The Musical Monitor, 1923 God the Child Graham Adams, 2024-04-30 We express the mystery of God with diverse metaphors but mostly in Adult terms In this experimental theological adventure Graham Adams imagines what might flow from a more thorough being of God Aware that the Child can be idealized he selects particular characteristics of childness in order to disrupt God's omnipresence omnipotence and omniscience The smallness of the Child re-envisages divine location in sites of smallness like an open palm receiving the experiences of the overlooked The weakness of the Child reimagines divine agency as chaos event subverting prevailing patterns of power and evoking relationships of mutuality And the curiosity of the Child reconceives divine encounter as horizon seeker imaginatively and empathetically pursuing the unknown These possibilities are brought into dialogue both with other theologies Black disabled and queer and with pastoral loss economic ecological injustice and theological education Through these conversations God the Child emerges not only as a new model for God but intrinsic to God's new social reality which is close at hand
