The Evolution of Highland Papua New Guinea Societies D. K. Feil,1987-12-03 D K Feil s study focuses on the divergent regions of the eastern and western highland of Papua New Guinea Research in Melanesia ,1982 From Rhetoric to

Reality? Peter King, Wendy Lee, Vincent Warakai, 1985 Human Rights and Gender Politics Anne-Marie Hilsdon, Martha Macintyre, Vera Mackie, Maila Stivens, 2012-11-12 First Published in 2004 As the new millennium leaves behind the most violent of centuries human rights activists and international agencies are looking to a new Age of Rights Feminists have been prominent among those struggling from below to reconstruct human rights the slogan women s rights are human rights has become a central claim of the global women s movement feminist theorists have argued for an explicit inclusion of women and gender in human rights tenets and United Nations forums have become central sites of an energetic new global feminist public providing unprecedented avenues for feminist initiatives and action It is clear however that feminist re shapings of human rights have been engaged in complex conversations with both human rights claims and with feminist and gender politics in all their many local versions The contributors to this volume address these complex conversations through a number of case studies within the Asia Pacific region A Companion to Ancient History Andrew Erskine, 2012-12-26 This Companion provides a comprehensive introduction to key topics in the study of ancient history Examines the forms of evidence problems approaches and major themes in the study of ancient history Comprises more than 40 essays written by leading international scholars Moves beyond the primary focus on Greece and Rome with coverage of the various cultures within the ancient Mediterranean Draws on the latest research in the field Provides an essential resource for any student of ancient history Equity In Mathematics Education Gabriele Kaiser, 2005-08-08 This text provides a critical overview of current thinking about equity issues in the teaching and learning of mathematics Grounded in feminist theories of curriculum change and a broad range of cultural perspectives the new approaches described here go beyond special programmes and experimental treatments designed to correct perceived problems and deficits Instead they establish how improved instructional practices and a fuller understanding of the nature of the mathematical enterprise can overcome the systemic obstacles that have thwarted women s participation in this important field This book will appeal to all those who are interested in the mathematical education of women including teachers parents administrators and researchers Face Value Elizabeth Durack, 1970 Gender Rituals Nancy Lutkehaus, Paul Roscoe, 2013-09-13 This volume draws together ethnographies of female initiation rites in Melanesia which require anthropologists to rethink their analysis of initiations and their perceptions of gender The contributors argue that female initiation rites express more than cultural notions of femininity narrow definitions of reproduction or coming of age rituals instead they play an important role in other life cycle rituals and in the political and economic organization of society The Face of the Nation Elise Stephenson, 2024 The Face of the Nation studies women s leadership and gender relations across some of the worst performing and most male dominated spheres of state international affairs Exploring the stories from almost 80 global women leaders as well as institutional histories and policies across diplomacy defense national security policing and intelligence this book seeks to understand why women remain under represented on the global stage despite many changing social and policy norms Using

Australia as a leading case study the book extends theories on gender and international institutions to understand the gendered racialized and heteronormative structures that continue to limit and impact on diverse women's leadership and participation internationally

Food Systems Profile - Papua New Guinea Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, European Union, CIRAD, 2023-08-03 Food systems are intimately linked to our lives through the food we eat our nutrition and health our livelihoods jobs and the environment and natural resources of the planet The main challenge for food systems is to produce nutritious food for all while preserving our biodiversity and environment and ensuring equitable distribution of wealth This Food Systems Profile provides a summary of the main food system issues in Papua New Guinea and highlights potential solutions for their sustainable and inclusive transformation It is the result of a systemic analysis and stakeholders consultation that was part of a global assessment of food systems in over 50 countries following a joint initiative by the European Union FAO and CIRAD which aims at catalysing the sustainable and inclusive transformation of food systems

Women as Unseen Characters Pascale Bonnemère, 2013-03-26 Rituals have always been a focus of ethnographies of Melanesia providing a ground for important theorizing in anthropology This is especially true of the male initiation rituals that until recently were held in Papua New Guinea For the most part these rituals have been understood as all male institutions intended to maintain and legitimate male domination Women's exclusion from the forest space where men conducted most such rites has been taken as a sign of their exclusion from the entire ritual process Women as Unseen Characters is the first book to examine the role of females in Papua New Guinea male rituals and the first systematic treatment of this issue for any part of the world In this volume leading Melanesian scholars build on recent ethnographies that show how female kin had roles in male rituals that had previously gone unseen Female seclusion and the enforcement of taboos were crucial elements of the ritual process forms of presence in their own right Contributors here provide detailed accounts of the different kinds of female presence in various Papua New Guinea male rituals When these are restored to the picture the rituals can no longer be interpreted merely as an institution for reproducing male domination but must also be understood as a moment when the whole system of relations binding a male person to his kin is reorganized By dealing with the participation of women a totally neglected dimension of male rituals is added to our understanding
