vigor and renewed enthusiasm for transmitting the living faith from one generation to the next Conscience First, Tradition Second Patrick H. McNamara, 1992-02-06 For this study of American religion the author surveyed over 2000 Catholic high school seniors during a fourteen year period exploring changes in religiosity and attitudes toward the recent teachings of the Church Fifty four of these people were resurveyed eight and nine years after graduation probing whether and in what direction their viewpoints had shifted Questions Teenagers Ask Caroline Goforth, 1987-06 Young Adult Catholics Dean R. Hoge, 2001 Leaders of the American Catholic community want to and need to reach out to young adults But effective ministry to young adults depends on an understanding of the attitudes and the needs of the current generation of Catholics in their 20s and 30s This is why Dean Hoge William Dinges Mary Johnson and Juan Gonzales began their study of young adult Catholics How do they actually live their Catholicism Are they alienated from the church Are they cynical about the church s moral teachings Do they take the pope s statements seriously Do they attend Mass Have significant numbers left for other churches Do they want Catholic education for their children Seeking answers to these and other questions the authors conducted a national survey in 1997 supplemented by a telephone survey and then by personal interviews with over 800 men and women across the country The interviews put a human face on the information provided and they form a compelling part of this timely narrative Of special interest is the focus on Latino Catholics The authors underscore observations that include the strength and tenacity of Catholic identity in spite of many challenges the high level of personal decision making among those interviewed and surveyed and the readiness of young Catholics for institutional reforms BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 1988 Belief without Borders Linda A. Mercadante, 2014-02-05 Named A Best Spiritual Book of the Year by Spirituality Practice The last twenty years have seen a dramatic increase in nones people who do not claim any religious affiliation These nones now outnumber even the largest Protestant denominations in America They are not to be confused with secularists however for many of them identify themselves as spiritual but not religious SBNR The response to this dramatic change in American religion has been amazingly mixed While social scientists have been busy counting and categorizing them the public has swung between derision and adulation Some complain nones are simply shallow dilettantes narcissistically concerned with their own inner world Others hail them as spiritual giants and ground breaking pioneers Rarely however have these nones been asked to explain their own views beliefs and experiences In Belief without Borders the theologian and one time SBNR Linda Mercadante finally gives these individuals a chance to speak for themselves This volume is the result of extensive observation and nearly 100 in depth interviews with SBNRs across the United States Mercadante presents SBNRs stories shows how they analyze their spiritual journeys and explains why they reject the claims of organized religion Surprisingly however Mercadante finds these SBNRs within as well as outside the church She reveals the unexpected emerging latent theology within this group including the interviewees creative concepts of divine transcendence life after death human nature and community The conclusions she draws are startling despite the fact that SBNRs routinely discount the creeds and doctrines of organized religion many have devised a structured set of beliefs often purposefully in opposition to doctrines associated with Christianity Belief without Borders is a captivating exploration of a growing belief system certain to transform the spiritual character of America
