Horvath, 2003-05-07 Love under trying circumstances One night out of the blue Ratchet Clark's ill natured mother tells her that Ratchet will be leaving their Pensacola apartment momentarily to take the train up north There she will spend the summer with her aged relatives Penpen and Tilly inseparable twins who couldn't look more different from each other Staying at their secluded house Ratchet is treated to a passel of strange family history and local lore along with heaps of generosity and care that she has never experienced before Also Penpen has recently espoused a new philosophy whatever shows up on your doorstep you have to let in Through thick wilderness down forgotten bear ridden roads come a variety of characters drawn to Penpen and Tilly's open door It is with vast reservations that the cautious Tilly allows these unwelcome guests in But it turns out that unwelcome guests may bring the greatest gifts By turns dark and humorous Polly Horvath offers adolescent readers enough quirky characters and outrageous situations to leave them reeling The Canning Season is the winner of the 2003 National Book Award for Young People's Literature No Path Home Elizabeth Cullen

Dunn, 2018-01-15 For more than 60 million displaced people around the world humanitarian aid has become a chronic condition No Path Home describes its symptoms in detail Elizabeth Cullen Dunn shows how war creates a deeply damaged world in which the structures that allow people to occupy social roles constitute economic value preserve bodily integrity and engage in meaningful daily practice have been blown apart After the Georgian war with Russia in 2008 Dunn spent sixteen months immersed in the everyday lives of the 28 000 people placed in thirty six resettlement camps by official and nongovernmental organizations acting in concert with the Georgian government She reached the conclusion that the humanitarian condition poses a survival problem that is not only biological but also existential In No Path Home she paints a moving picture of the ways in which humanitarianism leaves displaced people in limbo neither in a state of emergency nor able to act as normal citizens in the country where they reside
