Gay Religion Scott Thumma, Edward R. Gray, 2004-12-10 Conflicts over homosexuality and gay rights threaten to break apart denominations if not North American society These heated theological and political debates have as well obscured the fact that many gays and lesbians are religiously active individuals Gay Religion is the first book to give a straightforward presentation of the spiritual lives practices and expressions of gays lesbians bisexuals and transgender Drawing from a wide range of religious traditions new and established scholars explore the range of gay religious expression in denominations sects and even outside recognized religious institutions The essays ask what these religious innovations mean to the continually evolving religious environment of North America With its helpful section introductions and an appendix providing profiles of organizations involved Gay Religion is a unique and compelling resource for anyone interested in homosexuality and American religion

End Time Politics Keri L. Ladner, 2024 End Time Politics shows how popular beliefs about God's impending judgment on the world rooted in millenarian ideologies Cold War grandstanding racial antipathy and nuclear build up shaped an economic movement that led to white evangelicals unflinching support of Donald Trump

Religion in the Public Square James M. Patterson, 2019-04-11 Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public In Religion in the Public Square James M Patterson considers religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell differed profoundly on issues of theology and politics but they shared an approach to public ministry that aimed directly at changing how Americans understood the nature and purpose of their country From the 1930s through the 1950s Sheen was an early adopter of paperbacks radio and television to condemn totalitarian ideologies and to defend American Catholicism against Protestant accusations of divided loyalty During the 1950s and 1960s King staged demonstrations and boycotts that drew the mass media to him The attention provided him the platform to preach Christian love as a political foundation in direct opposition to white supremacy Falwell started his own church which he developed into a mass media empire He then leveraged it during the late 1970s through the 1980s to influence the Republican Party by exhorting his audience to not only ally with religious conservatives around issues of abortion and the traditional family but also to vote accordingly Sheen King and Falwell were so successful in popularizing their theological ideas that they won prestigious awards had access to presidents and witnessed the results of their labors However Patterson argues that Falwell's efforts broke with the longstanding refusal of religious public figures to participate directly in partisan affairs and thereby catalyzed the process of politicizing religion that undermined the Judeo Christian consensus that formed the foundation of American politics
