Intersections Readings In Sociology Pb 2001:

Race and the Lifecourse D. Mitra, J. Weil, 2016-04-30 Adopting a multidisciplinary approach this book examines the intersection of race and ethnic relations and the life course The essays in the volume thus reflect varieties of qualitative and quantitative methods in order to look at how these variables shape social organization and the experiences of those who live within the boundaries of society The essays include works that use semi structured interviews ethnographies and auto ethnographies to inform the analysis of race ethnicity and the life course Psychology as the Science of Human Being Jaan Valsiner, Giuseppina Marsico, Nandita Chaudhary, Tatsuya Sato, Virginia Dazzani, 2015-09-09 This book brings together a group of scholars from around the world who view psychology as the science of human ways of being Being refers to the process of existing through construction of the human world here rather than to an ontological state This collection includes work that has the goal to establish the newly developed area of cultural psychology as the science of specifically human ways of existence It comes as a next step after the behaviorist turn that has dominated psychology over most of the 20th century and like its successor in the form of cognitivism kept psychology away from addressing issues of specifically human ways of relating with their worlds Such linking takes place through intentional human actions through the creation of complex tools for living entertainment and work Human beings construct tools to make other tools Human beings invent religious systems notions of economic rationality and legal systems they enter into aesthetic enjoyment of various aspects of life in art music and literature they have the capability of inventing national identities that can be summoned to legitimate one's killing of one's neighbors or being killed oneself The contributions to this volume focus on the central goal of demonstrating that psychology as a science needs to start from the phenomena of higher psychological functions and then look at how their lower counterparts are re organized from above That kind of investigation is inevitably interdisciplinary it links psychology with anthropology philosophy sociology history and developmental biology Various contributions to this volume are based on the work of Lev Vygotsky George Herbert Mead Henri Bergson and on traditions of Ganzheitspsychologie and Gestalt psychology Psychology as the Science of Human Being is a valuable resource to psychologists sociologists philosophers biologists and anthropologists alike Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Books in Print Supplement ,2002

Classed Intersections Yvette Taylor, 2016-05-23 Classed Intersections examines the salience transformation and tension of class analysis at a crucial juncture in its return to and reinvention of sociological agendas The contributors including both established and emerging academics examine class as produced through combined social cultural and economic practices but are clear not to reify class over and above other paradigms instead a number of key intersections are foregrounded including gender ethnicity and sexuality The collection draws on a variety of methodological positions including in depth interviews ethnographies and auto biographical approaches It scrutinizes classed intersections across a wide range of social spheres and practices including education the workplace everyday life citizenship struggles consumption the family and sexuality Taken together this volume will enhance efforts to establish new working class studies both in the UK and around the world The Intersections Collection ,2008 Loose Leaf for Identities and Inequalities: Exploring the Intersections of Race, Class, Gender, & Sexuality David M. Newman,2021-03-01 Identities and Inequalities emphasizes the merging of four key social identifiers race and ethnicity class gender and sexuality from the perspective of individuals embedded in particular cultural institutional and historical contexts Taking an integrated approach to how the four key social identifiers work together or in opposition to form peoples social identities and experiences with inequality This fourth edition has been updated to include the most current statistics as well as updated examples and intersections features

Introducing Intersectionality Mary Romero,2017-12-26 How can we hope to understand social inequality without considering race class and gender in tandem How do they interact with other categories such as sexuality citizenship and ableism How does an inclusive analysis of domination and privilege move us closer to solutions touching the lives of diverse populations In this clearly written book Mary Romero presents intersectionality as a core facet of the sociological imagination One dimensional approaches are no longer acceptable Instead we must examine all systems of oppression simultaneously and how they integrate and work with or against each other to shape life experiences Recognizing the dynamics of patriarchy capitalism and white supremacy Romero shows how social inequality is maintained or minimized in various social settings and everyday sites of interaction Drawing the theoretical threads together the book demonstrates intersectional approaches in action in relation to the care crisis and wealth divide to highlight the different understandings of these issues and their solutions arising from a comprehensive intersectional examination Offering an overview of scholarly and activist tradition in the development of intersectionality and how to apply intersectionality as a lens to enrich our understandings of social life this introductory text will be an invaluable and welcome resource for all students of sociology
