Facing The Future Reviving The Past:

Facing the Future, Reviving the Past John Kleinen, 1999 A Study of Social Change in a Northern Vietnamese Village is based on anthropological fieldwork between 1992 and 1996 in a small Red River delta village It treats the history of the village since its foundation in the mid seventeenth century based on existing French and Vietnamese archival materials At the same time the book discusses the essentialist character of the Vietnamese village community Special interest is devoted to internal politics within the village which enable powerful lineages and groups to re gain political and social power within the village The recent revival of religious activities as a result of the renovation policy is taken into consideration Since Vietnamese society is changing at a very fast pace a longitudinal study of this nature provides the reader with a firsthand account of the interplay between the reform under a Marxist regime and local village society

Facing the Past, Facing the Future Florian Bieber, Carsten Wieland, 2005

Engaging the Spirit World Kirsten W. Endres, Andrea Lauser, 2012-03-01 In many parts of the contemporary world spirit beliefs and practices have taken on a pivotal role in addressing the discontinuities and uncertainties of modern life The myriad ways in which devotees engage the spirit world show the tremendous creative potential of these practices and their innate adaptability to changing times and circumstances Through in depth anthropological case studies from Indonesia Malaysia Thailand Myanmar Laos and Vietnam the contributors to this book investigate the role and impact of different social political and economic dynamics in the reconfiguration of local spirit worlds in modern Southeast Asia Their findings contribute to the re enchantment debate by revealing that the spirited modernities that have emerged in the process not only embody a distinct feature of the contemporary moment but also invite a critical rethinking of the concept of modernity itself

Beyond Hanoi Benedict J Tria Kerkvliet, David G Marr, 2004 This is the first book in English to examine local government and authority in Vietnam since the country s reunification in 1975 Six chapters emphasize particular villages and districts in different parts of the country one examines a ward in Hanoi another focuses on Ho Chi Minh City and one compares leaders in several provinces To contextualize conditions today two chapters analyse local government in Vietnam s long history The opening chapter synthesizes the findings in this book with those in other studies by researchers inside and outside Vietnam

The American War in Contemporary Vietnam Christina Schwenkel, 2009-07-13 Christina Schwenkel s absorbing study explores how the American War is remembered and commemorated in Vietnam today in official and unofficial histories and in everyday life Schwenkel analyzes visual representations found in monuments and martyrs cemeteries museums photography and art exhibits battlefield tours and related sites of trauma tourism In these transnational spaces American and Vietnamese memories of the war intersect in ways profoundly shaped by global economic liberalization and the return of American citizens as tourists pilgrims and philanthropists

Wyatt, 2004-11-30 The modern states of Indonesia Vietnam Thailand the Philippines Myanmar Malaysia Singapore Cambodia Laos Brunei and East Timor were once a tapestry of kingdoms colonies and smaller polities linked by sporadic trade and occasional war By the end of the nineteenth century however the United States and several European powers had come to control almost the entire region only to depart dramatically in the decades following World War II The Emergence of Modern Southeast Asia offers a new and up to date perspective on this complex region Although it does not neglect nation building the central theme of its popular and long lived predecessor In Search of Southeast Asia the present work focuses on economic and social history gender and ecology It describes the long term impact of global forces on the region and traces the spread and interplay of capitalism nationalism and socialism It acknowledges that modernization has produced substantial gains in such areas as life expectancy and education but has also spread dislocation and misery Organizationally the book shifts between thematic chapters that describe social economic and cultural change and country chapters emphasizing developments within specific areas Enhanced by scores of illustrations The Emergence of Modern Southeast Asia will establish a new standard for the history of this dynamic and radically transformed region of the world Contributors David Chandler Norman G Owen William R Roff David Joel Steinberg Jean Gelman Taylor Robert H Taylor Alexander Woodside David K Wyatt Possessed by the Spirits Karen Fjelstad, Nguyen Thi Hien, 2018-05-31 The essays in this volume examine the resurgence of the Mother Goddess religion among contemporary Vietnamese following the economic Renovation period in Vietnam Anthropologists explore the forces that compel individuals to become mediums and the social repercussions of their decisions and interactions Driven by Growth James William Morley, 2015-04-08 A thoroughly revised and updated edition of the highly regarded 1993 book Driven by Growth this work presents the political economic evolution of the Asia Pacific countries with overviews of the impact of economic development on political change This new edition now includes chapters on Burma and Vietnam New authors have been added and all the original chapters have been revised Responding to the West Hans Hägerdal, 2009 The international contributors to this penetrating volume apply fresh perspectives and new methodologies to the Asian colonial experience from the eighteenth century through the post World War II decolonization Historiography gender military studies finance and issues of race and class all feature in this wide ranging account of the diversity of human relationships forged by the colonial presence For all of its features of structural oppression colonialism was not a one way communicative process as this volume demonstrates through its analysis of the ever shifting roles of colonizer and colonized The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya, 2006-01-01 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast

Asian history that focuses on women's roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500-1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies New Perspectives on the History and Historiography of Southeast Asia Michael Arthur Aung-Thwin, Kenneth R. Hall, 2011-05-13 Using a unique old new treatment this book presents new perspectives on several important topics in Southeast Asian history and historiography Based on original primary research it reinterprets and revises several long held conventional views in the field covering the period from the classical age to the twentieth century Chapters share the approach to Southeast Asian history and historiography namely giving agency to Southeast Asia in all research analysis writing and interpretation The book honours John K Whitmore a senior historian in the field of Southeast Asian history today by demonstrating the scope and breadth of the scholar's influence on two generations of historians trained in the West In addition to providing new information and insights on the field of Southeast Asia this book stimulates new debate on conventional ideas evidence and approaches to its teaching research and understanding It addresses and in many cases revises specific critically important topics in Southeast Asian history on which much conventional knowledge of Southeast Asia has long been based It is of interest to scholars of Southeast Asian Studies as well as Asian History Methodological Approaches to Societies in Transformation Yasmine Berriane, Annuska Derks, Aymon Kreil, Dorothea Lüddeckens, 2021-04-21 This open access book provides methodological devices and analytical frameworks for the study of societies in transformation It explores a central paradox in the study of change making sense of change requires long term perspectives on societal transformations and on the different ways people experience social change whereas the research carried out to study change is necessarily limited to a relatively short space of time This volume offers a range of methodological responses to this challenge by paying attention to the complex entanglement of qualitative research and the metanarratives generally used to account for change Each chapter is based on a concrete case study from different parts of the world and tackles a diversity of topics analytical approaches and data collection methods The contributors innovative solutions provide valuable tools and techniques for all those interested in the study of change The Buddha Side Alexander Soucy, 2012-07-31 The most common description of the supernatural landscape in Vietnam makes a distinction between Buddhist and non Buddhist sides The Buddha side ben phat is the focus of this investigation into the intersection of gender power and religious praxis Employing an anthropological approach to Buddhist practice that takes into account modes of action that are not only socially constructed and contextual but also negotiated by the actors The Buddha Side uniquely explores how gender and age affect understandings of what it means to be a Buddhist In seeking to map out the ways and meanings of Buddhist engagement Alexander Soucy examines everything from the skeptical statements of young men and devotional performances of young women to the pilgrimages of older women and performances of orthodoxy used by older men to assert their position within the pagoda space Soucy draws on more than four years experience conducting ethnographic research in Hanoi to investigate how religious practice is grounded in the constitution and marking of social identity From this in depth view he describes the critical role of religion in shaping social contexts and inserting selves into them Religion can thus be described as a form of theatre one in which social identities youth old age masculinity femininity authority are constructed and displayed via religious practice A compelling look at the performative aspect of Buddhism in contemporary Vietnam The Buddha Side will be welcomed by anyone with an interest in Buddhism as it is practiced on the ground

Essential Trade Ann Marie Leshkovich, 2014-09-30 My husband doesn't have a head for business complained Ngoc the owner of a children's clothing stall in Ben Thanh market Naturally it's because he's a man When the women who sell in Ho Chi Minh City's iconic marketplace speak their language suggests that activity in the market is shaped by timeless essential truths Vietnamese women are naturally adept at buying and selling while men are not Vietnamese prefer to do business with family members or through social contacts stallholders are by nature superstitious marketplace trading is by definition a small scale enterprise Essential Trade looks through the facade of these timeless truths and finds active participants in a political economy of appearances traders words and actions conform to stereotypes of themselves as poor weak women in order to clinch sales manage creditors and protect themselves from accusations of being greedy corrupt or bourgeois even as they quietly slip into southern Vietnam's growing middle class But Leshkovich argues that we should not dismiss the traders self disparaging words simply because of their essentialist logic In Ben Thanh market performing certain styles of femininity kinship relations social networks spirituality and class allowed traders to portray themselves as particular kinds of people who had the capacity to act in volatile political and economic circumstances When so much seems to be changing a claim that certain things or people are inherently or naturally a particular way can be both personally meaningful and strategically advantageous Based on ethnographic fieldwork and life history interviewing conducted over nearly two decades Essential Trade explores how women cloth and clothing traders like Ngoc have plied their wares through four decades of political and economic transformation civil war postwar economic restructuring socialist cooperativization and the frenetic competition of market socialism With close attention to daily activities and life narratives this groundbreaking work of critical feminist economic anthropology combines theoretical insight vivid ethnography and moving personal stories to illuminate how the interaction between gender and class has shaped people's lives and created market socialist political economy It provides a compelling account of postwar southern Vietnam as seen through the eyes of the dynamic women who have navigated forty years of profound change while building their businesses in the stalls of Ben Thanh market

Soldered states: nation-building in Germany and Vietnam Claire Sutherland, 2018-04-30 The book examines the power of nationalism to solder nation states back together rather than break them apart In this innovative cross continental comparison of nation building in Germany and Vietnam the focus is on their shared experience of division communism and regional integration offering original insights into how governments go about maintaining nation state legitimacy in the twenty first century Neither German nor Vietnamese governments have succeeded in effacing national division for a host of historical economic psychological sociological and even climatic reasons Yet their efforts tell us a great deal about how national identity is negotiated today The study offers a fresh perspective on nationalist ideology which will be of interest to specialists and students in comparative politics European and Southeast Asian studies as well as nationalism studies For the general reader it provides a fascinating introduction to contemporary nation building in a unique combination of cases across two continents

Urbanization in Vietnam Gisele Bousquet, 2015-09-16 Most studies on urbanisation focus on the move of rural people to cities and the impact this has both on the cities to which the people have moved and on the rural communities they have left This book on the other hand considers the impact on rural communities of the physical expansion of cities Based on extensive original research over a long period in one settlement a rural commune which over the course of the last two decades has become engulfed by Hanoi's urban spread the book explores what happens when village people become urbanites or city dwellers when agriculture is abandoned population density rises the value of land increases people have to make a living in the city and the dynamics of family life including gender relations are profoundly altered This book charts these developments over time and sets urbanisation in Vietnam in the wider context of urbanisation in Southeast Asia and Asia more generally

Vanishing Rice Fields Angelica Laura Lucia Wehrli, 2021 The book delineates how the quest for wealth and belief manifests itself in contemporary Vietnam Based on multi local and longitudinal ethnographic research the author examines how wealth is pursued by household members and entrepreneurs The quest for belief is brought into relief through inquiry into how norms and values have been re evaluated altered subverted or restored Focusing on the taboo topic of female feticide The study elucidates why some parents ultimately decide to commit feticide and why others especially entrepreneurs refrain from it The case of the entrepreneurs shows a possible way out of the vicious circle that leads to female feticide and perpetuates gender inequality

Vietnam Văn Huy Nguyễn, 2003-05-02 A vivid accessible portrait of contemporary Vietnam through texts and complementary photographs that dispute the stereotypic images we have of this dynamic and diverse country

Ritual, Heritage and Identity Christiane Brosius, Karin M. Polit, 2020-11-29 This book explores the importance of ritual and ritual theory to discourses of authenticity and originality thereby deepening our insight into concepts of cultural heritage identity and nation in a globalised world The volume is the first interdisciplinary attempt to understand the significance of rituals and related performative traditions in the creation of grounded cultural identities home and heritage as geographically experienceable locations It assembles perspectives from social and cultural anthropology performance studies education and arts that can deal with the politics of revitalisation and preservation of ritualised traditions While some chapters in this book emphasise on the ritualisation of cultural heritage by concentrating on power relations and politics as well as actual processes of identification especially for marginalised ethnic groups or migrant communities others explore how rituals as intangible heritage are strategically employed by different groups all over the world to make their claims public and to improve and negotiate their position on a local national or global platform This book recognises ritualised performances as transnational and cross cultural phenomena which are not only tied to and defined via national territories and identities but which also demand new theoretical and methodological approaches towards the discussion of rituals and heritage

Competing for Land, Mangroves and Marine Resources in Coastal Vietnam Hue Le, 2021-08-30 This book presents a historical and ethnographic study of changing mangrove management in northern Vietnam over the past 100 years grounded in a case study in the Red River Delta in northern Vietnam The book shows that three primary socio economic dynamics have affected mangroves enclosure movements that have restricted access by different user communities over time such as the exclusion of women changing valuation of mangroves and their products and services and social and class differentiation caused by privatization of once common resources The result of these pressures have been erosions of norms rules and collective action to protect and nurture mangroves leading to widespread loss of coastal forests Sustainable mangrove management will require attention to these dynamics to address current day land conflicts The book will be of interest to policy makers practitioners and academics and students in forest policy management and governance rural livelihoods and globalization and agrarian change
