Facets African-American Video Guide Patrick Ogle,1994 All black cast films from the silent era African cinema and the independent African American cinema movement New Technologies and Reference Services William A. Katz,2000 This comprehensive volume recounts the ways reference librarians have adapted traditional services to deal with the changes in both information technologies and library patrons New Technologies and Reference Services shows how to provide needed services using videoconferencing interactive classrooms drop in seminars and required courses It also discusses the other implications of new technologies including developing trends in publishing copyright issues collection strategies and decentralizing library reference services Projecting Ethnicity and Race Marsha J. Hamilton,Eleanor S. Block,2003-03-30 This comprehensive annotated bibliography reviews nearly 500 English language studies published between 1915 and 2001 that examine the depiction of ethnic racial and national groups as portrayed in United States feature films from the inception of cinema through the present Coverage includes books reference works book chapters within larger works and individual essays from collections and anthologies Concise annotations provide content summaries unique features major films and filmmakers discussed and useful information on related titles purpose and intended readership The studies included range from specialized scholarly treatises to popular illustrated books for general readers making Projecting Ethnicity and Race an invaluable resource for researchers interested in ethnic and racial film imagery Entries are arranged alphabetically by title for easy access while four separate indexes make the work simple to navigate by author subject gender race ethnic group nationality country religion film title filmmaker performer or theme Although the majority of studies published examine images of African Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans Asian Americans and Asians in film the volume contains studies of groups including Africans Arabs the British Canadians South Sea Islanders Tibetans Buddhists and Muslims making it a unique reference book with a wide range of uses for a wide range of scholars Reel Black Talk Linda Allen,Spencer Moon,1997-09-23 As evidenced in interviews included in this volume many African American filmmakers consider themselves artists first their ethnicity being only part of what influences their work This is the first book by an African American on contemporary African American filmmakers Here directors and producers speak for themselves posing challenges to current thinking in the field Special emphasis is given to the filmmakers productions and their experiences Essays on historic figures reveal the rich history of the African American contribution to cinema From Oscar Micheaux and Spencer Williams to Neema Barnett and the team of George Jackson and Doug McHenry this revealing reference work will enlighten scholars students and film buffs As early as 1899 African Americans were involved in the filmmaking industry Oscar Micheaux took directing writing and producing to a higher level with the release of his first film in 1918 by 1948 he had made more than forty films Currently by international world cinema standards the African American tradition rivals cinema from anywhere in the world but these filmmakers face a quandary whether to make films through the Hollywood system or follow an independent vision This book presents a cross section of filmmakers from each camp and also focuses on those who work in both arenas The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry Anthony

Slide,2014-02-25 The New Historical Dictionary of the American Film Industry is a completely revised and updated edition of Anthony Slide's The American Film Industry originally published in 1986 and recipient of the American Library Association's Outstanding Reference Book award for that year More than 200 new entries have been added and all original entries have been updated each entry is followed by a short bibliography As its predecessor the new dictionary is unique in that it is not a who's who of the industry but rather a what's what a dictionary of producing and releasing companies technical innovations industry terms studios genres color systems institutions and organizations etc More than 800 entries include everything from Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences to Zoom Lens from Astoria Studios to Zoetrope Outstanding Reference Source American Library Association New Technologies and Reference Services Linda S Katz,2019-07-15 Offer your patrons the cutting edge reference services they demand In the past a reference librarian needed to develop a command of a few reference works master the skills of the reference interview and interface with library users in person or via telephone Today's reference librarian is faced with much much more New Technologies and Reference Services suggests ways you can tame the information explosion and take advantage of new technologies This comprehensive volume recounts the ways reference librarians have adapted traditional services to deal with the changes in both information technologies and library patrons New Technologies and Reference Services offers tested techniques for fostering information literacy in patrons daunted by the high tech edge of the new library Even computer savvy younger students may need help learning specialized searching skills This practical volume suggests several innovative ways to teach those skills using interactive classrooms drop in seminars and required courses New Technologies and Reference Services discusses the other implications of new technologies including developing trends in publishing including value added services and the death of the printed encyclopedia the effects of CD ROM electronic publishing and the Internet on copyright issues videoconferencing at the reference desk collection strategies and budgets in an era of multiple formats decentralizing library reference services information apartheid the growing gap between the information haves and have nots This helpful volume gives practical tested advice and ideas on the broader issues of information technology With plentiful Web addresses New Technologies and Reference Services presents new ideas sure to make your job easier Constructing Social Reality Loretta

Brunious,2017-10-03 This book examines how black children who grow up in an impoverished environment construct their social reality and why this process is a particularly critical factor in their perception and creation of self It argues that black disadvantaged children develop a lifestyle and adopt values based on an identity grounded in racism inequality violence and poverty Constructing Social Reality Self Portraits of poor Black Adolescents makes a valuable contribution to the scholarship by investigating the phenomena of poverty from cognitive linguistic and experiential perspectives in the lives of disadvantaged black adolescents Transcendence and the Africana Literary Enterprise Christel N. Temple, 2017-11-22

Africana literary critic and cultural theory scholar Christel N Temple whose groundbreaking books Literary Pan Africanism History Contexts and Criticism 2005 and Literary Spaces Introduction to Comparative Black Literature 2007 have been some of the most influential models of contemporary Africana Studies based literary criticism responds to the demand for a core disciplinary source that comprehensively defines and models literary praxis from the vantage point of Africana Studies This highly anticipated seminal study finally institutionalizes the discipline's literary enterprise Framing the concept of transcendence she covers over a dozen traditional African American works in an original and thought provoking analysis that places canonical approaches in enlightened discourse with Africana studies reader response priorities This study makes traditional literature come alive in conversation with topics of masculinity womanism Black Lives Matter humor Pan Africanism transnationalism worldview the subject place of Africa cultural mythology hero dynamics Black psychology demographics history Black liberation theology eulogy cultural memory Afro futurism the Kemetic principle of Maat social justice rap and hip hop Diaspora and performance Scholars now have a focused Africana Studies text for both introductory and advanced literature courses to capture the power of the African American literary canon while modeling the most dynamic practical applications of humanities to social science practices Straight Lick J. Ronald Green, 2000-09-22 A critical examination of the films of Oscar Micheaux One of the most original and successful filmmakers of all time Oscar Micheaux was born into a rural working class African American family in mid America in 1884 yet he created an impressive legacy in commercial cinema Between 1913 and 1951 he wrote directed and distributed some forty three feature films more than any other black filmmaker in the world a record of production that is likely to stand for a very long time Micheaux's work was founded upon the concern for class mobility or uplift for African Americans Uplift provided the context for Micheaux's extensive commentary on racist cinema such as D W Griffith's 1915 blockbuster The Birth of a Nation which Micheaux answered with his very early films Within Our Gates and Symbol of the Unconquered Uplift explains Micheaux's use of negative images of African Americans as well as his multi pronged campaign against stereotype and caricature in American culture His campaign produced a body of films saturated with a nuanced intertextual signifying boldly and repeatedly treating controversial topics that face white censorship time after time topics ranging from white mob and Klan violence to light skin color fetish to white financing of black cultural productions Literary Adaptations in Black American Cinema Barbara Tepa Lupack, 2002 By contrast in the works of black writers from Oscar Micheaux to Toni Morrison the black experience has been more fully more accurately and usually more sympathetically realized and from the early days of film select filmmakers have looked to that literature as the basis for their productions How Black Disadvantaged Adolescents Socially Construct Reality Loretta J. Brunious, 1998 In a pilot study applying Berger and Luckmann's social construction of reality framework Brunious Loyola U Chicago elicits perceptions about school popular and ethics between facts and values and between objective and subjective are false dichotomies Values cannot simply be separated from reason Facts and Values will therefore prove essential reading for analytic and continental philosophers alike for theorists of ethics and meta ethics and for philosophers of economics and law
