Faith And Science 1926:

Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought Teresa Obolevitch, 2019 Faith and Science in Russian Religious Thought provides a comprehensive analysis of the relationship between science and faith in Russian religious thought Teresa Obolevitch offers a synthetic approach on the development of the problem throughout the whole history of Russian thought starting from the medieval period and arriving in contemporary times She considers the relationship between science and religion in the eighteenth century the so called academic philosophy of the 19th and 20th century the thought of Peter Chaadaev the Slavophiles and in the most influential literature figures such as Fedor Dostoevsky and Lev Tolstoy The volume also analyses two channels of the formation of philosophy in the context of the relationship between theology and science in Russia The first is connected with the attempt to rationalize the truths of faith and is exemplified by Vladimir Soloviev and Nikolai Lossky the second with the apophatic tradition is presented by Pavel Florensky and Semen Frank The book then describes the relation to scientific knowledge in the thought of Lev Shestov Nikolai Berdyaev Sergius Bulgakov and Alexei Losev as well as the original project of Russian Cosmism on the examples of Nikolai Fedorov Konstantin Tsiolkovsky and Vladimir Vernadsky Obolevitch presents the current state of the discussion on this topic by paying attention to the Neoplatonic synthesis of Georges Florovsky and his followers and offers the brief comparative analysis of the relationship between science and religion from the Western and Russian perspectives Bulletin (1901-195) Brooklyn Public Library, 1927 The Warfare between Science & Religion Jeff Hardin, Ronald L Numbers, Ronald A. Binzley, 2018-10-15 A very welcome volume of essays questioning the presumption of irreconcilable conflict between science and religion British Journal for the History of Science The conflict thesis the idea that an inevitable irreconcilable conflict exists between science and religion has long been part of the popular imagination The Warfare between Science and Religion assembles a group of distinguished historians who explore the origin of the thesis its reception the responses it drew from various faith traditions and its continued prominence in public discourse Several essays examine the personal circumstances and theological idiosyncrasies of important intellectuals including John William Draper and Andrew Dickson White who through their polemical writings championed the conflict thesis relentlessly Others consider what the thesis meant to different religious communities including evangelicals liberal Protestants Roman Catholics Eastern Orthodox Christians Jews and Muslims Finally essays both historical and sociological explore the place of the conflict thesis in popular culture and intellectual discourse today Based on original research and written in an accessible style the essays in The Warfare between Science and Religion take an interdisciplinary approach to question the historical relationship between science and religion and bring much needed perspective to an often bitter controversy Contributors include Thomas H Aechtner Ronald A Binzley John Hedley Brooke Elaine Howard Ecklund Noah Efron John H Evans Maurice A Finocchiaro Frederick Gregory Bradley J Gundlach Monte Harrell Hampton Jeff Hardin Peter Harrison Bernard Lightman David N Livingstone David Mislin Efthymios

The Future of Religion Rodney Stark, William Sims Bainbridge, 1985 Religion is alive and well in the modern world and the social scientific study of religion is undergoing a renaissance For much of this century respected social theorists predicted the death of religion as inevitable consequence of science education and modern economics But they were wrong Stark and Bainbridge set out to explain the survival of religion Using information derived from numerous surveys censuses historical case studies and ethnographic field expeditions they chart the full sweep of contemporary religion from the traditional denominations to the most fervent cults This wealth of information is located within a coherent theoretical framework that examines religion as a social response to human needs both the general needs shared by all and the desires specific to those who are denied the economic rewards or prestige enjoyed by the privileged By explaining the forms taken by religions today Stark and Bainbridge allow us to understand its persistence in a secular age and its prospects for the future

The Beginnings of Religion E.O. James, 2020-10-07 In this book first published in 1948 an attempt has been made to provide an intelligible introduction to a somewhat complex aspect of scientific inquiry And secondly to construct a background of primitive ritual and belief against which the more developed religions can be placed This book is a valuable early attempt at explaining the beginnings of religion from a modern scientific viewpoint Shailer Mathews's Lives of Jesus

William D. Lindsey, 1997-11-20 This book focuses on a significant but neglected leader of the social gospel movement University of Chicago theologian Shailer Mathews 1863 1941 In two widely read lives of Jesus The Social Teaching of Jesus 1897 and Jesus on Social Institutions 1928 Mathews laid a foundation for social gospel theology that dealt carefully and creatively with the charge that the social gospel enculturates Christian faith Lindsey's book engages in a close reading of the two Mathews books and concludes that Mathews's foundation for social gospel theology prefigures political and liberation theologies in important respects and thus deserves reappraisal Religion & Science Charles Singer, 1928 The Bodleian Quarterly Record, 1929 Bulletin of the American Library Association American Library Association, 1927

American Religion: Literary Sources and Documents David Turley, 2020-12-17 This set offers a wide range of primary source material spanning several centuries of religious experience in the United States The material is grouped thematically and chronologically with a critical apparatus which includes a substantial introductory essay giving an overview of the subject a chronology and bibliographies Subject-index to the author-catalogue. 1908-10. 2 v National Library (India), 1929 ALA Bulletin American Library Association, 1927 The Spiritual-Industrial Complex Jonathan P. Herzog, 2011-08-05 In his farewell address Dwight D Eisenhower warned the nation of the perils of the military industrial complex But as Jonathan Herzog shows in this insightful history Eisenhower had spent his presidency contributing to another lesser known Cold War collaboration the spiritual industrial complex This fascinating volume shows that American leaders in the early Cold War years considered the conflict to be profoundly religious they saw Communism not only as godless but also as a sinister form of religion Fighting faith with faith they deliberately used religious beliefs and institutions as part of the plan to defeat the Soviet enemy Herzog offers an illuminating account of the resultant spiritual industrial complex chronicling the rhetoric the programs and the policies that became its hallmarks He shows that well known actions like the addition of the words under God to the Pledge of Allegiance were a small part of a much larger and relatively unexplored program that promoted religion nationwide Herzog shows how these efforts played out in areas of American life both predictable and unexpected from pulpits and presidential appeals to national faith drives military training barracks public school classrooms and Hollywood epics Millions of Americans were bombarded with the message that the religious could not be Communists just a short step from the all too common conclusion that the irreligious could not be true Americans Though the spiritual industrial complex declined in the 1960s its statutes monuments and sentiments live on as bulwarks against secularism and as reminders that the nation rests upon the groundwork of religious faith They continue to serve as valuable allies for those defending the place of religion in American life Protestant Modernist Pamphlets Edward B. Davis,2024-10-08 This work is a hybrid of a scholarly edition and an academic monograph that focuses on the relation between science and religion in early twentieth century America Books and Notes Los Angeles County Public Library,1926 Books and Notes of the Los Angeles County Free Library Los Angeles County Public Library,1929 Quarterly Bulletin Berkshire Athenaeum and Museum,1923 Preachers, Pedagogues, and Politicians Willard B.
