The Intertextuality of Fate John Hannay, 1986 The Plays of Margaret Drabble José Francisco Fernández, 2019-01-11

Award winning British novelist Margaret Drabble is renowned for her fiction stories that gave voice to the new woman of the 1960s and continue to illuminate the conflicting roles of women in the twenty first century Drabble's long affiliation with the theatrical world also inspired her to experiment with the dramatic form She wrote two plays one for television Laura 1964 and one for the stage Bird of Paradise 1969 Fernández's penetrating new critical edition makes both plays available for the first time giving Drabble fans a new vantage point from which to understand her work In Laura and Bird of Paradise Drabble mines the familiar territory of social class domestic life and questions of destiny which have been the hallmark of her writing As in her novels both plays reveal a deep curiosity about the world and a piercing commentary on the social issues of her time The volume's introduction and accompanying critical essays give valuable insight into the plays historical and social context and explore the artistic solutions that an accomplished author of fiction found when writing for the stage Offering a fascinating complement to Drabble's prodigious oeuvre this volume also provides a glimpse into a specific period in English letters one that shaped an influential generation of writers

Lionel Blitzstein 1893-1952 Blitzstein the first Chicago psychoanalyst and one of America's most gifted clinicians and teachers anticipated modern concepts of narcissism in identifying narcissistic neuroses with special treatment requirements Morris Sklansky furthers our understanding of Blitzstein in his discussion of Kavka's essay Ranging across the analytic canvas with presentations as edifying as they are provocative volume 19 of The Annual of Psychoanalysis challenges readers to wrestle with issues at the cutting edge of the discipline It takes a well deserved place in the preeminent continuing series in the field
