Brian Harding,1990-12-31 For the millions who had fought in the Great War and for their families the land fit for heroes turned out to be an illusion instead there was suffering and deprivation Out of this on 1 July 1921 was born the British Legion In the years that followed the Legion fought for justice for the ex service community meanwhile seeking to protect them It introduced the Poppy Appeal and insisted on an annual act of national Remembrance for the fallen It went to extraordinary lengths to try to prevent another war ultimately finding itself in controversial discussions with Hitler Even after the Second World War the Legion s work was far from over the war disabled and the war widows seemed to have been forgotten in the new welfare state Remembrance itself appeared to be under threat as the memory of war receded There were more battles to be fought while conflicts such as the Gulf War brought fresh problems Perhaps most inspiring is the human aspect Those who have done the Legion s work represent every class of society from admirals and former private soldiers to poppy collectors But they have one thing in common compassion for all who have suffered in the service of the country This is their story too

Offerings of the Heart Shawn Israel Zevit,2005-09-06 Nadiv Lev Offerings of the Heart This phrase sets the tone for the Jewish spiritual perspective that money is a tool for actualizing God s presence in the world Building on this core value and setting aside the financial spiritual split with which many congregational leaders operate Rabbi Shawn Zevit brings the depth and breadth of Jewish teachings on money and the spiritual life to all faith communities This book provides texts and tools to help clergy staff and lay leaders of congregations of any faith approach financial and other resources as core means to build and maintain whole and holy lives in a communal setting Zevit demonstrates how faith communities can create values based approaches to developing and managing financial and human resources that are rooted in the very sacred traditions principles and impulses that bring us together Rabbi Shawn Zevit has gathered much of the wisdom of the Jewish community learned through four millennia of life with God He shows us the rich thought and experience Hebrew scriptures and traditions contribute for all who seek to be faithful in the use of money in their communities A deep understanding of generosity and giving is brought to bear on the practicalities of budgets planning and reaching out in deeds of justice and mercy Loren B Mead founding president The Alban Institute Faith, Hope, and Rainbows P.
