Lethal Speech Daribi Myth As Symbolic Obviation:

Lethal Speech Roy Wagner, 1978 Myths and Mythologies Jeppe Sinding Jensen, 2016-06-16 In all cultures and at all times humans have told stories about where they came from who they are and how they should live their lives Myths and Mythologies brings together the key classic and contemporary writings philosophical psychological sociological semiological and cognitivist on myth To the insider myths contain truth revelation and a history of ourselves to the outsider a culture's myths can be seen as the product of foolish infantile and wishful thinking Myths tell us about specific cultures about human creativity and how narrative shapes and reflects understanding The Reader is an invaluable resource for students and scholars interested in the impact of narrative on human culture and the meaning of truth in religious language Ecology and the Sacred Roy A. Rappaport, 2001 A meaningful homage to an extraordinary anthropologist Signifying Animals Roy Willis, 2003-09-02 A fresh assessment of the workings of animal symbolism in diverse cultures Reconsiders the concept of totemism and exposes common fallacies in symbolic interpretation Weather, Climate, Culture Sarah Strauss, Benjamin S. Orlove, 2021-07-28 Throughout history the weather has been both feared and revered for its powerful influence over living creatures Not only does it control our moods activities and fashions but it has also played a crucial role in broader issues of cultural identity concepts of time and economic development In fact the weather has become so ingrained in our everyday routines that many of us forget just how profoundly this omnipotent force shapes culture With the continuing rise in global warming and consequential change in weather patterns our awareness and understanding of this topic has never been so important This fascinating book is the first to explore our close relationship with the weather From folklore to visual representations agricultural and health practices and unusual weather events Weather Climate Culture demonstrates that the way we discuss and interpret meteorological phenomena concerns not only the events in question but more complexly the cultural political and historical framework in which we discuss them Why is it politically safe to discuss current weather conditions but highly controversial to discuss long term climate change Why are the British renowned for talking about the weather and why in the eighteenth century was this regarded as genteel How can accounts of cultural or moral change be associated with narratives of changing climate and vice versa Drawing on a wide range of case studies from around the world this pioneering book provides an original and lively perspective on a subject that continues to have an incalculable impact on the way we live It will serve as a landmark text for years to come South Coast New Guinea Cultures Bruce M. Knauft, 1993-03-25 The communities of south coast New Guinea were the subject of classic ethnographies and fresh studies in recent decades have put these rich and complex cultures at the centre of anthropological debates Flamboyant sexual practices such as ritual homosexuality have attracted particular interest In the first general book on the region Dr Knauft reaches striking new comparative conclusions through a careful ethnographic analysis of sexuality the status of women ritual and cosmology political economy and violence among the region's seven major language culture areas The findings suggest new Melanesian regional contrasts and provide for a general critique of the way regional comparisons are constructed in anthropology Theories of practice and political economy as well as post modern insights are drawn upon to provide a generative theory of indigenous social and symbolic development Cutting and Connecting Knut Christian Myhre, 2016-03-01 Questions regarding the origins mobility and effects of analytical concepts continue to emerge as anthropology endeavors to describe similarities and differences in social life around the world Cutting and Connecting rethinks this comparative enterprise by calling in a conceptual debt that theoretical innovations from Melanesian anthropology owe to network analysis originally developed in African contexts On this basis the contributors adopt and employ concepts from recent studies of Melanesia to analyze contemporary life on the African continent and to explore how this exchange influences the borrowed anthropological perspectives By focusing on ways in which networks are cut and connections are made these empirical investigations show how particular relationships are created in today's Africa In addition the volume aims for an approach that recasts relationships between theory and place and concepts and ethnography in a manner that destabilizes the distinction between fieldwork and writing

From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology Bruce Knaft, 2025-10-01 What have anthropologists taught us about Melanesia one of anthropology's most important and intensively studied world regions In this book Professor Bruce Knaft draws together and critically reanalyzes what we know about major features of Melanesian cultural history warfare and politics gender bodily practices and spirituality as discerned from more than a century of academic study From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology is arguably the most comprehensive single reassessment of Melanesia as an ethnographic world area to have been published in several decades Written for students as well as professional scholars this work further broadens our understanding by analyzing the history of Melanesian ethnography and relating this history to the larger relationship between Melanesia as a contemporary world area and anthropology as a field of contemporary human study Bruce M Knaft is Professor of Anthropology Emory University and the author of three previous books as well as some thirty journal articles and chapters Knaft's interests span a wide range of issues in the anthropology of Melanesia and he is articulate with general issues of cultural theory and anthropological history

From Primitive to Postcolonial in Melanesia and Anthropology Bruce M. Knaft, 1999 A prominent scholar surveys the special place of Melanesia in our understanding of human cultural variation

Filial Obsessions P. Steven Sangren, 2017-03-13 This book employs a broad analysis of Chinese patriliney to propose a distinctive theoretical conceptualization of the role of desire in culture It utilizes a unique synthesis of Marxian and psychoanalytic insights in arguing that Chinese patriliney is best understood as simultaneously a mode of production of desire and as instituted fantasy The argument advances through discussions and analyses of kinship family gender filial piety ritual and especially mythic narratives In each of these domains P Steven Sangren addresses the complex sentiments and ambivalences associated with filial relations Unlike most earlier studies which approach Chinese patriliney and filial piety as irreducible markers of cultural difference Sangren argues that Chinese patriliney is better approached as a topic of critical inquiry in its own right Deleuzian Intersections Casper Bruun Jensen, Kjetil Rødje, 2010 Science and technology studies cultural anthropology and cultural studies deal with the complex relations between material symbolic technical and political practices In a Deleuzian approach these relations are seen as produced in heterogeneous assemblages moving across distinctions such as the human and non human or the material and ideal This volume outlines a Deleuzian approach to analyzing science culture and politics Truth in Motion Martin Holbraad, 2012-05-04 Embarking on an ethnographic journey to the inner barrios of Havana among practitioners of If a prestigious Afro Cuban tradition of divination Truth in Motion reevaluates Western ideas about truth in light of the practices and ideas of a wildly different and highly respected model Acutely focusing on If Martin Holbraad takes the reader inside consultations initiations and lively public debates to show how If practitioners see truth as something to be not so much represented as transformed Bringing his findings to bear on the discipline of anthropology itself he recasts the very idea of truth as a matter not only of epistemological divergence but also of ontological difference the question of truth he argues is not simply about how things may appear differently to people but also about the different ways of imagining what those things are By delving so deeply into If practices Truth in Motion offers cogent new ways of thinking about otherness and how anthropology can navigate it

Cannibal Metaphysics Eduardo Viveiros de Castro, 2015-11-01 The iconoclastic Brazilian anthropologist and theoretician Eduardo Viveiros de Castro well known in his discipline for helping initiate its ontological turn offers a vision of anthropology as the practice of the permanent decolonization of thought After showing that Amazonian and other Amerindian groups inhabit a radically different conceptual universe than ours in which nature and culture human and nonhuman subject and object are conceived in terms that reverse our own he presents the case for anthropology as the study of such other metaphysical schemes and as the corresponding critique of the concepts imposed on them by the human sciences Along the way he spells out the consequences of this anthropology for thinking in general via a major reassessment of the work of Claude Lévi Strauss arguments for the continued relevance of Deleuze and Guattari dialogues with the work of Philippe Descola Bruno Latour and Marilyn Strathern and inventive treatments of problems of ontology translation and transformation Bold unexpected and profound Cannibal Metaphysics is one of the chief works marking anthropology's current return to the theoretical center stage Times Enmeshed Gabriele Stürzenhofecker, 1998 This book traces the formation of historical consciousness among the Duna people of Papua New Guinea and explores how this is constituted differently for men and women Dealing with Inequality Marilyn Strathern, 1987-12-10 This 1987 volume comprises ten essays by anthropologists who interrogate the nature of social inequality between the sexes in societies mostly in Melanesia Guattari Beyond Deleuze Carlos A. Segovia, 2024-11-08 This book argues that by virtue of his original and ongoing contribution to ontology and modal philosophy from the texts gathered in Psychoanalysis and Transversality to the unpublished manuscript notes for

What Is Philosophy Guattari is to be acknowledged a philosopher in his own right independently from Deleuze Furthermore it looks back and forth beyond Anti Oedipus and contends that Guattari s major writings gradually supplement deterritorialization with determinability Accordingly it offers a new interpretation of the nuanced development of Guattari s philosophical thought which it proposes to define as constructivist rather than post structuralist Additionally it explores the innovative responses that Guattari s philosophy supplies to various contemporary philosophical debates like those on accelerationism indeterminacy compossibility and worlding Finally it examines the differences that upon a careful cross reading of their earliest texts including The Anti Oedipus Papers and Difference and Repetition must be drawn between Guattari s constructivism and Deleuze s sacrificial philosophy Shifting Contexts Marilyn Strathern,2012-09-10 To suppose anthropological analysis can shift between global and local perspectives may well imply that the two co exist as broader and narrower horizons or contexts of knowledge The proof for this can be found in ethnographic accounts where contrasts are repeatedly drawn between the encompassing realm and everyday life or in value systems which sumultaneously trivialise and aggrandise or in shifts between what pertains to the general or to the particular Technologies of Procreation Jeanette Edwards,1999 Now available in paperback this book takes a fresh look at the social and cultural implications of the new reproductive technologies and assisted conception It has already attracted a wide readership in anthropology sociology and health To Remember the Faces of the Dead Thomas Maschio,1994 As he challenges classical semiological accounts of cultural representation in this ethnography of Melanesian religious phenomenology Thomas Maschio shows that ritual and poetic performance are about the enactment expression and invention of the self Maschio demonstrates how such emotions as nostalgia anger sadness and grief are creatively transformed during the course of religious performance and expression into a form of cultural memory one that juxtaposes a pattern of cultural meaning with the emotional feeling of plenitude the Melanesian Rauto call makai Evoked during initiation mourning and agricultural rites and figuring prominently in Rauto discourse about the self makai joins personal memory to patterned sets of images and meanings that Westerners would call culture On the Order of Chaos Mark S. Mosko,Frederick H. Damon,2005 The essays in this volume collectively transform perspectives previously experienced as divergent conflicting and inconsistent into a common and complex orientation to problems central to the natural and social sciences involving transitions between order and disorder Jacket
