Second City Sinners Jon Seidel, 2019-09-20 Countless criminals have made their mark on Chicago and the surrounding communities Chicago Sun Times journalist Jon Seidel takes readers back in time to the days when H H Holmes lurked in his Murder Castle and guys named Al Capone and John Dillinger ruled the underworld Drawing upon years of reporting and with special access to the Chicago Daily News and Chicago Sun Times archives Jon Seidel explains how men like Nathan Leopold

Richard Loeb and Richard Speck tried to get away with history's most disturbing crimes American Literature in Transition, 1920-1930 Ichiro Takayoshi, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1920 1930 examines the dynamic interactions between social and literary fields during the so called Jazz Age. It situates the era's place in the incremental evolution of American literature throughout the twentieth century. Essays from preeminent critics and historians analyze many overlapping aspects of American letters in the 1920s and re-evaluate an astonishingly diverse group of authors. Expansive in scope and daring in its mixture of eclectic methods, this book extends the most exciting advances made in the last several decades in the fields of modernist studies, ethnic literatures, African American literature, gender studies, transnational studies, and the history of the book. It examines how the world of literature intersected with other arts such as cinema, jazz, and theater and explores the print culture in transition with a focus on new publishing houses, trends in advertising, readership, and obscenity laws Frank Lloyd Wright's Monona Terrace David V. Mollenhoff, Mary Jane Hamilton, 1999 Mollenhoff and Hamilton provide the definitive history of the building's design, the tempestuous relationship of Wright to his hometown of Madison, and the support for and opposition to the project. Drawing from the Frank Lloyd Wright Archives, thousands of newspaper accounts, extensive government records, and dozens of interviews, the book also features more than 300 illustrations in color and black and white, including many published here for the first time.

Business Periodicals Index, 2003 The Extinct Scene Thomas S. Davis, 2015-12-08 In 1935 the English writer Stephen Spender wrote that the historical pressures of his era should turn the reader's and writer's attention outwards from himself to the world. Combining historical, formalist, and archival approaches, Thomas S. Davis examines late modernism's decisive turn toward everyday life, locating in the heightened scrutiny of details, textures, and experiences an intimate attempt to conceptualize geopolitical disorder. The Extinct Scene reads a range of mid-century texts, films, and phenomena that reflect the decline of the British Empire and seismic shifts in the global political order. Davis follows the rise of documentary film culture and the British Documentary Film Movement, especially the work of John Grierson, Humphrey Jennings, and Basil Wright. He then considers the influence of late modernist periodical culture on social attitudes and customs and presents original analyses of novels by Virginia Woolf, Christopher Isherwood, and Colin MacInnes; the interwar travel narratives of W. H. Auden, Christopher Isherwood, and George Orwell; the wartime gothic fiction of Elizabeth Bowen; the poetry of H. D.; the sketches of Henry Moore; and the postimperial Anglophone Caribbean works of Vic Reid, Sam Selvon, and George Lamming. By considering this group of writers and artists, Davis recasts late modernism as an art of scale, by detailing the particulars of everyday life, these figures could better project large-scale geopolitical events and crises Notable American Women Susan Ware, 2004 This latest volume brings the project up to date with entries on almost 500 women whose death dates fall between 1976 and 1999. You will find here stars of the golden ages of radio, film, dance, and television; scientists and scholars; civil rights activists and religious leaders; Native American craftspeople and world-renowned artists. For each subject, the volume offers a biographical essay by a distinguished authority that integrates the woman's personal life with her professional achievements set in the context of larger historical developments Tucumcari Tonite! David H. Stratton, 2022-04-01 Tucumcari New Mexico was founded in 1901 by the Rock Island Railroad and soon had major railroad lines converging there from Chicago Los Angeles and Memphis as well as a northern branch line from the Dawson coalfields The federal highway system established Route 66 the Main Street of America through the middle of town in 1926 Tucumcari flourished as a tourist mecca welcoming travelers with its blazing displays of neon lights But mergers reorganizations and financial problems of the railroads as well as the creation of the interstate highway system that bypassed small places brought a sharp decline to the once prosperous town Tucumcari Tonite blends in depth research and personal and family experiences to re create a memoir of Tucumcari Drawing on newspapers and government documents as well as business records personal interviews and archival holdings Stratton weaves a poignant tale of a western town's rise and decline providing a prime example of the destructive forces that have been inflicted on small towns in the West and all across America
