Repentance Ed Marr,2004-08 This work is written with a law enforcement officer s investigative mindset and from the perspective of a prisoner I discovered through a survey of Christian bookstores that no books were exclusively on or about repentance but most only touched on the topic The only author who had anything to say about repentance beyond a mere mention was Charles G Finney in Finney s Systematic Theology This 600 page work transformed my thinking and influenced my investigation This book discusses spiritual leadership without bashing any spiritual leader It points out carnality without castigating any particular ministry or denomination Hundreds of illustrations will familiarize the reader with revelations about repentance and carnality These illustrations like parables contain revolutionary truths that are true to Scripture reason and life so that Repentance The Doctrine of God may become one harmonious revelation Warning As you read this book you will encounter deep seated carnality residing within the blackened depths of your soul and it will not want to be exposed But take heart Almighty God will accompany you on this journey for the complete regeneration of your soul Speak to It!

Ellis R J Ellis,1877 Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson,2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes
