David Crystal explores the factors that motivate so many different kinds of talk and reveals the rules we use unconsciously even in the most routine exchanges of everyday conversation We tend to think of conversation as something spontaneous instinctive habitual It has been described as an art as a game sometimes even as a battle Whichever metaphor we use most people are unaware of what the rules are how they work and how we can bend and break them when circumstances warrant it

small group face to face meetings during the past decade Heie presents practical concrete proposals for how to talk to one another about significant disagreements particularly in Christian churches that have tragically succumbed to tribalism
