"Hello" Lied the Agent Ian Gurvitz, 2006-10-01 As prevalent as TV is in our lives most of us have no concept of what goes into creating a show getting it on the air and keeping it on Perhaps we assume that the people in charge simply decide what amuses them at the moment make those shows stick them on and wait to see if the public responds Or maybe they just throw darts at a board The truth as with most things is more complicated In Hello Lied the Agent Ian Gurvitz has produced a corrosively funny insider's look at what being a television writer is really all about In his personal journal he details two years in the life of a Hollywood television writer the dizzying ups and downs the rewrites the pitch meetings the table readings the studios and networks and execs in a riveting expose of the business It occurred to me that keeping a journal while I was going through the development process might illuminate a side of the business few people get to see and give them a behind the scenes God I hate that overused ET phrase look at the day to day experience of being a writer in Hollywood OK that's partly bullshit I'm not that altruistic The truth is after twenty years in the trenches I found myself bitching about many aspects of the business and needed an outlet which left either writing a book doing standup seeing my shrink more often or suffering in silence but since I don't have the balls to try stand up there's no reason to waste a shrink visit bitching about the business when I've got more seriously fucked up issues to deal with and there's no money in suffering in silence that left book Here it is Think you've got a great idea for a TV show Read this book your view of your favorite television show will never be the same the third volume of Citron's distinguished series The Great Songwriters the eminent musicologist has taken on the glorious dual biography of two giants of the modern musical. Includes an exploration of such milestones as Sondheim's lyrics for West Side Story and Gypsy and Lloyd Webber's contributions from Jesus Christ Superstar to Whistle Down the Wind     Stephen Sondheim and Andrew Lloyd Webber Stephen Citron, 2001-09-13 The New York Times called Stephen Sondheim the greatest and perhaps best known artist in the American musical theater while two months earlier the same paper referred to his contemporary Andrew Lloyd Webber as the most commercially successful composer in history. Whatever their individual achievements might be it is agreed by most critics that these two colossi have dominated world musical theater for the last quarter century and hold the key to the direction the musical stage will take in the future. Here in the third volume of Stephen Citron's distinguished series The Great Songwriters in depth studies that illuminated the musical contributions, careers and lives of Noel Coward and Cole Porter, Noel Cole, The Sophisticates and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd and Alan Jay Lerner, The Wordsmiths, this eminent musicologist has taken on our two leading contemporary contributors to the lyric stage. His aim has not been to compare or judge one's merits over the other but to make the reader discover through their works and those of their contemporaries the changes and path of that glorious artform we call Musical Theater. In his quest Citron offers unique insight into each artist's working methods, analyzing their scores including their early works and works in progress. As in Citron's previously critically acclaimed books in this series, great significance is given to the impact their youthful training and private lives have had upon their amazing creative output. Beginning with Sondheim's lyrics only works West Side Story, Gypsy, Do I Hear A Waltz through his scores for Saturday Night Company, Anyone Can Whistle, Follies, Pacific Overtures, A Little Night Music, Sweeney Todd, Merrily We Roll Along, Sunday In the Park, Into the Woods, Assassins and Passion, all these milestones of musical theater have been explored. Lloyd Webber's musical contribution from his early works The Likes of Us and Joseph to Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita, Cats, Starlight Express, Aspects of Love, By Jeeves, The Phantom of the Opera, Song + Dance, Mass, Sunset Boulevard to Whistle Down the Wind are also thoroughly analyzed. The works of these two splendid artists are clarified for the casual or professional reader in context with their contemporaries. Complete with a quadruple chronology, Sondheim, Lloyd Webber, US Theater, British Theater, copious quotations from their works and many never before published illustrations, the future of the artform that is the crowning achievement of the 20th century is made eminently clear in this book. Sondheim, Lloyd Webber is a must read for anyone interested in the contemporary theater.
