Iban Ritual Textiles Traude Gavin, 2022-07-04      The Women's Warpath Traude Gavin, 1996      The Flaming Womb Barbara Watson Andaya, 2006-01-01 The Princess of the Flaming Womb the Javanese legend that introduces this pioneering study symbolizes the many ambiguities attached to femaleness in Southeast Asian societies Yet despite these ambiguities the relatively egalitarian nature of male female relations in Southeast Asia is central to arguments claiming a coherent identity for the region This challenging work by senior scholar Barbara Watson Andaya considers such contradictions while offering a thought provoking view of Southeast Asian history that focuses on women's roles and perceptions Andaya explores the broad themes of the early modern era 1500 1800 the introduction of new religions major economic shifts changing patterns of state control the impact of elite lifestyles and behaviors drawing on an extraordinary range of sources and citing numerous examples from Thai Vietnamese Burmese Philippine and Malay societies      Asian Material Culture Marianne Hulsbosch, Elizabeth Bedford, Martha Chaiklin, 2009 This richly illustrated volume offers the reader unique insight into the materiality of Asian cultures and the ways in which objects and practices can simultaneously embody and exhibit aesthetic and functional characteristics as well as everyday and spiritual aspirations Though each chapter is representative rather than exhaustive in its portrayal of Asian material culture together they clearly demonstrate that objects are entities that resonate with discourses of human relationships personal and group identity formations ethics values trade and above all distinctive futures      Indonesian Textiles Mattiebelle Gittinger, Nina W. Gwatkin, Patricia L. Fiske, 1980 The meetings at which these papers were presented was held at the Textile Museum Washington D C March 24 26 1979      A Sight for the Gods Cornelia Vogelsanger, 1979      Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Making Heritage in Malaysia Sharmani Patricia Gabriel, 2020-02-26 This book offers a scholarly perspective on heritage as a discourse concept and lived experience in Malaysia It argues that heritage is not a received narrative but a construct in the making Starting with alternative ways of museumising heritage the book then addresses a broad range of issues involving multicultural and folklore heritage the small town nostalgia and the environment and transnationalism and cosmopolitanism In so doing it delivers an intervention in received ways of talking about and doing heritage in academic as well as state and public discourse in Malaysia which are largely dominated by perspectives that do not sufficiently engage with the cultural complexities and sociopolitical implications of heritage The book also critically explores the politics and dynamics of heritage production in Malaysia to contest Malaysian heritage as a stable narrative exploring both its cogency and contingency and builds on a deep engagement with a non western society in the service of provincialising critical heritage studies with the broader goal of contributing to Malaysian studies
