American Boarding School Fiction, 1928-1981 Alexander H. Pitofsky, 2014-07-18 When boarding school fiction became popular in the 19th century it tended to be warm and nostalgic filled with sporting events practical jokes and schemes to get even with campus bullies All of that changed in the era discussed in this book Holden Caulfield the narrator of J D Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye drops out of one prep school and is expelled from two others The conflicts between students in John Knowles's Devon School novels become so heated that two young men die And in the controversial novel Good Times Bad Times James Kirkwood portrays the headmaster of a private academy as closeted deeply neurotic and infatuated with an 18 year old who has recently enrolled at his school In spite of their unsettling images of anguish and cruelty these and other American boarding school novels have attracted large audiences and influenced countless school narratives in fiction drama television and film Many books have been written about British school stories This is the first study that explores the history of boarding school fiction in the United States Sal Mineo Michael Gregg homosexuality and struggling to reinvent himself from an aging teen idol Mineo turned toward increasingly self destructive behavior Yet his creative impulses never foundered He began directing and producing controversial off Broadway plays that explored social and sexual taboos He also found personal happiness in a relationship with male actor Courtney Burr Tragically on the cusp of turning a new page in his life Mineo s life was cut short in a botched robbery Revealing a charming mischievous creative and often scandalous side of Mineo few have known before now Sal Mineo is an intimate moving biography of a distinctive Hollywood star

Pitofsky,2022-10-17 American Boarding School Fiction 1981 2021 Inclusion and Scandal is a study of contemporary American boarding school narratives Before the 1980s writers of American boarding school fiction tended to concentrate on mournful teenagers When teachers parents and other adults appeared they were usually placed far from the center of the action The center was filled with white male Protestant students at boarding schools In this book Alexander H Pitofsky discusses a new generation of writers including

Richard A Hawley Anita Shreve Curtis Sittenfeld and Tobias Wolff that has transformed school fiction by highlighting issues relating to gender race scandal sexuality education and social class in unprecedented ways By turning their attention away from the bruised feelings of teenagers Pitofsky argues these authors have reinvented American boarding school fiction writing vividly about a host of subjects the genre overlooked in the past     The Publishers Weekly ,1886
