Intimacy With The Beloved:

Intimacy with the Beloved Pat Chen, 1999-05 A prayer journey into the depths of God's presence Befriending Joseph A. Payne, 1992 A user friendly volume that will allow busy people to squeeze in some time for a self guided retreat on a much needed topic befriending God yourself and others Song of Songs Paul J. Griffiths, 2011-06 This addition to the well received Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible offers theological exegesis of the Song of Songs Queering Christ Robert E. Goss, 2007-01-01 In Queering Christ Robert E Goss summarizes a decade of his thinking as a queer Christian theologian sharing his queering of four critical areas sexuality Christ the Bible and theology These areas form the quadrants of his own spirituality that aims at the queer reconstruction of Christianity and reflects a life that strives to integrate the depths of spirituality and sexuality with a practice of justice Many aspects of the work are guaranteed to be highly controversial within and outside of the LGBT community Man Jesus Loved Theodore W. Jr. Jennings, Theodore W. Jennings, 2009-06-24 Homosexuality has been at the forefront of debate in the church for the last quarter century with Biblical interpretation at the heart of this debate Some biblical passages appear to condemn certain same sex relationships or erotic practices resulting in a challenge to clergy as well as laity regarding the preaching and understanding of these Biblical passages In The Man Jesus Loved Jennings proposes a gay affirmative reading of the Bible in the hope of respecting the integrity of these texts and making them more clear as well as persuasive This reading suggests that the exclusion of persons on the basis of their sexual orientation or same sex practices fundamentally distorts the Bible generally and the traditions concerning Jesus in particular The Strange Gospel James L. Resseguie, 2021-10-18 In this literary analysis of the Gospel of John Resseguie examines rhetoric setting character and plot to uncover the Gospel's unique point of view He shows the usefulness of the concepts of defamiliarization and point of view for understanding how the narrator makes the familiar seem strange A material familiar point of view that is voiced by the dominant culture is compared with a defamiliarized strange point of view that is expressed by Jesus and the disenfranchised Through close readings of narrative texts the author develops and elaborates the theological perspective of John which emerges in the clash of differing points of view The introduction defines objective and subjective point of view and shows the value of the works of Boris Uspensky and Susan Sniader Lanser for understanding the Gospel of John In chapter one irony misunderstandings and double entendres are shown to be important rhetorical tools in the Gospel's attempt to make the familiar seem strange Chapter two discusses point of view as it is expressed in architectural settings sheepfold garden courtyard praetorium well temple and tomb and in topographical settings sea mountain Chapter three highlights the distinct points of view of Jesus Nicodemus religious authorities the world the royal official the man at the pool the man born blind Mary Magdalene Simon Peter the beloved disciple and Judas Chapter four discusses the point of view that emerges from an analysis of the plot The final chapter is a summary of the narrative's singular point of view This work is a suitable introduction to a literary analysis of the Gospel of John It makes an important contribution to narrative criticism on the Fourth Gospel in particular and to our understanding of defamiliarization and point of view in general The book confronts head on habitualized and familiar ways of thinking in the ancient world and today In the Land of Forgetfulness Wayne A. Ewing,2024-07-25 In the Land of Forgetfulness meditatively reflects on dementia caregiving territory previously unexplored the uncanny parallel of the language used to describe dementia from the outside looking in with the language used by contemplatives and mystics to describe their spiritual formation from the inside looking outward The quiet passages are written in the interests of providing personal and professional dementia caregivers both solace and resource for the arduous exhausting and wearying journey with the Beloved into and through the land of forgetfulness The spiritually curious will also find the meditations to be provocative and sustaining The book is a companion volume to the author s previous multi award winning collection of reflections Tears in God s Bottle Lovers in Essence Sharon Krishek,2022 Romantic love is a defining phenomenon in human existence and an object of heightened interest for literature art popular culture and psychology But what is romantic love and why is it typically experienced as so significant to our existence Using central ideas from the philosophy of S ren Kierkegaard as well as engaging with contemporary discussions in the philosophy of love this book explores the nature of romantic love and philosophically substantiates its meaningfulness to an individual s life It does so by developing a connection between love and selfhood here explained in terms of one s distinct individuality To be a self it is claimed is to possess a name that is an individual essence Further the book argues it is when we love that we regard people by their names we respond to who they truly are Accordingly the idea anchoring the book is that love is a correspondence between essences if Jane loves Edward she responds to him being who he is by virtue of her being who she is The conception of being thus correspondent has important implications as to the moral and spiritual value of romantic love Relying on Kierkegaard s analysis of the self of faith and of love even if sometimes in a way that departs from Kierkegaard s explicit position the book explores these implications By doing this it construes romantic love as a desirable phenomenon emotionally morally and spiritually Song of Songs (Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible) Paul J. Griffiths,2011-06-01 In this addition to the well received Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible Paul Griffiths offers theological exegesis of the Song of Songs This commentary like each in the series is designed to serve the church providing a rich resource for preachers teachers students and study groups and demonstrate the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible Praise for the Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible The Brazos Theological Commentary offers just the right level of light to make illuminating the Word the joy it was meant to be Calvin Miller author of A Hunger for the Holy and Loving God Up Close Great is the Mystery: Encountering the Formational Power of Liturgy Joe Paprocki,D. Todd Williamson,2021-01-25 These Things Have Been Written Raymond F. Collins,1990 These Things Have Been Written calls to mind the fashion in which the Fourth Gospel was written with particular emphasis upon Johannine characterization In various ways it elucidates many facets of the evangelist's notion of faith. The final chapters focus on the incarnation of the Word and the new commandment of love. Raymond F. Collins is professor of New Testament Studies at the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium, and former rector of The American College affiliated with the university. The Handbook of Mirza Ghalib's Poetry and Poetics Tariq Rahman, 2024-04-12. The Handbook of Mirza Ghalib's Poetry and Poetics: Commentaries and Contemporary Concerns is a seminal contribution to Ghalib studies. It provides a detailed commentary in English on the poetry of Mirza Asadullah Khan Ghalib, known as Ghalib (1797-1869), arguably the greatest poet of Urdu, not only of the 19th century when he lived but of all time. Each couplet is explained in English and is underpinned by historical references. Each chapter is rigorous, thorough, and jargon-free, making it accessible to all readers. The commentary relates to the historical reality of Ghalib's time as well as the contemporary period. It quotes several couplets from Urdu, Punjabi, and English literature, as well as other significant texts that have influenced civilisations such as the Bible, the Quran, Dhammapadam, Bhagavad Gita, Plato, and so on. It touches upon cultural history too. Ghalib's commentaries, rich in cultural, historical, and literary references, make his work relevant to a wide range of contemporary concerns. The book is a social and literary guide to Indo-Islamic culture, Iranian, pre-Islamic cultural influences, and local folk. Indian, Islamic, The Urdu text of Ghalib and poetry in the literary languages of South Asia, Persian, Urdu, and Punjabi are transliterated according to a list of symbols that maintain accuracy and accessibility. The book introduces the reader not only to Ghalib's couplets but also to the most famous form of Islamic poetry, the ghazal, found in Arabic, Persian, Turkish, and Urdu literary traditions. In turn, it provides an alternative lens to understanding Islam and its interdisciplinary connections within the fields of international relations, politics, and sociology.

The Making of a Disciple Edward W. Watson, Martin M. Culy, 2021-09-02. Modern readers sometimes view the Gospels and other biblical narratives as mere historical accounts of events that occurred long ago. Biblical narratives, however, are intended to do far more than teach us history. They are intended to change how we think and how we live. In The Making of a Disciple, Watson and Culy use insights from narrative criticism to show that the message of the Gospel of John is communicated not only through the teachings and deeds of Jesus but also through the actions of the other main characters and the consequences of their actions. As readers observe characters interacting with Jesus, they are implicitly encouraged to either emulate or avoid their behavior. Coupled with the teachings and acts of Jesus, these characters serve as potent tools in the Gospel of John to showcase what it looks like not only to become a disciple of Jesus but also to grow to maturity and experience the fullness of
