Letter On Apologetics And History And Dogma:

The Letter on Apologetics, and History and Dogma Maurice Blondel, 1964 The work of French philosopher Maurice Blondel lies behind most of the controversies in twentieth century French Catholic thought and bore its fruit in the Second Vatican Council Recognized in Europe as one of the outstanding figures in the Catholic revival that began at the turn of the century Blondel was described by Pope John Paul II as one of the first to discern what was at stake in the Modernist crisis Published together here are two of Blondel's most significant texts The Letter on Apologetics 1896 is a key statement on the possibility and meaning of Christian philosophy History and Dogma 1904 written in response to the Modernist crisis is an important contribution to the notion of tradition seeing it neither in terms of historicism nor as something mechanical but as a living synthesis Introductory essays by Alexander Dru and Illyd Trethowan provide essential historical and biographical background as well as an account of the philosophical and theological principles of Blondel's thought Back cover The Letter on Apologetics, And, History and Dogma Maurice Blondel, 1995-01 Themelios, Volume 33, Issue 1 D. Hatch, Timothy R. Gabrielli, 2017-03-28 Concerned that American Catholic theology has struggled to find its own voice for much of its history William Portier has spent virtually his entire scholarly career recovering a usable past for Catholics on the U S landscape This work of ressourcement has stood at the intersection of several disciplines and has unlocked the beauty of American Catholic life and thought These essays which are offered in honor of Portier's life and work emerge from his vision for American Catholicism where Scripture tradition reason and experience are distinct but interwoven and inextricably linked with one another As this volume details such a path is not merely about scholarly endeavors but involves the pursuit of holiness in the real world Letter & Spirit, Vol. 11: "Our Beloved Brother Paul" - Reception History of Paul in Catholic Tradition St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology, Ben Blackwell, Benjamin Blosser, Daniel Keating, Matthew Levering, John Kincaid, Ian Christopher Levy, Andrew Swafford, Matthew Ramage, Brant Pitre, 2016-09-01 Joyce, "Penelope" and the Body, 2016-08-01 Joyce Penelope and the Body is a collection of twelve essays about Penelope the famous final episode of Joyce's Ulysses in relation to contemporary literary cultural philosophical and psychoanalytical theories of the body As such it offers an unusually close look at that episode itself and it also becomes the very first book on Joyce that takes the idea of the body as its announced central theme The contributors represented here come from England Ireland Europe and North America and they include some of the best established critics of Joyce alongside newcomers to academic publication The essays include an encouraging diversity of approaches but they have in common a marked intellectual ambition a surprisingly fresh and innovative approach and above all a devoted fascination for Joyce's text Taken together they offer much new potential for the reading of Joyce and Modernism and a range of possibilities for understanding the body and its representation through language and in culture that have resonances across the cultural sphere

Discourse in Dialogue Pat F. Rossi, 2014-07-24 Discourse in Dialogue Reflections in Fundamental Philosophical Theology is a project which considers fundamental theological and philosophical perspectives in Catholic Christian theology This project adumbrates a number of specifically intellectual themes namely philosophical and theological in character which pertain to the Catholic Christian tradition These themes include a study of the following the interrelationship of philosophy and theology theological method and pluralism the interpretation of scripture and its underlying hermeneutical principles Christian anthropology in relation to philosophy of the human person the Christological mystery and soteriology as well as the nature of Christian Philosophy all of which are representative themes proper to fundamental philosophical theology This work serves as an introductory text to the above cited questions while also providing more specific points of study for those interested in a more comprehensive reflection on contemporary philosophical and theological perspectives Ecclesial Exegesis Gregory Vall, 2022-07 Biblical scholarship informed by the faith of the Church and to serve the life of the Church is called ecclesial In 1988 Joseph Ratzinger put forward a proposal of what this should mean which he called Method C in contrast to the patristic medieval approach Method A and the historical critical approach Method B This book examines the warrant for the Method C proposal in the document Dei Verbum of the Second Vatican Council and offers nine studies applying this method that bring to the surface issues such as the relationship between Old Testament and New Testament literal sense and spiritual sense and Scripture and Tradition Theologies of Retrieval Darren Sarisky, 2017-11-30 One of the most significant trends in academic theology today which emerges within Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox points of view is the growing interest in theologies of retrieval This mode of thinking puts a special stress upon subjecting classic theological texts to a close reading with a view toward using the resources that they provide to understand and address contemporary theological issues This volume offers an understanding of what theologies of retrieval are what their rationale is and what their strengths and weaknesses are The contributions provided by a distinguished team of theologians answer the important questions that existing work has raised expand on suggestions that have not yet been fully developed summarize ideas to highlight themes that are relevant to the topics of this volume and air new critiques that will spur further debate

The Gospel of Jesus Christ Walter Kasper, 2015-06-02 Contains writings from three different stages of Cardinal Walter Kasper's theological journey They seek to open up the gospel of Jesus Christ in a way that is intelligible to today's readers The works are An Introduction to the Faith Surpassing All Knowledge and an original essay on evangelization New Evangelization as a Theological Pastoral and Spiritual Challenge

The Conversation of Faith and Reason Aidan Nichols, 2011 Faith as Imagination Gerald J. Bednar, 1996-11 Lynch's work on the Platonic analogical imagination as instrument and entry into faith gets the attention it merits Bednar examines Lynch's concepts in detail the interconnectedness of faith and imagination the role of imagination in giving new images to faith the Oironic Christic image O the difference between imagination in drama and fantasy the paradigm shift from scholastic to modern understanding of faith Bednar clears the way for faith as imagination to accommodate conflicting opinions on some significant religious issues A History of Philosophy: Maine de Biran to Sartre Frederick Charles Copleston, 1946 Prominent French philosophical thinkers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Maurice Blondel on the Supernatural in Human Action Cathal Doherty, 2017-03-20 How do sacraments differ from superstition For Enlightenment philosophers such as Kant both are merely natural actions claiming a supernatural effect an accusation that has long been ignored in Catholic theology In Maurice Blondel on the Supernatural in Human Action Sacrament and Superstition however Cathal Doherty SJ reverses this accusation through a theological appropriation of Blondel's philosophy of action arguing not only that sacraments have no truck with superstition but that the Enlightened are themselves guilty of that which they most abhor superstitious action Doherty then uses Blondel's philosophical insights as a heuristic and corrective to putative sacramental theologies that would reduce the spiritual or supernatural efficacy of sacraments to the mere human effort of perception or symbolic interpretation

Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober, 2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner into dialogue with Continental philosophy notably the thought of Jean Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology Ultimately the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and

Continental philosophers Too often these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion s work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology Reason, Revelation, and Metaphysics Montague Brown,2020-11-06 Any realist metaphysics must include an integrated account of the transcendentals and the analogy of being for an adequate metaphysics must be about everything and all things share in some key metaphysical characteristic being unity truth goodness and beauty However they do not share in them in exactly the same way Therefore there is need to explain the transcendental characteristics in an analogical way By using the phrase transcendental analogies Reason Revelation and Metaphysics claims that there are analogies of unity truth goodness and beauty which are related to but irreducible to the analogy of being As this book is a systematic study of the topic theoretical reason has primacy in the project and metaphysics is given pride of place But reason is practical and aesthetic as well that is our consciences urge us to seek what is good and we are delighted by what is beautiful Although goodness and beauty are not reducible to truth they must be included in any adequate metaphysical account for metaphysics looks to explain everything Although metaphysics is traditionally thought to be a philosophical project involving ontology and natural theology Montague Brown argues that an adequate metaphysics must ultimately be theological including within its scope the truths of revelation Philosophical reason s examination of the transcendental analogies raises questions that it cannot answer We experience a world of many beings truths goods and beauties Recognizing that these many instances have something in common we affirm a transcendent instance of each traditionally called God However although we know that a transcendent instance exists we do not know its nature therefore we cannot say how it is related to the other instances If we try to apply this transcendent instance as the prime analogate to shed light on the other analogates we must fail for the abstractness and universality of the transcendent instance can add nothing to our understanding of the particular instances Wanting to know how the many exist and are related philosophical reason finds no way forward and recognizes its need for help It is the thesis of this book that reason finds this help only in the revelation of the God s covenantal relation with the world The first principle of all things most perfectly revealed in Jesus Christ perfect God and perfect man is really and freely related to us Only by accepting this revealed prime analogate can the transcendental analogies bear fruit in our ongoing quest for understanding Thinking With the Church Derek C. Hatch,2017-12-08 Over the centuries Baptists have labored to follow Christ in faithful devotion and service More recently they have occasionally partnered with fellow Christians from other traditions in these efforts while learning from each other along the way In Thinking With the Church Derek Hatch argues that Baptists need to follow the same pattern when it comes to their theological reflection engaging the wisdom of all

Christian pilgrims across time This will require a new theological method ressourcement that embraces Baptists place within the Great Tradition of the Christian faith Such work will not abandon long held Baptist convictions but offers resources for renewing Baptists theological vision as they participate in the fullness of the mystical body of Christ
