Hijack Faith and How to See Beyond Them is for people noticing the cracks in the foundation of their faith as well as those who feel they have been hurt or discarded by a God or a faith that just does not make sense Faith lies are those seemingly required religious ideas or spiritual beliefs that are often confusing and rarely helpful LIE 1 The Bible is the Literal Word of God The Bible is not the written record of God's dictation God was most certainly the inspiration for the Bible but not the medium People were the medium they did the storytelling the writing the selecting and the interpretation that resulted in the Bible The Bible is not God's Bill of Rights and Constitution Rather it is a divinely inspired story of progression that should open things up rather than constrict and regulate LIE 2 God is Angry and Doesn't Like Me Especially When I Sin Instead of perceiving God as a loving parent many of us understand God as a cosmic scorekeeper intent on our purification Understanding God as a loving parent not only requires a reframing of our perception of God but also invites us to see each other and ourselves as beloved children LIE 3 The Devil is God's Counterpart This is the bad idea that the Bible presents a continuous consistent narrative about the devil It simply does not Moreover when we string together what we actually have disparate statements about satan made by different people from different places languages cultures and times we arrive at the strange notion that there is a good god who is responsible for the good things in our lives and a bad god satan who handles the bad stuff LIE 4 I Am Supposed to Protect and Defend God and My Faith There are real tensions and conflicts around the globe today that are built on the notion that as people of faith one of our jobs is to defend our faith or our God Rather than settling for a god who needs our protection we can follow the powerfully divine thread of moving beyond the tribe that is found throughout the Bible LIE 5 There is One Right Way to Believe and One Right Way to Behave One of the root lies of fundamentalism in all faiths is the notion that true faith is defined by believing the right things and acting the right way Isn't it more likely that we are all part of a diverse creation that flows from a God that cannot be contained by any one belief or behavior LIE 6 Faith is a Private Matter Much like whom we voted for in the last election or how much money we make people have wrongfully accepted the idea that faith is a private matter and not to be shared with others The spiritual life has always been a communal life We require others to undertake our journey and others need us too LIE 7 Real Faith is Blind Belief The idea that true faith has no doubts or questions creates a powerless and impotent faith that discourages critical thinking and fosters the ridiculous assumption that science and faith are unrelated Real faith actually requires doubt criticism and exploration in order to change us let alone change the world While the loud voices at the margins adamantly declare faith either completely irrelevant or capable of being contained in one narrow ideology most people get lost in the mix feeling no certainty or comfort in either direction Faith Lies deconstructs the terrible notion that faithlessness and fundamentalism are our only options Writing That Makes Sense, 2nd Edition David S. Hogsette, 2019-11-05 The second edition of Writing That Makes Sense takes students through the fundamentals of the writing process and explores the basic steps of critical thinking Drawing upon over twenty years of experience teaching college

My Faith So Far Patton Dodd, 2007-06-15 In this frank funny and often challenging memoir about life in and out of the church twenty something Patton Dodd reveals his quest for an authentic experience of God On his journey he attempts to pinpoint and justify his belief in God first with the fervent absolutes that characterize a new believer s faith but then with a growing awareness of the cultural complexities that define his faith and encompass his understanding of Christianity When a spiritual awakening in his last year of high school wrenches Dodd out of his rebellious party days he embarks on a quest for God He exchanges pot smoking for worship dancing gives up MTV for Christian pop and enrolls at a Christian university Soon however he finds himself ill at ease with the other Christians around him and with the cloying superficiality of the Christian subculture Dodd tells his story in contradictory terms conversion and confusion acceptance and rejection spiritual highs and psychological lows With painstaking honesty he tries to negotiate a relationship with his faith apart from the cultural trappings that often clothe it Dodd s moving story paints a nuanced and multilayered portrait of an earnest quest for God the hunger for genuine faith the bleak encounters with doubt and the consuming questions that challenge the intellect and the soul This is a story that will resonate with the emerging generation of young adults attempting to break new ground within their own faith tradition

Evangelical Christians and Popular Culture Robert H. Woods Jr., 2013-01-09 This three volume collection demonstrates the depth and breadth of evangelical Christians' consumption critique and creation of popular culture and how evangelical Christians are both influenced by and influence mainstream popular culture covering comic books to movies to social media Evangelical Christians and Popular Culture Pop Goes the Gospel addresses the full spectrum of evangelical media and popular culture offerings even delving into lesser known forms of evangelical popular culture such as comic books video games and theme parks The chapters in this 3 volume work are written by over 50 authors who specialize in fields as diverse as history theology music psychology journalism film and television studies advertising and public relations Volume 1 examines film radio and television and the Internet Volume 2 covers literature music popular art and merchandise and Volume 3 discusses public figures popular press places and events The work is intended for a scholarly audience but presents material in a student friendly accessible manner Evangelical insiders will receive a fresh look at the wide variety of evangelical popular culture offerings many of which will be unknown while non evangelical readers will benefit from a comprehensive introduction to the subject matter Faith or Frustration Paul Murray, 2019-05-30 We begin the second part of this four part series on the Gospel of John called Meet Messiah In Part 1 Behold the Man we saw the introduction of the Messiah to both the human family and the nation of Israel In Part 2 Faith or Frustration we will join His disciples as they walk in the footsteps of the Master from chapter 5 through chapter 12 Here opposition to Jesus and His ministry begins in earnest Up through chapter 4 of John's gospel the leadership of Israel was curious about whom this new rabbi really was The ministry of John the Baptist had captured the attention of the nation with his proclamation that the kingdom of God was at hand and that folks needed to repent of their sins in preparation of the coming Messiah At first the Jews just dismissed Jesus as another new rabbi on the block But His popularity had grown rapidly outstripping even that of the Baptizer The signs that

He was doing had caught the attention of the masses as well as the Jews When He cleansed the temple and chased out all the vendors which was a primary source of income for the priests He became a regular topic of conversation in the Great Sanhedrin We will begin to see that the curiosity of the Jews turned to frustration their frustrations turned to anger and their anger turned to hatred until finally a plot was devised to have Him killed That was the only way they would ever stop Him and save their positions of power and control over the people Strap in for the ride It s going to get really really bumpy Who ever said being a Christian and being bold in your faith would ever be easy The truth is it could get you killed and history has demonstrated that many have died for their faith Let s follow along with the One they have all been willing to die for

Faith in Science Gabriel R. Ricci,2018-01-18 There is growing academic interest in addressing the relationship of religion and science There are also very generous funding sources that encourage scientists to demonstrate the reality of purpose in the world Still there are organizations offering support to community groups dedicated to discussing religion and science Contributors explore this development in Faith in Science The intellectual initiatives analyzed here seem far removed from the deep religious and cultural divisions that dominate the contemporary geopolitical landscape This emerging industry however originates in a cultural debate that set the evolutionary view of Nature against revelation s conception of Nature as the fulfillment of God s creation The two worldviews are hopelessly mismatched although scientific creationism purports to have uncovered scriptural evidence that invites another look Along the way the imposition of theological themes onto the geological record became a tendency for many naturalists Peter Medawar s scathing review of Teilhard de Chardin s The Phenomenon of Man in 1961 remains as a warning for those who mix Darwinian orthodoxy and theological parlance The challenge Medawar would have us believe is not to abandon the exacting methods and logic of science in favor of a poetic dream of how consciousness is a manifestation of energy But does this mean that science and religion are only methodologically demarcated Must we insist on the traditional boundaries instituted by scientific conventions and religious beliefs From various historical religious and scientific vantage points contributors to this volume who include Guy Consolmagno Donald Kraybill David Ray Griffin Gerald L Schroeder Robert Pollack Robert Pennock Carol Wayne Wright Bill Durbin Kathleen Duffy and Anthony Matteo take up these challenges

The Author of Love Joc Anderson, 2011-07-08

Throughout history God has been depicted variously as a judgmental tyrant a grand conciliator and even as a rather low key comic portrayed by the cigar smoking George Burns in the movie Oh God The question that's begging to be answered is Who is God This devotional evolved out of one person's desire to portray God in a truer light In the Book of Job God reprimanded Job's friends for failing to speak truthfully about Him They misrepresented His character Job on the other hand understood His Maker and was therefore the single voice of truth in an otherwise corrupt world Can you honestly say that you know your Creator Can you speak truthfully about Him This devotional will help you get to know the real God who is neither the judgmental tyrant nor the light weight movie character He is if nothing else a God of love and compassion At the conclusion of your devotionals I have formulated a Love Quotient L Q test to measure the depth of your love The questions are designed to be thought provoking and insightful You may also find them a bit daunting and uncomfortable Answer each question according to your beliefs There are no wrong or right answers It is my hope youll find this little exercise revealing and instructive of how you love The answers and Key is also included Your heart is what youre all about May you understand Gods love for you
