Studies in the Gospel of Luke Robert Elliott Speer, 1892

Luke's Presentation of Jesus Robert F. O'Toole, 2004 This study uses composition criticism to consider everything that Luke wrote about Jesus Jesus was a human being and a prophet yet Luke wished to say much more He has a very extensive and developed portrayal of Jesus as a saviour His roles as Servant of Yahweh and Son of Man play a real part in explaining a number of Jesus experiences and actions including his passion Jesus identification as the Christ can be associated with the being Son of God but each of these identifications has its own nuances Luke 1:35 proves crucial for a correct understanding of Son of God and guides the reader's comprehension of Jesus identity The OT background of Lord leads to a correct interpretation of this title when applied to Jesus and Luke willingly predicates similar things of God and of Jesus Robert F O Toole S J was born and raised in St Louis and entered the Jesuits in 1954 He holds an M A in Greek and Latin and he is licentiated in both philosophy and theology He did his doctorate in Sacred Scripture at the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome his director was the then Fr Carlo Maria Martini S J later Cardinal Archbishop of Milan Fr O Toole taught at St Louis University for 17 years and in 1991 moved to the Biblical Faculty at the Pontifical Biblical Institute where he was also Superior of the community and then Rector of the Institute In September of 2003 he was named the President of the Gregorian University Foundation Fr O Toole has published extensively Most of his publications are studies on Luke Acts and he has also done numerous book reviews This his fourth book addressed a topic that for years has captured his intellectual interest The Gospel of Luke Luke Timothy Johnson,2006 A Michael Glazier book Includes bibliographical references and indexes The Gospel According to Luke, Part One Michael F Patella,2018-08-27 The Gospel of Luke demonstrates the universal nature of Jesus mission and the compassion of God Part One of this study includes Luke 1 1 11 54 taking the reader from the infancy narratives of John the Baptist and Jesus to their births and then to the Galilean ministry of Jesus Commentary study and reflection questions prayers and access to online lectures are included 6 lessons The Gospel According to Luke Joseph A. Fitzmyer,1985 Introduction and notes by Keith Cushman The Gospel of Luke William Barclay,2001 With a historian s precision Luke s Gospel shows painstaking care both in detail and in expression Of equal distinction is the universal appeal of the Gospel Barclay s insightful comments help each of us to see the infinitude of God s love through Luke s eyes For almost fifty years and for millions of readers the Daily Study Bible commentaries have been the ideal help for both devotional and serious Bible study Now with the release of the New Daily Study Bible a new generation will appreciate the wisdom of William Barclay With clarification of less familiar illustrations and inclusion of more contemporary language the New Daily Study Bible will continue to help individuals and groups discover what the message of the New Testament really means for their lives Book cover The Gospel of Luke Joel B. Green,1997-10-02 This highly original commentary part of the New International Commentary is unique for the way it combines concerns with first century culture in the Roman world with understanding the text of Luke as a wholistic historical narrative The Gospel of Luke E. Earle Ellis,2003-03-28 Commentary on the Gospel of Luke Norval Geldenhuys,1952 This commentary clearly sets forth the message of Luke beautifully captures Luke s love for the person of Christ and solidly establishes the ultimate significance of Luke for contemporary Christians He contributes uniquely to the understanding of Luke through his careful synthesis of scholarship and spiritual insight One of the most valuable features of this exegesis of Luke is the way in which the author traces as Luke himself does the progressive self revelation of Jesus divine glory up to its full manifestation on the mount of transfiguration and then follows the successive stages of Jesus ministry on his way to the cross The Gospel of Luke I. Howard Marshall,1978-11-14 The Gospel of Luke was written says its author as an historical account of the ministry of Jesus Not only would it serve as the basis for a sound faith on the part of professing Christians but it would also claim a place for Christianity in history Christ s ministry as Luke shows is realized prophecy it is that time during which God s promise of salvation was fulfilled His teachings healing and acts of compassion are all part of the good news In Luke s Gospel Christ s message of salvation is directed to the weak poor and needy with an emphasis on the importance of self denial and of whole hearted discipleship Thus while Luke is the most conscious historian of the Gospel writers his history is a vehicle of theological interpretation in which the significance of Jesus is expressed In this commentary I Howard Marshall calls attention to the theological message of Luke the Evangelist His primary purpose is to exegete the text as it was written by Luke so that the distinctiveness of Luke's Gospel may be seen Basing his commentary on the third edition of The Greek New Testament Dr Marshall also refers to many variant readings which are significant in this study He provides fairly full information on the meanings of the Greek words used by Luke and shows which words and constructions occur frequently and are therefore characteristic of his style It is by this meticulous analysis of the Greek that Luke's theological intentions can be objectively determined

Studies in the Gospels, V3 George Campbell Morgan, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1931 edition The Gospel According to Luke I-IX Joseph A. Fitzmyer, 1970-01-01 Luke's unique literary and linguistic features its relation to the other gospels and the book of Acts as well as its distinctive theological slant are all discussed in detail by the author of this translation

Jesus' Exposition of the Old Testament in Luke's Gospel Charles Kimball, 1994-03-01 This work presents an inductive exegetical analysis of Jesus' exegetical methods and expositions in Luke's Gospel in light of first century Jewish exegetical methods via an examination of the eight Lukan pericopes in which Jesus expounds explicit Old Testament quotations This study offers the following conclusions In Luke's Gospel Jesus expounded Scripture as the basis for understanding his person and ministry teaching his followers and inquirers and debating his religious opponents He employed many of the exegetical methods of ancient Judaism Yet he frequently offered interpretations of Scripture that were radically different from other Jewish teachers because of his superior understanding of Scripture and his application of Scripture to himself In turn he influenced the early church's biblical expositions in considerable measure Jesus expounded Scripture for Christological and doctrinal lessons In his Christological expositions he made an eschatological application of certain biblical texts to himself claiming to be the fulfillment of Old Testament messianic prophecies In his doctrinal expositions he corrected traditional Jewish interpretation claiming a superior exegesis of Scripture The Christological expositions employed pesher fulfillment motifs and several midrashic techniques to show that the
