Secrets of the Killing State Corinna Barrett Lain,2025-04-22 Lethal injection is nothing like what you think These are the Secrets of the Killing State This is its untold story a story of incompetence law breaking lies and malfeasance all covered by a heavy layer of secrecy Mass Starvation Alex de Waal,2017-12-08 The world almost conquered famine Until the 1980s this scourge killed ten million people every decade but by early 2000s mass starvation had all but disappeared Today famines are resurgent driven by war blockade hostility to humanitarian principles and a volatile global economy In Mass Starvation world renowned expert on humanitarian crisis and response Alex de Waal provides an authoritative history of modern famines their causes dimensions and why they ended He analyses starvation as a crime and breaks new ground in examining forced starvation as an instrument of genocide and war Refuting the enduring but erroneous view that attributes famine to overpopulation and natural disaster he shows how political decision or political failing is an essential element in every famine while the spread of democracy and human rights and the ending of wars were major factors in the near ending of this devastating phenomenon Hard hitting and deeply informed Mass Starvation explains why man made famine and the political decisions that could end it for good must once again become a top priority for the international community H.R. 4455, a Proposal to Amend the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945 United States. Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche Merged Evolution Susantha Goonatilake,2013-10-31 Merged Evolution charts the implications of two major forces of change information technology and biotechnology combined with a third force that of artifactual information which is handed down dichronically from computing device to computing device Through developments anticipated in the near future Dr Goonatilake describes the merging of these three systems a convergence which will profoundly affect the biological social and technical fields much more than previous studies have implied Together these changes yield an entirely different history and a different future of the world for life nature and civilization This book addresses the broader issue arising from these important developments using the unifying perspective of general evolutionary theory to yield a fresh and profound insight The Problem of Biological Weapons Milton Leitenberg,2004 The Future of the Export Administration Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Economic Policy and Trade,1997 The New Crusade Rahul Mahajan,2002-03 This book locates ongoing events in the aftermath of September 11 in historical context analyzes their motive forces and possible outcomes and examines the alternatives that face the anti globalization movement and opponents of racism and war Arms Control and Disarmament Law Stuart Casey-Maslen, 2021-10-25 Arms control and disarmament are key elements in promoting international peace and security In recent decades the scope of disarmament law has broadened from a traditional focus on weapons of mass destruction to encompass conventional weapons In this new volume in the Elements series Stuart Casey Maslen provides a concise and objective appraisal of international arms control and disarmament law In seven concise chapters he traces the history of arms control and disarmament in the modern era addressing the issues surrounding biological and chemical weapons the Non Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and conventional weapon and arms transfer regimes He concludes by considering how in order to remain relevant disarmament and arms control will need to adapt to rapidly evolving technologies that defy traditional means of verification and control Arms Control and Disarmament Law is an accessible go to source for practicing international lawyers judges and arbitrators government and military officers scholars teachers and students A Twilight Struggle Robert Kagan, 1996 Kagan contends that the Carter administration s halfhearted intervention in Nicaragua was in response to American feelings of guilt for Washington s longtime support of the Somoza dynasty The Reagan era intervention on the other hand originated in American anxiety over Soviet encroachment in the Western hemisphere Kagan recounts how American popular aversion to the employment of U S military muscle in Central America led to the administration s covert support of the contras and goes on to explain how the clash between the Reagan White House and Congress over freedom fighter funding led to the Iran contra affair in 1987 Although the surprising electoral victory of Violeta Chamorro over the Sandinistas was widely recognized as a success for American policy the U S remains caught in a continuous cycle of intervention and withdrawal in Nicaragua according to Kagan As a member of the State Department s Policy Planning Staff Kagan was a direct participant in many of the events described in this authoritative and definitive account of U S Publisher s description Flying Magazine, 1939-01 Federal Register, 1992-02 Environmental Issues in the New World Trading System Peter Uimonen, John Whalley, 2016-07-27 This book examines the recent controversy between international trade and environmental policies It analyses the use of environmentally motivated trade policies national environmental policies and their relationships with the rules governing trade critically examining proposals rule reform A theoretical framework is provided for a consideration of the efficiency of environmental trade policies and an evaluation made of empirical links between environmental policy differences and trade flows Concerns of developing countries over environmentally motivated market access restrictions are highlighted in considering international trade rules and the agreements reached at UNCED Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2006 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 United States Code

United States,1995 State Crime Alan Doig,2010-12-22 This book provides an introduction to state crime with a particular focus on the UK The use of crime by the UK to achieve its policy and political objectives is an underdeveloped aspect of academic study of individual and institutional criminality the exercise of political power public policy making and political development The book provides an overview of definitional issues before exploring possible examples of state crime in the UK and then considering why state crime occurs and how it is investigated and adjudicated State Crime is split into six sections in order to address a number of key questions what is state crime according to the literature What is a crime What is the state What are the drivers for the State to commit a crime What are the roles of the various institutions of the State in being involved in state crime and what in terms of monitoring or investigating state crime or unethical conduct are the roles of those institutions from the police through to Parliament responsible for holding governments and state institutions to account Unusually for books on state crime this book looks at a specific country as the context within which to explore these issues Further it not only looks at crime but also the structure of the modern state and thus provides a balanced and rigorous perspective with which to study the concept of state crime Overall this book seeks to provide an introduction to state crime for contemporary states which will facilitate the study of such issues as part of mainstream academic study across a number of disciplines Emerging Technologies and International Security Reuben Steff,Joe Burton,Simona R. Soare,2020-11-25 This book offers a multidisciplinary analysis of emerging technologies and their impact on the new international security environment across three levels of analysis While recent technological developments such as Artificial Intelligence AI robotics and automation have the potential to transform international relations in positive ways they also pose challenges to peace and security and raise new ethical legal and political questions about the use of power and the role of humans in war and conflict This book makes a contribution to these debates by considering emerging technologies across three levels of analysis 1 the international system systemic level including the balance of power 2 the state and its role in international affairs and how these technologies are redefining and challenging the state s traditional roles and 3 the relationship between the state and society including how these technologies affect individuals and non state actors This provides specific insights at each of these levels and generates a better understanding of the connections between the international and the local when it comes to technological advance across time and space The chapters examine the implications of these technologies for the balance of power examining the strategies of the US Russia and China to harness AI robotics and automation and how their militaries and private corporations are responding how smaller and less powerful states and non state actors are adjusting the political ethical and legal implications of AI and automation what these technologies mean for how war and power is understood and utilized in the 21st century and how these technologies diffuse power away from the state to society individuals and non state actors This volume will be of much interest to students of international security science and technology studies law philosophy and international relations International Security Assistance United States.
