Idea Sparkers Barbara J. Simmons, Idea Sparkers Barbara J. Simmons, June Hogue, 1985 Selecting Educational Equipment and Materials for School and Home Joan Moyer, 1986 Based on the view that the classroom teacher is the best judge of materials and equipment to meet the needs of particular learning situations this publication focuses on the selection of equipment and materials for children in group settings Part I consists of four substantive articles concerning 1 materials selection from the points of view of elementary school principal and classroom teacher 2 the importance of careful planning in equipping a center or school 3 the importance of providing teachers with workshops facilities in which they can prepare instructional materials and 4 the relative merits of purchasing ready made and making one's own equipment and criteria for deciding the issue Also included in Part I are lists of criteria for selecting single items of equipment and materials as well as packaged instructional materials Part II suggests educational equipment appropriate for an infant group a nursery school group a kindergarten group early elementary school groups and later elementary or middle school groups It is anticipated that parents will also find the information useful since much of the equipment and materials particularly for the younger age groups can be adapted for use in the home and many of the items can be made or scrounged RH Elementary Social Studies S.G. Grant, Bruce A. VanSledright, 2014-03-14 Organized around four commonplaces of education learners and learning subject matter teachers and teaching and classroom environment Elementary Social Studies provides a rich and ambitious framework to help social studies teachers achieve powerful teaching and learning results By blending the theoretical and the practical the authors deeply probe the basic elements of quality instruction planning implementation and assessment always with the goal of creating and supporting students who are motivated engaged and thoughtful Book features and updates to the third edition include New chapter on classroom assessment that outlines and compares existing assessment strategies contextualizes them within the framework of state standards and articulates a constructivist approach that moves away from traditional high stakes testing towards more meaningful ways of evaluating student learning New chapter that highlights and explains key elements of the Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts and shows how the incorporation of critical ELA instruction into the social studies curriculum can foster more ambitious teaching and learning Real classroom narratives that introduce each chapter and provide in depth access to teaching and learning contexts Practical curriculum and resource suggestions for the social studies classroom End of chapter summaries and annotated teaching resources Resources in Education, 1998 Vertical File Service Catalog, 1985 Current Issues Resource Builder, 1989 280 topics such as acid rain AIDS crime elderly the homeless latchkey children literacy nuclear energy sexism and teenage parenting All materials listed are under 16 Indexed by format subject source grade level Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Arithmetic Teacher, 1985 Chronicle Career Index, 1985 Vertical File Index, 1985 100 Ideas for Primary Teachers: Supporting EAL Learners Chris Pim, 2018-04-19 No
