

Creating University Internships at Your Camp

Internships at camp can provide meaningful life and job preparation experiences. They can teach skills like work, communication, work ethic, flexibility and more. These are the skills that universities look for in students at internship sites.

Camps offer a wide range of internship opportunities: education, program management, marketing, media, public and recreation, marketing, business operations.

UNIVERSITIES HAVE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

Typically, they require:

- Detailed list of the camps can include staff training, set up, and
- Some supervisory experience, breadth of experience
- Access to the Internet to do homework
- A final project that benefits the camp and meets academic expectations
- Credit opportunities with at least two years of experience
- Formal affiliation agreement between camp and university

Staff Retention

At the start of this summer, an average of 40%* of your staff at camp may already be thinking it's unlikely they're coming back to camp next summer!

How do we change that mindset?

WHAT WE CAN DO TO MOTIVATE STAFF TO RETURN?

COMMUNICATION

Communicate and reward staff about the why of working at camp – staff create meaningful experiences through their work

SET EXPECTATIONS

Set clear expectations in the handbook and be consistent in staff training and throughout the summer

CREATE TRANSFERABLE TITLES

Provide job titles that easily translate to the non-camp world (e.g., department manager, director of activities)

PROMOTE PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Offer clear opportunities to develop skills that are immediately relevant to their non-camp lives and career paths (e.g., time management, public speaking, social media, financial management).

What Staff Members Need from You

Needs of Camp Staff: What I Want/Need

I want to feel that I will receive your message and be more likely to respond

I want to feel that my message is being heard and that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued.

I want to feel that my message is being heard and that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued.

I want to feel that my message is being heard and that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued.

I want to feel that my message is being heard and that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued. I want to feel that my experience is being valued.
