Lester Leaps In The Life And Times Of Lester Pres Young:

Lester Leaps In Douglas H. Daniels, 2003-02-17 He was jazz's first hipster. He performed in sunglasses and coined and popularized phrases like "that's cool" and "you dig." He always wore a suit and his trademark porkpie hat. He influenced everyone from B.B. King to Stan Getz to Allen Ginsberg, creating a lyrical style of playing that forever changed the sound of the tenor saxophone. In this groundbreaking biography of Lester Young (1909-1959), historian Douglas Daniels brings to life the man and his world and corrects a number of misconceptions. Even though others have identified Young as a Kansas City musician, Daniels traces his roots to the blues of Louisiana and his early years traveling with his father's band and the legendary Oklahoma City Blue Devils. Later, we see the jazz culture of New York in the early 1940s when Young was launched to national and international fame with the Count Basie Orchestra and began to accompany his close friend Billie Holiday. After a year spent in an Army prison on a conviction for marijuana use, Young made changes in his music but never lost his sensitivity or soul. The first ever to gain access to Young's family and many musicians who performed with him, Daniels reconstructs the world in which Young lived and played, the racism that he and other black musicians faced, the feeling of home and family that they created together on the road, and what his music meant to black audiences. Young emerges as a kind friend, a loving parent, and a gentle and sensitive man who had, in the words of Reginald Scott, "the saddest eyes I ever saw."

Jazzing Thomas H. Greenland, 2016-05-15 How do we speak about jazz? In this provocative study based on the author's deep immersion in the New York City jazz scene, Tom Greenland turns from the usual emphasis on artists and their music to focus on non-performing participants: describing them as active performers in their own right who witness and thus collaborate in a happening made one of a kind by improvisation, mood, and moment. Jazzing shines a spotlight on the constituency of proprietors, booking agents, photographers, critics, publicists, painters, amateur musicians, fans, friends, and tourists that makes up New York City's contemporary jazz scene. Drawn from deep ethnographic research, interviews, and long-term participant observation, Jazzing charts the ways New York's distinctive physical and social-cultural environment affects and is affected by jazz. Throughout, Greenland offers a passionate argument in favor of a radically inclusive conception of music-making, one in which individuals collectively improvise across social contexts to co-create community and musical meaning. An odyssey through the clubs and other performance spaces on and off the beaten track, Jazzing is an insider's view of a vibrant urban art world.

Lee Konitz Andy Hamilton, 2018-10-10 Meticulously researched, detailed, and documented, this long-awaited overview justly establishes Konitz as one of the most consistently brilliant, adventurous, and original improvisers in the jazz tradition, a genius as rare as Bird himself. John Zorn. Hamilton's work may well mark the inception of a format new to writing on Western music, one which avoids both the self-aggrandizing of autobiography and the stylized subjectification of biography. The Wire: An extraordinary approach to a biography with the man himself speaking for extended sessions The main vibration I felt from Lee s words was total honesty almost to a fault Konitz shows himself to be an acute observer of the scene full of wisdom and deep musical insights relevant to any historical period regardless of style The asides by noted musicians are beautifully woven throughout the pages I couldn t put the book down it is the definition of a living history David Liebman The preeminent altoist associated with the cool school of jazz Lee Konitz was one of the few saxophonists of his generation to forge a unique sound independent of the influence of Charlie Parker In the late 1940s Konitz began his career with the Claude Thornhill band during which time he came into contact with Miles Davis with whom he would later work on the legendary Birth of the Cool sessions Konitz is perhaps best known through his association with Lennie Tristano under whose influence much of his sound evolved and for his work with Stan Kenton and Warne Marsh His recordings have ranged from cool bop to experimental improvisation and have appeared on such labels as Prestige Atlantic Verve and Polydor Crafted out of numerous interviews between the author and his subject the book offers a unique look at the story of Lee Konitz s life and music detailing Konitz s own insights into his musical education and his experiences with such figures as Miles Davis Stan Kenton Warne Marsh Lennie Tristano Charles Mingus Bud Powell and Bill Evans Andy Hamilton is a jazz pianist and contributor to major jazz and contemporary music magazines He teaches philosophy and the history and aesthetics of jazz at Durham University in the United Kingdom He is also the author of the book Aesthetics and Music Continuum 2007 Joe Lovano is a Grammy Award winning tenor saxophonist His most recent album is Streams of Expression
