The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement s inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies Theology Between the East and West: A Radical Legacy Frank D. as a goal for ecumenical dialogue How can churches ecumenical organizations ministers and theologians effectively approach this goal in the twenty first century Sustaining the Hope for Unity offers a methodological reflection on these questions using insights of contemporary critical theory With particular attention to the work of Jürgen Habermas the book develops a framework for exchanging religious narratives in a postmodern context marked by pluralism and ambiguity Using this framework to address questions that have emerged out of the life of the World Council of Churches Sustaining the Hope for Unity argues that unity must be imagined eschatologically in order to achieve inclusive and non coercive dialogue between diverse Christian communities Looking ahead to ecumenism in the twenty first century it makes a case for the role of the WCC as a public space for the exchange of religious narratives

Theologically Reading Metropolitan of Pergamon John Zizioulas Nikolaos Asproulis, 2025-06-26 The book delves into the contributions of one of the most significant contemporary thinkers within Eastern Orthodoxy By highlighting his Greek and Ecumenical heritage along with his historical and social context the work critically examines the interpretative keys that shape his theological vision It fosters a constructive dialogue between Eastern Orthodoxy and the challenges and inquiries presented by post modernity At its core the book revolves around three fundamental points 1 eschatology as the primary hermeneutical tool for engaging with Zizioulas s work 2 a contextual analysis of his doctrinal orthodoxy set against his historical socio political cultural and intellectual backdrop and 3 the necessity of addressing post modernity as a challenge that emerges in dialogue with his contributions Through the lens of a theology of personhood eschatology relational ontology and Eucharistic experience the book offers a thought provoking account of post modernity that invites re examination of religious and theological perspectives By elucidating Zizioulas s foundational theological premises the work presents a novel theological approach to post modern challenges such as the climate crisis pluralism and gender issues drawing on the insights of one of Eastern Orthodoxy s most esteemed intellectuals in the contemporary landscape

Pentecostals and Roman Catholics on Becoming a Christian Karen Murphy, 2018-05-23 In Pentecostals and Roman Catholics on Becoming a Christian Dr Karen Murphy explores the fifth round of the International Roman Catholic Pentecostal Dialogue 1998 2006 Discussing Spirit baptism faith conversion experience and discipleship Dr Murphy notes areas in which the Dialogue has evolved since its inception in 1972 She unpacks the commonalities that bond Catholics and Pentecostals and examines theological divergences and challenges to dialogue While Catholics approach becoming a Christian from a sacramental perspective most Pentecostals think of Christian initiation in non sacramental or conversionist terms a reality that fosters ongoing tensions between the two traditions Dr Murphy reveals how Catholics and Pentecostals seek to overcome this dichotomy by honoring spirituality and experience as integral to the ecumenical encounter Korean American YWCA and the Church Hwain Chang Lee, 2000-08-02 In an attempt to bring the YWCA and the Christian church into a fuller dialogue Hwain Chang Lee has written a book which traces their respective historical evolutions and changing understanding of their missions She concludes that the YWCA while ministering to Christian women in a unique manner should recognize and affirm their dependence upon the church Similarly she proposes that the church as a safe guard of sacred memories should recognize its dependence upon non orthodox mission groups The author intertwines her own life story with the history of these groups as a woman deeply affected by both communities Faith and Order 1985-1989 World Council of Churches.
