Constructing Girlhood through the Periodical Press, 1850-1915 Kristine Moruzi,2016-05-23 Focusing on six popular British girls periodicals Kristine Moruzi explores the debate about the shifting nature of Victorian girlhood between 1850 and 1915 During an era of significant political social and economic change girls periodicals demonstrate the difficulties of fashioning a coherent consistent model of girlhood The mixed genre format of these magazines Moruzi suggests allowed inconsistencies and tensions between competing feminine ideals to exist within the same publication Adopting a case study approach Moruzi shows that the Monthly Packet the Girl of the Period Miscellany the Girl s Own Paper Atalanta the Young Woman and the Girl s Realm each attempted to define and refine a unique type of girl particularly the religious girl the Girl of the Period the healthy girl the educated girl the marrying girl and the modern girl These periodicals reflected the challenges of embracing the changing conditions of girls lives while also attempting to maintain traditional feminine ideals of purity and morality By analyzing the competing discourses within girls
