The Conscious Stream Denise Ingebo-Barth,2000-12-01 The Conscious Stream describes a theory built on the idea that consciousness a stream of separate conscious instants like frames making up a reel of film is formed as trajectories circulate around the nervous system circuitry In this model a trajectory is a series of neuron groups energized in turn Picture it as a sequence of lights flashing around a marquee or perhaps as a comet blazing through a linked series of packed neuron groups through circuits of the nervous system When a trajectory passes through the thalamus a central area of the brain an instant of experience is inserted into our lifelong conscious stream This instant of experience can be a sensation thought or feeling The particular instant depends on the source of the trajectory When a trajectory is initiated by sound waves to the ear and passes through the thalamus for example a sensation in this case a sound enters the conscious stream As the description of this model progresses we see how a trajectory from the thalamus to the cortex is recorded and becomes a part of a network of records and how when concurrent trajectories in the cortical network converge and generate a trajectory back to the thalamus a thought enters the conscious stream In addition as trajectories evolve being repeated prolonged released or compounded emotional feelings enter the conscious stream Over time patterns of invigoration and relaxation stagnation and relief are generated forming our life s emotional quality Finally the model shows how links of activity form a cycle and how a pattern of cycles forms an activity Patterns of activities in turn form a lifestyle In this model then the character of circulation in the nervous system reflects emotional fitness Although designed primarily for students of neuroscience this proposed model may also be evaluated by those having an interest in the physical processes underlying emotional fitness

Homeseekers S. B. Broshar,2010-05-18 For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself by Him whether things on earth or things in heaven having made peace through the blood of His cross Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior But now he has reconciled you by Christs physical body through death to present you holy in his sight without blemish and free from accusation If you continue in the faith established and firm not moved from the hope held out in the gospel This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven and of which I Paul have become a servant Colossians 1 19 23 New King James Version Bible This is a fictional story about Bailey a common house cat that suffers the death of a relationship and is cruelly cast out into a world he is ill equipped to deal with Fear grips him and is only assuaged when in the presence of friends he finds on his journey When he learns about another Friend an unseen friend he must decide whether or not he can trust that One even more than he trusts his earthly companions Late in life I found myself alone in a world that frightened me For company I rescued a starving cat in need of a home and tender loving care and as I watched him become healthy and strong I began to realize some undeniable similarities between his predicament and my own and between his species and my species Beginning with the most obvious mankind and creaturekind were both created by the same God on the same day God breathed life into both animal and man though only man is made in the image of God That same Creativity instilled unique traits and abilities into animals and man He commanded them to be fruitful and multiply because it was important to God that they all continue to exist While in the Garden man was commanded to care for the land and the animals but the Bible also mentions livestock as separate beasts from the wild animals and that suggests that certain ones of the animal kingdom were designated to be of help and service to mankind not only as food and beasts of burden but as companions and partners In the past six thousand years no new species of animal has ever been successfully domesticated When man sinned all were banished from the Garden Being made in the image of God man was given an independent spirit and the freedom to make his own choices about how he will live and what he will believe Obviously man made huge mistakes from the very beginning with that freedom and found that freedom does not mean you do not have to obey certain rules And I think that most humans would agree that cats exhibit the same freedom of choice as evidenced by the many myths and legends that surround the singularity of cats But the most compelling similarity of all is the fact that animals suffer from the pain of rejection and cruelty just as we do In our world today there are shelters for lost and abused animals and shelters for lost and abused humans There are homeless dogs and cats and homeless men and women wandering the streets of our cities and the roadsides of the country searching for a safe and forever home I was touched and inspired by this cats plight and began to imagine and do some studying about what pet cats might go through when they suddenly find themselves out alone in a world they are barely able to cope with This is not just a book about a lost cat It is a book about all who are lost animal or man What path to take Who to trust Why are we here Where is our Forever Home Bring Me Home! Cats Make Great Pets Margaret H. Bonham, 2007-07-23 The book to bring home before you bring home a kitten or a cat At last a practical hands on guide to help you determine if your family is ready for a kitten or a cat Cats are usually fairly selfsufficient and wonderfully entertaining but they do require some attention and care With loads of information and a fun family friendly style this book provides a realistic understanding of the responsibilities of cat ownership Information and interactive activities include Worksheets that help you make informed decisions keep good records and more Questions and charts to help you determine if your family is ready for cat ownership whether to get a kitten or a cat where to get your pet and more Checklists covering cat proofing your home vaccinations your new pet should have items you ll need before bringing your cat home and other aspects of being a responsible pet parent Cat care chore charts including the dreaded litter box duty Resources to keep with your pet s records and information After you welcome a kitten or a cat into your family this book provides the essential information on litter box training boundary training scratching training nutrition exercise grooming common health problems and lots more You ll know how to make your cat the purrfect family pet
