking to live in a fully human and Christ centered way In Their Own Words Belmo,2006 Scott Belmer presents the true stories of nine Buddhist monks who lived in Tibet under Communist rule and chronicles their amazing and often miraculous journey across the vast mountain range of the Himalayas to freedom and exile in India 8 page color photo insert Perfect Hostage Justin Wintle,2013-07-01 Burma is a country where as one senior UN official puts it just to turn your head can mean imprisonment or death Aung San Suu Kyi is one of the world s foremost inspirational revolutionary leaders Considered to be Burma s best hope for freedom she has waged a war of steadfast nonviolent opposition to the country's vicious militant regime. Because of her resistance to the brutality of the Burmese government she has been under house arrest since 1989. She has endured failing health, vilification through the Burmese media, and cruel imprisonment in one of the world's most dreadful and inhumane jails. Suu Kyi has fought every hardship the junta could put her through yet she has never once wavered from her position, never once advocated violence, and persevered in her message of peaceful resistance at all costs, earning her the Nobel Peace Prize in 1991, placing her among the likes of such renowned champions of peace as Gandhi, King, and Mandela. She is a truly heroic revolutionary.

In Perfect Hostage the most thorough biography of Suu Kyi to date. Justin Wintle tells both the story of the Burmese people and the story of an ordinary person who became a hero.
