Watermelons Ron Fellowes,Lynne Fellowes,2018-09-01 In 2012 while others his age were enjoying quiet retirement Ron Fellowes set off on the challenge of a lifetime His dream to ride a 102 year old FN motorcycle across the world to the Belgian factory where the bike originated had all the hallmarks of an epic adventure one that was never going to be easy For eight months Ron rode 14 600 kilometres through 15 countries under grueling conditions into some of the world's most hostile territory. He faced desert sandstorms, mountains too steep for the motorcycle's capability, the threat of rockslides and bombings when he took a detour and pressure from armed police through conflict zones. He was robbed and when held at gunpoint Ron came face to face with his own mortality. The motorcycle's limited capacity, no gears, inadequate brakes and pedal assisted made it a daily struggle. Breakdowns were common and only Ron's ingenuity and single-mindedness, Lynne's logistical support and the generosity of others kept him going. Beautifully illustrated in full colour throughout. No Room for Watermelons is co-written by Ron and Lynne. It is an engaging and entertaining account of one man's stoic determination to fulfill his dream. You will be carried along for the ride and inspired to achieve your own dreams no matter how impossible they seem. SATA Autobiography Series Joyce Nakamura, 1992-11-26. Patriotic History and the (Re)Nationalization of Memory Kornelia Kończal, A. Dirk Moses, 2023-06-27. This book charts and traces state-mandated or state-encouraged patriotic histories that have recently emerged in many places around the globe. Such patriotic histories can revolve around both affirmative interpretations of the past and celebration of national achievements. They can also entail explicitly denialist stances against acknowledging responsibility for past atrocities, even to the extent of celebrating perpetrators. Whereas in some cases patriotic history takes the shape of a coherent doctrine, in others they remain limited to loosely connected narratives. By combining nationalist and narcissist narratives and by disregarding or distorting historical evidence, patriotic history promotes mythified, monumental and moralistic interpretations of the past that posit partisan and authoritarian essentialisms and exceptionalisms. Whereas the global debates in interdisciplinary memory studies revolve around concepts like cosmopolitan, global, multidirectional, relational, transcultural and transnational memory, to mention but a few, the actual socio-political uses of history remain strikingly nation-centred and one-dimensional. This volume collects fifteen case studies of such nationalizations of history, ranging from China to the Baltic states. They highlight three features of this phenomenon: the ruthlessness of methods applied by many state authorities to impose certain interpretations of the past; the increasing discrepancy between professional and political approaches to collective memory; and the new post-truth context. This book will be of interest to students and researchers of international politics, the radical right and global history. It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research. Brave New Hungary János Matyas Kovács, Balázs Trencsenyi, 2019-12-10. Brave New Hungary focuses on the rise of a brave new anti-liberal regime led by Viktor Orbán, who made a decisive contribution to the transformation of a poorly managed liberal democracy to a well-organized authoritarian rule bordering on autocracy during the past decade. Emerging capitalism in post-1989 Hungary, that once took pride in winning the Eastern European race for catching up with the West, has evolved into a reclusive statist national populist system, reminding the observers of its communist and pre-communist predecessors. Going beyond the self-description of the Orb n regime that emphasizes its Christian conservative and illiberal nature the authors leading experts of Hungarian politics history society and economy suggest new ways to comprehend the sharp decline of the rule of law in an EU member state Their case studies cover crucial fields of the new authoritarian power ranging from its historical roots and constitutional properties to media and social policies The volume presents the Hungarian System of National Cooperation as a pervasive but in many respects improvised and vulnerable experiment in social engineering rather than a set of mature and irreversible institutions The originality of this dystopian new world does not stem from the transition to authoritarian control per se but its plurality of meanings It can be seen as a simulacrum that shows different images to different viewers and perpetuates itself by its post truth variability Rather than pathologizing the current Hungarian regime as a result of a unique master plan designed by a cynical political entrepreneur the authors show the transnational dynamic of backsliding a warning for other countries that suffer from comparable deadlocks of liberal democracy

National History and New Nationalism in the Twenty-First Century Niels F. May, Thomas Maissen, 2021-06-17 National history has once again become a battlefield In internal political conflicts which are fought on the terrain of popular culture museums schoolbooks and memorial politics it has taken on a newly important and contested role Irrespective of national specifics the narratives of new nationalism are quite similar everywhere National history is said to stretch back many centuries expressing the historical continuity of a homogeneous people and its timeless character This people struggles for independence guided by towering leaders and inspired by the sacrifice of martyrs Unlike earlier forms of nationalism the main enemies are no longer neighbouring states but international and supranational institutions To use national history as an integrative tool new nationalists claim that the media and school history curricula should not contest or question the nation and its great historical deeds as doubts threaten to weaken and dishonour the nation This book offers a broad international overview of the rhetoric contents and contexts of the rise of these renewed national historical narratives and of how professional historians have reacted to these phenomena The contributions focus on a wide range of representative nations from around all over the globe
