Interruptions Suny Series Intersections Philosophy And Critical Theory:

Interruptions Hans-Jost Frey, 1996-07-03 This untraditional text is a series of parables allegories and prose poems that reflect on the problem of the fragment Studying the fragment lays the theoretical ground for the basic question of where a text begins and ends SUNY Series, Intersections , The Last Fortress of Metaphysics Francesco

Vitale, 2018-02-01 Examines the relationship of Derrida's writings on architecture to his methodology of deconstruction and to deconstructivism in architecture Between 1984 and 1994 Jacques Derrida wrote and spoke a great deal about architecture both in his academic work and in connection with a number of particular building projects around the world He engaged significantly with the work of architects such as Bernard Tschumi Peter Eisenman and Daniel Libeskind Derrida conceived of architecture as an example of the kind of multidimensional writing that he had theorized in Of Grammatology identifying a rich common ground between architecture and philosophy in relation to ideas about political community and the concept of dwelling In this book Francesco Vitale analyzes Derrida's writings and demonstrates how Derrida's work on this topic provides a richer understanding of his approach to deconstruction highlighting the connections and differences between philosophical deconstruction and architectural deconstructivism Although there has been some discussion of the intersection of deconstruction and architecture in the past mostly among architects and architectural critics Vitale's work is distinguished by the fact that it is written by a true philosopher who has a much more acute sense than has usually been the case of the philosophical underpinnings of Derrida's exchanges with Tschumi Eisenman and others Vitale is throughout concise precise insightful and often brilliant Geoffrey Bennington author of Interrupting Derrida Bakhtin Between East and West

Karine Zbinden, 2006 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory Bakhtin between East and West Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory Fleeing the Universal Carl Rapp, 1998-04-23 Rapp mounts a devastating critique against the notion that literary and cultural theory since the 1960s has succeeded in effecting or at least reporting both the demise of philosophy and the emergence of a genuinely post philosophical culture National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1988 Architecture Constructed Mark

Jarzombek, 2023-04-06 Architecture Constructed explores the central open secret of architecture the long suppressed conflict between architect and tecton between those who design and those who build This unresolved tension has a centuries old history in the discipline persisting through Classical and Renaissance times to the present day and yet it has rarely been addressed through a historical and theoretical lens In this book acclaimed architectural theorist Mark Jarzombek examines this tension head on and uses it to rethink the nature of the history of architecture He reveals architecture to be a troubled interconnected realm incomplete and unstable where labor craft and occupation are the invisible complements to the work of the architect Erudite entertaining and full of surprising and thought provoking juxtapositions and challenges Architecture Constructed is packed with novel insights into the internal conflicts and paradoxes of architecture and is rich with examples from modern and contemporary practice including Mies Koolhaas Potrc Hadid Bawa Diller Scofidio which demonstrate how contemporary architecture inhabits the very same tensions that have riven the discipline since the days of Alberti This provocative book will stimulate conversations among students researchers and designers as it pushes the boundaries on how we define the professional discipline of architecture and overturns entrenched assumptions about the nature of architectural history and theory

The Experience of the Foreign Antoine Berman, 1992-08-17 This book is the first authoritative analysis of the theory of translation in German Romanticism In a systematic study of Herder Goethe Schlegel Novalis Humboldt Schleiermacher and Hlderlin Berman demonstrates the importance of the theory of translation for an understanding of German romantic culture arguing that never before has the concept of translation been meditated in such detail and such depth Indeed fundamental questions that arise again today such as the question concerning the proper versus the literal of the Other to a given culture the essence of the work of art and of language all these issues and many more are shown to have been premeditated in a most important manner by these German Romantics

Reading Daniel as a Text in Theological Hermeneutics Aaron B Hebbard, 2011-08-25 Employing such disciplines as historical criticism literary criticism narrative theology and hermeneutics Reading Daniel as a Text in Theological Hermeneutics seeks to maintain an interdisciplinary approach to the Book of Daniel Through this approach the author sets out to understand and interpret the Book of Daniel as a narrative exercise in theological hermeneutics Two inherently linked perspectives are utilised in this particular reading of the text First is the perception that the character of Daniel is the paradigm of the good theological hermeneut theology and hermeneutics are inseparable and converge in the character of Daniel Second is the standpoint that the Book of Daniel on the whole should be read as a hermeneutics textbook Readers are led through a series of theories and exercises meant to be instilled into their theological intellectual and practical lives Attention to the reader of the text is a constant theme throughout this thesis The author s concern is primarily with contemporary readers and their communities and so greater emphasis is placed on what the Book of Daniel means for contemporary readers than on what it meant in its historical setting However sensible consideration is given to the historical readerly community with which contemporary readers find continuity In the end readers are left with difficult challenges a sobering awareness of the volatility of the business of hermeneutics and serious implications for readers to implement both theologically and hermeneutically

Interruptions Hans-Jost Frey,1996-07-03 Interruptions is a highly original book which refuses characterization as either literature or theory Hans Jost Frey explores the problem of the fragment both from a more traditional critical perspective discussing the peculiar status of the fragmentary text in literary studies and in a performative or exemplary way through fictional texts and short meditations In its forays beyond the narrower realm of literary criticism Frey addresses in turn such crucial issues as the law personal history death and the constraints of understanding revealing in each case the fundamental role the fragment plays in them

Against Nature Steven Vogel,1996-07-03 Against Nature examines the history of the concept of nature in the tradition of Critical Theory with chapters on Lukacs Horkheimer and Adorno Marcuse and Habermas It argues that the tradition has been marked by significant difficulties with respect to that concept that these problems are relevant to contemporary environmental philosophy as well and that a solution to them requires taking seriously and literally the idea of nature as socially constructed
