Let The Credits Roll Interviews With Film Crew:

Let the Credits Roll Barbara Baker, 2015-09-16 What exactly is a best boy or a grip As the credits roll at the end of every film listing the names of all the individuals who contributed to its making many viewers have no idea what these people do This book reveals the mystery behind the job titles as crew members tell their stories explaining what their jobs are how they came to have a career in filmmaking and their many experiences both serious and comic The author has conducted interviews with 33 accredited members of film production crews from many different American and British films Each interview includes a brief introduction to the person as well as their filmography Examples of individuals interviewed include an assistant director a best boy a boom operator a Foley artist a grip a set decorator a storyboard artist and a wrangler

Movie Workers Melanie Bell, 2021-07-06 Winner of the Theatre Library Association's Richard Wall Memorial Award Special Jury Prize for an exemplary work in the field of recorded performance After the advent of sound women in the British film industry formed an essential corps of below the line workers laboring in positions from animation artist to negative cutter to costume designer Melanie Bell maps the work of these women decade by decade examining their far ranging economic and creative contributions against the backdrop of the discrimination that constrained their careers Her use of oral histories and trade union records presents a vivid counter narrative to film history one that focuses not only on women in a male dominated business but on the innumerable types of physical and emotional labor required to make a motion picture Bell's feminist analysis looks at women's jobs in film at important historical junctures while situating the work in the context of changing expectations around women and gender roles Illuminating and astute Movie Workers is a first of its kind examination of the unsung women whose invisible work brought British filmmaking to the screen

Texture In Film Lucy Fife Donaldson, 2014-08-13 Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives of art literature and music Donaldson develops a stimulating understanding of a concept that has received little detailed attention in relation to film Based in close analysis Texture in Film brings discussion of style and affect together in a selection of case studies drawn from American cinema

The Film Crew of Hollywood James C. Udel, 2013-10-28 These in depth profiles illuminate the careers of ten motion picture crew members who worked during Hollywood's Independent Age of film and television production basically from 1945 to 1980 A celebratory insiders look at the Tinseltown machine the book utilizes individual interviews and rare crew photographs to provide the back story of production challenges and solutions for some of the world's most recognized movies including such classics as The Searchers Chinatown The Hustler and Bullitt among many others It provides not only an educational treatment of the jobs and techniques of filmmaking but also a dose of humorous and memorable experiences from the trenches
