Reading Contemporary Performance Gabrielle Cody,Meiling Cheng,2015-09-25 As the nature of contemporary performance continues to expand into new forms genres and media it requires an increasingly diverse vocabulary Reading Contemporary Performance provides students critics and creators with a rich understanding of the key terms and ideas that are central to any discussion of this evolving theatricality Specially commissioned entries from a wealth of contributors map out the many and varied ways of discussing performance in all of its forms from theatrical and site specific performances to live and New Media art The book is divided into two sections Concepts Key terms and ideas arranged according to the five characteristic elements of performance art time space action performer audience Methodologies and Turning Points The seminal theories and ways of reading performance such as postmodernism epic theatre feminisms happenings and animal studies Case Studies entries in both sections are accompanied by short studies of specific performances and events demonstrating creative examples of the ideas and issues in question Three different introductory essays provide multiple entry points into the discussion of contemporary performance and cross references for each entry also allow the plotting of one s own pathway Reading Contemporary Performance is an invaluable guide providing not just a solid set of familiarities but an exploration and contextualisation of this broad and vital field Where is Queer? John Fraser,Joe E

Heimlich,2016-06-16 This is Volume 3 Number 1 Spring 2008 edition of Museums and Special Issues reflective discourse journal The complexity and the power associated with language is evident in the many disciplines books courses and talk shows that focus on the disparate ways we use and interpret words This edition looks at What is Queer and attempts to reframe the conversation giving a chance to renegotiate how we talk about gender sexuality and identity as separate and vital concepts Scarred Landscapes Stephanie Lewthwaite,2025-09-30 Scarred Landscapes is a groundbreaking exploration of the rich and complex works of Caribbean Latinx artists Scholar Stephanie Lewthwaite documents the work of ten influential artists of Cuban Dominican and Puerto Rican descent based in New York City from the 1970s to the present Through their diverse practices including painting printmaking photography sculpture installation video and performance art these artists confront the legacies of colonial trauma and their own experiences of diasporic unbelonging and artworld

marginality The book combines formal analysis with artist testimony exhibition histories and theoretical frameworks from trauma memory and archipelagic studies to offer a multifaceted examination of Caribbean Latinx art Lewthwaite explores how these artists practice archipelagic memory a generative decolonial and coalitional form of memory work that envisions alternative modes of belonging in difference and solidarity with others By connecting different people pasts and places Caribbean Latinx artists expose the reverberations of trauma while imagining other worlds beyond it This work puts Caribbean Latinx artists at the center of debates about the exclusions of dominant memory narratives and contemporary art worlds highlighting their contributions to a wider decolonial project of remembrance By revealing the interconnectedness of traumatic histories and the potential for art to foster empathy and justice Lewthwaite s work underscores the importance of relational and decolonial thought for imagining a better society Arts in Place Cara Courage,2017-02-03 This interdisciplinary book explores the role of art in placemaking in urban environments analysing how artists and communities use arts to improve their quality of life It explores the concept of social practice placemaking where artists and community members are seen as equal experts in the process Drawing on examples of local level projects from the USA and Europe the book explores the impact of these projects on the people involved on their relationship to the place around them and on city policy and planning practice Case studies include Art Tunnel Smithfield Dublin an outdoor art gallery and community space in an impoverished area of the city The Drawing Shed London a contemporary arts practice operating in housing estates and parks in Walthamstow and Big Car Indianapolis an arts organisation operating across the whole of this Midwest city This book offers a timely contribution bridging the gap between cultural studies and placemaking It will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners working in geography urban studies architecture planning sociology cultural studies and the arts

Women's Cinema Alison Butler,2019-07-25 Women s Cinema provides an introduction to critical debates around women s filmmaking and relates those debates to a variety of cinematic practices Taking her cue from the groundbreaking theories of Claire Johnston Alison Butler argues that women s cinema is a minor cinema that exists inside other cinemas inflecting and contesting the codes and systems of the major cinematic traditions from within Using canonical directors and less established names ranging from Chantal Akerman to Moufida Tlatli as examples Butler argues that women s cinema is unified in spite of its diversity by the ways in which it reworks cinematic conventions Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden,2013 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Jacques Derrida Henri Cartier Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide African American Slang Maciej Wladawski,2015-03-05 In this pioneering exploration of African American slang a highly informal vocabulary and a significant aspect of African American English Maciej Widawski explores patterns of form meaning theme and function showing it to be a rule governed innovative and culturally revealing vernacular Widawski s comprehensive description is based on a large database of contextual citations from thousands of contemporary sources including literature and the press music film and television It also includes an alphabetical glossary of 1 500 representative slang expressions defined and illustrated by 4 500 usage examples Due to its vast size the glossary can stand alone as a dictionary providing readers with a reliable reference of terms Combining scholarship with user friendliness this book is an insightful and practical resource for students and researchers in linguistics as well as general readers interested in exploring lexical variation in contemporary English

Bioart Kitchen Lindsay Kelley,2016-03-07 What do new technologies taste like A growing number of contemporary artists are working with food live materials and scientific processes in order to explore and challenge the ways in which manipulation of biological materials informs our cooking and eating Bioart or biological art uses biotech methods to manipulate living systems from tissues to ecologies While most critiques of bioart emphasise the influences of new media digital media and genetics this book takes a bold alternative approach Bioart Kitchen explores a wide spectrum of seemingly unconnected subjects which when brought together offer a more inclusive expansive history of bioart namely home economics the feminist art of the 1970s tissue culture methodologies domestic computing and contemporary artistic engagements with biotechnology

To Life! Linda Weintraub,2012-09-01 To Life Eco Art in Pursuit of a Sustainable Planet documents the burgeoning eco art movement from A to Z presenting a panorama of artistic responses to environmental concerns from Ant Farm s anti consumer antics in the 1970s to Marina Zurkow s 2007 animation that anticipates the havoc wreaked upon the planet by global warming This text is the first international survey of twentieth and twenty first century artists who are transforming the global challenges facing humanity and the Earth s diverse living systems Their pioneering explorations are situated at today s cultural scientific economic spiritual and ethical frontiers The text guides students of art design environmental studies and interdisciplinary studies to integrate environmental awareness responsibility and activism into their professional and personal lives

Visual Shock Michael Kammen,2009-04-22 In this lively narrative award winning author Michael Kammen presents a fascinating analysis of cutting edge art and artists and their unique ability to both delight and provoke us He illuminates America s obsession with public memorials and the changing role of art and museums in our society From Thomas Eakins s 1875 masterpiece The Gross Clinic considered too big bold and gory when first exhibited to the bitter disputes about Maya Lin s Vietnam War Memorial this is an eye opening account of American art and the battles and controversies that it has ignited

Carrie Mae Weems Carrie Mae Weems,2021 Essays and interviews explore the work of the influential American artist Carrie Mae Weems her invention and originality the formal dimensions of her practice and her importance to the history of photography African American art and contemporary art Since the 1980s

Weems b 1953 has challenged the status of the Black female body within the complex social fabric of American society Her photographic work film and performance investigate spaces that range from the American kitchen table to the nineteenth century world of historically Black Hampton University to the ancient landscapes of Rome These texts consider the underpinnings of photographic history in Weems s work focusing on such early works as The Kitchen Table Series Weems s engagement with photographic archives historical spaces and the conceptual legacy of art history and the relationship between her work and its institutional venues The book makes clear not only the importance of Weems s work but also the necessity for an expanded set of concerns in contemporary art one in which race does not restrict a discussion of aesthetics as it has in the past robbing Black artists of a full consideration of their work From publisher s description Doing

Politics with Citizen Art Fawn Daphne Plessner,2022-04-12 This book examines how citizen art practices perform new kinds of politics as distinct from normative status participatory and cosmopolitan models It contends that at a time in which the conditions of citizenship have been radically altered e g by the increased securitization and individuation of bodies and so forth there is an urgent drive for citizen art to be enacted as a tool for assessing the hollowed out conditions of citizenship Citizen art it shows stands apart from other forms of art by performing acts of citizenship that reveal and transgress the limitations of state centred citizenship regimes whilst simultaneously enacting genuinely alternative modes of non statist citizenship This book offers a new formulation of citizen art one that is interrogated on both critical and material levels and as such remodels the foundations on which citizenship is conceived performed and instituted Transgressions Anthony

Julius,2002 The evidence assembled Julius concludes his hard hitting dissection of the landscapes of contemporary art by posing some important questions what is art s future when its boundary exceeding taboo breaking endeavors become the norm And is anything of value lost when we submit to art s violation BOOK JACKET Culture and the Condom Karen

Anijar,Thuy DaoJensen,2005 In the last decade of the twentieth century the safe sex message advocating the use of condoms to prevent pregnancy and curb the spread of AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases has endured relentless attacks by conservative religious groups who seek to instill doubt and promote an abstinence only theme in American public schools The essays in this book provide a stimulating historical and cultural inquiry into the multiplicity of meanings attributed to one prophylactic the condom Given the vast array of sexual attitudes toward condom usage within American culture and around the world Culture and the Condom will provoke readers into examining significant dominant discourses and alternative perspectives by viewing condoms through the lens of cinematic and television imagery artistic representations statistical analyses commercial advertising and animation Art Papers ,2001 Martha Rosler Rosalyn Deutsche,Elena

Volpato,Martha Rosler,Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.),2018-01-01 The politically engaged work of Martha Rosler is fascinating and provocative this wide ranging survey brings timely insights at a moment of resurgence for political activism and feminism Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley,2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon s works invite fresh readings of the New Testament s narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober s immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies
