Faces Of Britain A Picture Of Britain 18801919:

Ancestral Trails Mark D. Herber, 2006 Originally published Thrupp Stroud Gloucestershire Sutton Pub Ltd London Society of Genealogists 1997 2nd ed published in Great Britain in 2004 London Zoo and the Victorians, 1828-1859 Takashi Ito, 2014 London Zoo examined in its nineteenth century context looking at its effect on cultural and social life At the dawn of the Victorian era London Zoo became one of the metropolis s premier attractions The crowds drawn to its bear pit included urban promenaders gentlemen menagerists Indian shipbuilders and Persian princes Charles Darwin himself This book shows that the impact of the zoo s extensive collection of animals can only be understood in the context of a wide range of contemporary approaches to nature and that it was not merely as a manifestation of British imperial culture The author demonstrates how the early history of the zoo illuminates three important aspects of the history of nineteenth century Britain the politics of culture and leisure in a new public domain which included museums and art galleries the professionalisation and popularisation of science in a consumer society and the meanings of the animal world for a growing urban population Weaving these threads altogether he presents a flexible frame of analysis to explain how the zoo was established how it pursued its policies of animal collection and how it responded to changing social conditions Dr Takashi Ito is Associate Professor in Modern British History Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Beyond Borders Néstor Herran, Tayra Lanuza-Navarro, Josep Simon, 2009-05-27 How does scientific knowledge circulate Does scientific communication shape the making of science Is the making of science a national endeavour or does it have an international or transnational dimension Are teaching and research equally relevant in this endeavour How can history of science react to the challenges posed by the changing practices of science in historical context Beyond Borders is a book generated at the heart of these fundamental questions In the last decades the history of science has attained a high degree of disciplinary maturity and sophistication However perception of disciplinary crisis is apparent behind calls for the search of new big pictures and their implementation in teaching and communicating the history of science to wider audiences Temporal and narrative fragmentation are seen as major drawbacks hindering the development of the discipline In addition national linguistic and methodological division is increasingly afflicting its practice Like other areas in the humanities and in contrast to the sciences the history of science has nowadays a pronounced local character which clearly constrains its intellectual output Challenging this state of affairs is a major aim of this book which argues for a resolute call for intellectual and methodological pluralism and internationalism Through a broad diversity of subjects periods and geographies covering from studies of sixteenth century astrological texts to contextual analysis of twentieth century X ray spectroscopy this collection of papers and historiographical essays offers a fresh overview of the field and its major questions Beyond Borders revisits five major topics in history of science namely the early modern map of knowledge pedagogy and science science popularization science and the nation and the geography of scientific centres and peripheries Engaging with a broad diversity of historiographical and methodological approaches in an international perspective Beyond Borders is a rich and plural manifesto contributing to the reflective appraisal of history of science as a discipline Faces of Britain, a Picture of Britain 1880-1919 N. Hindmarch Keen,1993 PEACE STUDIES, PUBLIC POLICY AND GLOBAL SECURITY - Volume VIII Ursula Oswald Spring, Ada Aharoni, Ralph V. Davison,2016-04-01 In the period leading up to the First World War Britain s naval supremacy was challenged by an arms race with Germany fuelled not only by military and geo strategic rivalries but an onrush of technological developments As this book demonstrates steam turbines bigger guns mechanical computing devices and ever increasing tonnage meant that the Royal Navy was forced to confront many long cherished beliefs and sensitive social and political issues By looking at key continuities over the period of 1880 1919 the study explores how the service and its officers attempted to deal with fundamental changes in professional requirements and how cultural and social values underwent a transformation in the run up to the First World War In particular the book looks at how the executive officer corps was presented with a revolution in naval affairs As the Navy was transformed into an industrialized workplace officers were challenged by an alteration in the culture of command as arrangements carried over from the days of sail began to breakdown under the practical requirements of a steam and steel fleet The book charts the ebb and flow of the debate and the various ideas put forward to deal with the structural challenges faced by the Royal Navy The writings of reformers and commentators such as Fisher Beresford Corbett Laughton and Mahan provide the background to the specific problems faced and are analysed both in relation to the nature of the reforms implemented and more crucially the performance of the Senior Service during the First World War Historical Abstracts ,1990 Humanities Index ,1983 Working Girls Patricia A. Tilburg,2019

 Working Girls offers a cultural history of the women of the Parisian garment trades as read by French entertainment and popular culture labour reformers and the women themselves bridging the divide between the cultural history of the Parisian imaginary and the history of the French working classes and national identity Leonard's Annual Price Index of Art Auctions ,1993 The Journal of the Linnean Society ,1945 Journal Linnean Society of London,1939 The Columbia Encyclopedia William Bridgwater,Elizabeth J.
