Early Encounters with Children and Adolescents Steven Tuber,2015-02-11 Early Encounters with Children and Adolescents is the first training guide to use the works of beginning therapists as its focus Far too often therapists in training are given the classics to read case histories by the masters in the field which can sometimes leave beginning therapists intimidated or even in despair as to whether they can ever reach that level of proficiency This book is the first to remediate that situation by providing beginners with role models they can more easily internalize through realistic case histories that reveal the ins and outs of starting in a craft that is never fully mastered Not only are the cases themselves fascinating but the therapists also refer to the processes they struggled with while treating these patients Readers will thus have a striking new counterweight to the classics they will still want to read as they progress in the field Eight beginning clinicians discuss aspects of their clinical process including issues of transference and countertransference the role of supervision doing parent consultations especially when one is not yet a parent cultural racial socioeconomic differences between patient and therapist and the vulnerability of not understanding for long moments in treatment Psychodynamic beginners in every discipline will find these case histories compelling heartfelt and inspiring

The Perp Walk Jim Ray Daniels,2019-05-01 In The Perp Walk his latest collection of linked stories Daniels maps out the emotional capitals and potholes of coming of age in a blue collar town in the Great Lakes State though it could be any state where people work hard play hard and aren't paid nearly enough for their efforts Alternating flash fiction pieces with longer narratives Daniels captures both the shooting stars and the constellations that build into earned insights and honest reflections Sometimes we need both the long version of the short version and the short version of the long version he suggests Daniels invites his readers to settle on some truth in between the versions Humor and heartbreak Coming to terms coming of age or just plain aging U Haul trucks full of bad behavior and messy goodbyes In Daniels's work the check is always in the mail but somehow never arrives and honor is more than a certificate it's something we strive for even while doing our various perp walks through life Compromises are made as they must be Sometimes we get what we want for just a second or two but for these characters that has to be enough happiness to live on
